A PROCLAMATION

DECLARING THAT THE NAME OF WINDSOR IS TO BE BORNE BY HIS ROYAL HOUSE AND FAMILY, AND RELINQUISHING THE USE OF ALL GERMAN TITLES AND DIGNITIES.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS We, having taken into consideration the Name and Title of Our Royal House and Family, have determined that henceforth Our House and Family shall be styled and known as the House and Family of Windsor:

And Whereas We have further determined for Ourselves and for and on behalf of Our descendants and all other the descendants of Our Grandmother Queen Victoria of blessed and glorious memory to relinquish and discontinue the use of all German Titles and Dignities:

And whereas We have declared these Our determinations in Our Privy Council:

Now, therefore, We, out of Our Royal Will and Authority, do hereby declare and announce that as from the date of this Our Royal Proclamation Our House and Family shall be styled and known as the House and Family of Windsor, and that all the descendants in the male line of Our said Grandmother Queen Victoria who are subjects of these Realms, other than female descendants who may marry or may have married, shall bear the said name of Windsor:

And do hereby further declare and announce that We for Ourselves and for and on behalf of Our descendants and all other the descendants of

Our said Grandmother Queen Victoria who are subjects of these Realms, relinquish and enjoin the discontinuance of the use of the Degrees, Styles, Dignities, Titles and Honours of Dukes and Duchesses of Saxony and Princes and Princesses of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, and all other German Degrees, Styles, Dignities, Titles, Honours and Appellations to Us or to them heretofore belonging or appertaining.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this Seventeenth day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and in the Eighth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION

FOR CONTINUING IN ACTUAL SERVICE MEN OF THE ROYAL NAVAL RESERVE AND ROYAL FLEET RESERVE, AND OFFICERS AND MEN OF THE ROYAL NAVAL VOLUNTEER RESERVE.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS by the fifth section of the Royal Naval Reserve (Volunteer) Act, 1859, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Us in case We see fit on any emergency by Proclamation to declare that such volunteers under that Act as may at the date of such Proclamation be in actual service shall continue in such actual service for the period of five years from the date of their respectively coming into actual service, if their services be so long required :

And whereas by the Naval Reserve Act, 1900, the Admiralty are authorised to raise and keep up a new division, commonly known as the Royal Fleet Reserve, of the force raised under the said first recited Act in addition to the men raised under that Act, and it is provided that certain provisions of the said Act of 1859 including the fifth section of that Act, shall apply to the force so raised :

And whereas by the Naval Forces Act, 1903, the Admiralty are authorised to raise and maintain a force to be called the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve :

And whereas by the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve Act, 1917, it is provided that the power under section five of the Royal Naval Reserve (Volunteer) Act, 1859, for His Majesty on any emergency by Proclamation to declare that such volunteers as may at the date of such Proclamation be in actual service shall continue in such actual service for a period of five years from the date of their respectively coming into actual service if their services be so long required, shall, during the continuance of the present war, notwithstanding anything in section one of the Naval Forces Act, 1903, extend to the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve as it extends to the Royal Naval Volunteers :

We do, by this Our Proclamation, order and direct that in the present emergency such volunteers under the said Acts as are in actual service shall continue in actual service in accordance with the provisions of the Royal Naval Reserve (Volunteer) Act, 1859.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this Seventeenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and in the Eighth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION

PROHIBITING THE EXPORTATION FROM THE UNITED KINGDOM OF DESIGNS FOR AIRCRAFT.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS by Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, it is enacted that the exportation of arms, ammunition, and gunpowder, military and naval stores, and any articles which We shall judge capable of being converted into or made useful in increasing the quantity of military or naval stores, provisions, or any sort of victual which may be used as food for man may be prohibited by Proclamation :

And whereas by Section one of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, it is enacted that the said section 8 shall have effect whilst a state of war in which We are engaged exists as if in addition to the articles therein mentioned there were included all other articles of every description :

And whereas We deem it expedient to prohibit the exportation of the articles hereinafter specified :

