ADMIRALTY-OFFICE—Jan. 11. 1806.

Copy of a letter from Sir Edward Pellew, Bart. Rear-Admiral of the Red, &c. to William Marsden, Esq. dated on board his Majesty's ship the Culloden, in Madras Roads, the 27th June 1805.

SIR,

I forward, for the satisfaction of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a letter from Lieutenant Bell, acting commander of his Majesty's sloop Victor, dated Busheer, 23d May, announcing his having captured, and subsequently destroyed a small French privateer, named Les Amis Rennis, (alias Le Vingt Cinq), on the 7th ult. at the entrance of the Persian Gulph.

I have the honour to be, &c.

E. PELLEW.

His Majesty's sloop Victor, Busheer Road, May 23. 1805.

SIR,

With pleasure I inform your Excellency, that his Majesty's ship Victor, under my command, on the 7th of this month, captured Les Amis Rennis, a French privateer of 50 tons, two long four pounders, and manned with thirty-eight men, just within the entrance of the Persian Gulph, the Coins bearing E. N. E. five or six leagues; out 80 days from the Isle of France; had not taken any thing. I was prompted to destroy her by having the convoy in company, which arrived hither safe three days since.

I have the honour to be, &c.

GEORGE BELL.

To Sir Edward Pellew, Bart. Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.