Now, therefore, We, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, in pursuance of the said Acts and all other powers enabling Us in that behalf, do hereby proclaim, direct, and ordain as follows :—

As from and after the date of this Proclamation the exportation from the United Kingdom of the following articles, that is to say, drawings, designs, specifications, and other descriptions in writing of any kind of aeroplanes or other aircraft, or of engines, or other accessories of aircraft, shall be prohibited :

Provided that nothing herein contained shall apply to any such articles exported under and in pursuance of any licence in that behalf granted by the Air Board.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this Seventeenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and in the Eighth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of July 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS under the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 3) Act, 1915, His Majesty has power by Order in Council to define any area wherein it appears to His Majesty on the grounds specified in the said Act to be expedient for the purpose of the successful prosecution of the present War that the sale and supply of intoxicating liquor should be controlled by the State and to apply to such area so defined the Regulations issued by His Majesty in pursuance of the said Act under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914 :

And whereas His Majesty in Council in pursuance of the said first-mentioned Act has issued the Defence of the Realm (Liquor Control) Regulations, 1915, under the said last-mentioned Act :

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 18th day of August 1916, His Majesty was pleased, in pursuance of the said first-mentioned Act, to apply the said Regulations and any Regulations amending the same to an area known as the Eastern Area and more particularly described in the Schedule to the said Order :

And whereas it appears to His Majesty to be expedient that the said Area should be extended, and that the Parishes of Shillington, Upper Stondon, Meppershall, Campton, Shefford, Shefford Hardwick, Clifton, Henlow, Langford, Arlsey, Astwick and Stotfold in the County of Bedford, and so much of the Parish of Southill in the said County as lies within the circumference of a circle having a radius of five hundred yards measured from the Railway Station at Shefford, should be included therein :

And whereas it appears to His Majesty that it is expedient for the purpose of the successful prosecution of the present War that the sale and supply of intoxicating liquor in the area thereby constituted and defined and specified in the Schedule hereto should be controlled by the State on the grounds that war material is being made, loaded, unloaded and dealt with in transit therein, and that men belonging to His Majesty's Naval and Military Forces are assembled therein :

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

The Defence of the Realm (Liquor Control) Regulations, 1915, and any Regulations amending the same, shall be, and are hereby, applied to the area defined and specified in the Schedule hereto.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

SCHEDULE.

The Eastern Area, being the area comprising the County Borough of Southend-on-Sea and the County of Essex (excepting such part thereof as is comprised in the London Area, as defined and specified in the Schedule to an Order in Council dated the 24th day of September 1915); the County Borough of Ipswich and the County of East Suffolk; the City of Norwich, and the County Borough of Great Yarmouth, and the Petty Sessional Divisions of Holt, Eynsford, Forehoe, Depwade, Diss, North Erpingham, South Erpingham, Taverham, Swainsthorpe, Earsham, Tunstead and Happing, East and West Flegg, Blofield and Walsham, and Loddon and Clavering, in the County of Norfolk; the County of Hertford (excepting such part thereof as is comprised in the London Area aforesaid); the Petty Sessional Divisions of Chesham and Burnham (excepting the Parishes of Farnham Royal, Burnham, Taplow, Hitcham, Dorney and Boveney) in the County of Buckingham; and the Parishes of Shillington, Upper Stondon, Meppershall, Campton, Shefford, Shefford Hardwick, Clifton, Henlow, Langford, Arlsey, Astwick and Stotfold in the County of Bedford, and so much of the Parish of Southill in the said County as lies within the circumference of a circle having a radius of five hundred yards measured from the Railway Station at Shefford.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of July 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-eighth day of November nineteen hundred and fourteen, His Majesty was pleased to make regulations (called the "Defence of the Realm Regulations") under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the realm :

And whereas the said Act has been amended by the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) Act, 1915, the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 2) Act, 1915, and the Munitions of War Act, 1915, and other enactments :

And whereas the said regulations have been amended by various subsequent Orders in Council :

And whereas it is expedient further to amend the said regulations in manner hereinafter appearing :

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendments be made in the said regulations :—

1. At the end of regulation 2E the following paragraph shall be inserted :—

"The Food Controller may, as respects articles to which his powers under Regulation 2F to 2J extend, exercise the like powers as are by this regulation conferred on the Admiralty, Army Council, and Minister of Munitions."

2. In Regulation 2F sub-section (3) shall be omitted.

3. Regulation 2G shall be amended as follows :—

(1) By the substitution for sub-section (1) thereof of the following sub-section :—

"The Food Controller may by order require persons engaged in the production, manufacture, purchase, sale, distribution, transport, storage, or shipment, of any article to which the powers of the Food Controller extend, to make returns giving such particulars as to their businesses as may be specified by or on behalf of the Food Controller and may require the returns to be verified as he may direct";

(2) By the substitution in sub-section (2) thereof for the words "articles to which the provisions of this regulation are applied" of the words "articles with respect to which an order under this regulation has been made";

(3) By the omission of sub-section (5) thereof.

4. Regulation 2G shall be amended as follows :—

(1) By the insertion of the word "stored" after the word "manufactured";

(2) By the insertion of the words "or to any plant used in connection therewith" after the words "adapted for sale";

(3) By the omission of the words from "and any such order may apply" to the end of sub-section (1) thereof;

(4) By the insertion of the words "or plant" after the word "premises" wherever that word occurs in sub-sections (2) and (3) thereof;

(5) By the omission of sub-section (4) thereof and by the insertion after sub-section (3) thereof of the following new sub-sections :—

"(4) It shall be lawful for the Food Controller—

"(a) To require any work in any such factory or workshop or other premises as aforesaid to be done in accordance with his directions given with the object of making the factory or workshop or other premises or the plant or labour therein as useful as possible for the production of food.

"(b) To regulate or restrict the carrying on of any work in any such factory workshop or other premises as aforesaid, or the engagement or employment of any workman, or all or any classes of workmen, therein, or to remove the plant therefrom, with a view to maintaining or increasing the production of food.

"(5) The occupier and every officer and servant of the occupier of any factory, workshop or other premises, or any other person affected by any such directions, regulations, or restrictions, and where the occupier is a company, every director of the company, shall obey the directions, regulations or restrictions of the Food Controller, and if he fails to do so he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations.

"(6) Where under this regulation any directions regulating the priority to be given to work at any factory, workshop, or other premises, have been given and any person in any certificate or document given or issued for the purpose of securing priority for any work in pursuance of such directions, makes any false statement or false representation, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations.

5. Regulation 2J shall be amended as follows:—

- (1) By the substitution for the words "Regulations numbered 2F, 2G, and 2H" of the words "Regulations numbered 2B, 2F, 2G, 2H and 7";
- (2) By the omission in sub-section (1) thereof of the words "numbered 2F and 2G";
- (3) By the insertion at the end of sub-section (1) thereof of the words "and any powers and duties necessary to provide for the due discharge of any functions assigned to local authorities by any order made by the Food Controller under the said Regulations";
- (4) By the substitution in sub-section (3) thereof for the words "the said regulations numbered 2F and 2G", of the words "these regulations", and by the insertion at the end of the same sub-section of the words "and any such order may be made either so as to apply generally, or so as to apply to any special locality, or so as to apply to any special supplies of any article or to any special producer, manufacturer, dealer or person, or to any class or description of factories workshops premises or plant, or to any special factory workshop premises or plant; and any such order may direct that all contracts, or any class of contracts, or any special contract, affected by the order shall be abrogated, or shall remain in force notwithstanding anything in the order but subject to any exceptions or modifications for which provision may be made by the order."

6. Regulation 2JJ shall be amended by the substitution for the words "articles 2F to 2J inclusive" of the words "regulations 2B, 2F to 2J inclusive, and 7".

7. In Regulation 8c for the words "or Minister or Munitions" wherever those words occur, there shall be substituted these words "Minister of Munitions or Food Controller".

8. At the end of Regulation 8cc the following paragraph shall be inserted:—

"The Food Controller may, as respects articles to which his powers under Regulations 2F to 2J extend, exercise the like powers as are by this regulation conferred on the Admiralty, Army Council, and Minister of Munitions".

9. At the end of Regulation 9gg the following sub-section shall be inserted:—

"(5) The Army Council may, as respects any road stone quarries, exercise the like powers as are by this regulation conferred on the Minister of Munitions, and the expression 'road stone quarries' includes slag dumps and slag works producing road materials."

10. For Regulation 24 the following regulation shall be substituted:—

"24. (1) No person shall—

(a) transit otherwise than through the post, or convey, to or from the United Kingdom, or receive or have in his possession for such transmission or conveyance, any letter, written message or memorandum; or

(b) without a permit issued by or under the authority of the Admiralty or Army Council transmit consign or export, otherwise than through the post, or convey, from the United Kingdom to any neutral country in Europe or America or to any enemy country any printed or written matter (including plans photographs and other pictorial representations) to which paragraph (a) does not apply.

"The foregoing provisions shall not apply—

(i) to 'Shipowners' letters' as defined by section thirty of the Post Office Act, 1908, nor to ship papers;

(ii) to any letter message or memorandum or any such written or printed matter as aforesaid conveyed by any person if he proves that it is required for his own use and does not contravene the provisions of any other of these regulations and is otherwise lawful;

(iii) to any class of letters, messages and memoranda or any written or printed matter for the time being exempted by a Secretary of State.

"(2) If any person acts in contravention of the foregoing provision or fails to comply with any condition subject to which a permit under this regulation has been granted, he shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations.

"(3) This regulation shall be in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions of any enactment order proclamation or regulation respecting the export of merchandise or trading with the enemy."

11. For Regulation 24B the following regulation shall be substituted:—

"24B. (1) No person shall, without a permit issued by or under the authority of the Admiralty or Army Council, transmit by post to any neutral country in Europe or America or to any enemy country any printed or written matter (including plans photographs and other pictorial representations) except

(a) patent specifications sent with the authority of the Board of Trade;

(b) letters and other postal correspondence, trade circulars and catalogues, bills of lading, invoices and similar trade documents, cheques, bills of exchange, and other negotiable or valuable securities, dispatched in accordance with any Post Office regulations for the time being in force.

"(2) If any person wilfully acts in contravention of the foregoing provision, or fails to comply with any condition subject to which a permit under this regulation has been granted, he shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations.

"(3) Any person who transmits through the post any printed or written matter by any indirect route or otherwise in such manner as to evade examination by an officer appointed to censor postal correspondence in this country shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations unless he proves that he did not intend that the examination should be evaded and that the printed or written matter does not contravene the provisions of any other of these regulations and is otherwise lawful.

"(4) This regulation shall be in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions of any enactment order proclamation or regulation respecting the export of merchandise or trading with the enemy."

12. After Regulation 27A the following regulation shall be inserted :—

"27AA. It shall not be lawful for any person in any newspaper, periodical, circular or other printed publication or in any public speech to publish any report or statement of, or to purport to describe or to refer to, any proceedings of the Convention assembled on the invitation of His Majesty's Government for the purpose of preparing a constitution for the future government of Ireland, or of any committee of that Convention except such report or statement thereof as may be officially authorised by the Chairman of the Convention.

"If any person contravenes any provision of this regulation, he shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations."

13. (1) After Regulation 48 the following regulation shall be inserted :—

"48A. Where the person guilty of an offence or a summary offence against these regulations is a corporation or company every director and officer of the corporation or company shall be guilty of the like offence unless he proves that the act constituting the offence took place without his knowledge or consent."

(2) In the regulations mentioned in the first column of the table appended hereto the words set out in the second column of that table shall be omitted.

TABLE.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

H.R.H. The Duke of Connaught and Strathearn.
 Archbishop of Canterbury.
 Lord Chancellor.
 Prime Minister.
 Lord President.
 Earl of Rosebery.
 Mr. A. Fisher.
 Mr. G. N. Barnes.
 Mr. W. P. Schreiner.
 Lieutenant-General J. C. Smuts.

WHEREAS by Section 1 of the Marriage of British Subjects (Facilities) Act, 1915, it is (amongst other things) enacted as follows :—

"Where His Majesty is satisfied that the law in force in any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom makes due provision for the publication of banns or for the giving of notice in respect of marriages between British Subjects intended to be solemnized or contracted in the United Kingdom, and for the recognition of certificates for marriage issued by Superintendent Registrars in England, and of certificates for marriage issued by Registrars, and certificates of proclamation of banns, in Scotland, and of certificates for marriage issued by Registrars in Ireland, as sufficient notice in respect of marriages between British Subjects intended to be solemnized or contracted in that part of His Majesty's Dominions, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, declare that this Section shall apply to that part of His Dominions, and in such case :—

"(a) Where a marriage is intended to be solemnized or contracted in the United Kingdom between a British Subject resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, and a British Subject resident in that part of His Majesty's Dominions, a certificate of notice of marriage issued in accordance with such law shall in England have the same effect as a certificate for marriage issued by a Superintendent Registrar, and in Scotland and Ireland have the same effect as a certificate for marriage issued by a Registrar in Scotland and Ireland respectively ; and

"(b) Where a marriage is intended to be solemnized or contracted in that part of His Majesty's Dominions between a British Subject resident in that part and a British Subject resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, a certificate for marriage may be issued in England by a Superintendent Registrar, or in Scotland or Ireland by a Registrar, in the like manner as if the marriage was to be solemnized or contracted under circumstances requiring the issue of such a certificate, and as if both such British Subjects were resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, as the case may be."

And whereas by Section 1 of the Marriage of British Subjects (Facilities) Amendment Act, 1916, it is enacted as follows:—

"If His Majesty is satisfied that, for the purposes of a marriage to be solemnized or contracted in any part of His Dominions outside the United Kingdom between a British Subject resident in that part and a British Subject resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, no notice of the marriage is, under the law in force in that part of His Dominions, required on the part of the person resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, declare that Section 1 of the Marriage of British Subjects (Facilities) Act, 1915, shall apply to that part of His Dominions, notwithstanding that the law in force in that part does not make provision for the recognition of certificates for marriage issued in England, Scotland, and Ireland, and of certificates of proclamation of banns issued in Scotland, as sufficient notice in respect of such marriages as aforesaid, provided that the other conditions required by that Section are fulfilled."

And whereas by Section 2 of the first hereinbefore recited Act it is enacted that His Majesty may, by Order in Council, extend the said Act to any British Protectorate, and on the making of any such Order the said Act shall, subject to the provisions of the Order, have effect as if the Protectorate were part of His Majesty's Dominions:

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that, for the purposes of a marriage to be solemnized or contracted in the British Protectorate hereinafter mentioned between a British Subject resident therein and a British Subject resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, no notice of the marriage is under the law in force in that Protectorate required on the part of the person resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, and that under the said law the other conditions required by the hereinbefore recited Section 1 of the Marriage of British Subjects (Facilities) Act, 1915, are fulfilled:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the above-recited Acts in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Section 1 of the Marriage of British Subjects (Facilities) Act, 1915, shall apply to the British Protectorate hereunder mentioned:—

The Pacific Protectorate (which term means any island, group of islands, or place under the jurisdiction of His Majesty's High Commissioner for the Western Pacific).

And the Right Honourable Walter Hume Long, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of July 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

H.R.H. The Duke of Connaught and Strathearn.
Archbishop of Canterbury.

Lord Chancellor.

Prime Minister.

Lord President.

Earl of Rosebery.

Mr. A. Fisher.

Mr. G. N. Barnes.

Mr. W. P. Schreiner.

Lieutenant-General J. C. Smuts.

WHEREAS by Section 1 of the Marriage of British Subjects (Facilities) Act, 1915, it is (amongst other things) enacted as follows:—

"Where His Majesty is satisfied that the law in force in any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom makes due provision for the publication of banns or for the giving of notice in respect of marriages between British Subjects intended to be solemnised or contracted in the United Kingdom, and for the recognition of certificates for marriage issued by Superintendent Registrars in England, and of certificates for marriage issued by Registrars, and certificates of proclamation of banns, in Scotland, and of certificates for marriage issued by Registrars in Ireland, as sufficient notice in respect of marriages between British Subjects intended to be solemnised or contracted in that part of His Majesty's Dominions, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, declare that this Section shall apply to that part of His Dominions, and in such case:—

"(a) Where a marriage is intended to be solemnised or contracted in the United Kingdom between a British Subject resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, and a British Subject resident in that part of His Majesty's Dominions, a certificate of notice of marriage issued in accordance with such law shall in England have the same effect as a certificate for marriage issued by a Superintendent Registrar, and in Scotland and Ireland have the same effect as a certificate for marriage issued by a Registrar in Scotland and Ireland respectively; and

"(b) Where a marriage is intended to be solemnised or contracted in that part of His Majesty's Dominions between a British Subject resident in that part and a British Subject resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, a certificate for marriage may be issued in England by a Superintendent Registrar, or in Scotland or Ireland by a Registrar, in the like manner as if the marriage was to be solemnised or contracted under circumstances requiring the issue of such a certificate, and as if both such British Subjects were resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, as the case may be":

And whereas by Section 2 of the said Act it is enacted that His Majesty may, by Order in Council, extend the said Act to any British Protectorate, and on the making of any such Order the said Act shall, subject to the provisions of the Order, have effect as if the Protectorate were part of His Majesty's Dominions:

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that due provision is made in respect of all the matters referred to in the hereinbefore-recited Section 1 of the said Act by the law in force in the British Protectorates hereinafter mentioned :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the above-recited Act in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

Section 1 of the Marriage of British Subjects (Facilities) Act, 1915, shall apply to the British Protectorates hereunder mentioned :—

The Nyasaland Protectorate, Zanzibar.

And the Right Honourable Walter Hume Long, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

Mr. W. P. Schreiner.
Lieutenant-General J. C. Smuts.

WHEREAS by Section 1 of the Marriage of British Subjects (Facilities) Act, 1915, it is (amongst other things) enacted as follows :—

“Where His Majesty is satisfied that the law in force in any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom makes due provision for the publication of banns or for the giving of notice in respect of marriages between British Subjects intended to be solemnised or contracted in the United Kingdom, and for the recognition of certificates for marriage issued by Superintendent Registrars in England, and of certificates for marriage issued by Registrars, and certificates of proclamation of banns, in Scotland, and of certificates for marriage issued by Registrars in Ireland, as sufficient notice in respect of marriages between British Subjects intended to be solemnised or contracted in that part of His Majesty's Dominions, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, declare that this Section shall apply to that part of His Dominions, and in such case :—

“(a) Where a marriage is intended to be solemnised or contracted in the United Kingdom between a British Subject resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, and a British Subject resident in that part of His Majesty's Dominions, a certificate of notice of marriage issued in accordance with such law shall in England have the same effect as a certificate for marriage issued by a Superintendent Registrar, and in Scotland and Ireland have the same effect as a certificate for marriage issued by a Registrar in Scotland and Ireland respectively ; and

“(b) Where a marriage is intended to be solemnised or contracted in that part of His Majesty's Dominions between a British Subject resident in that part and a British Subject resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, a certificate for marriage may be issued in England by a Superintendent Registrar, or in Scotland or Ireland by a Registrar, in the like manner as if the marriage was to be solemnised or contracted under circumstances requiring the issue of such a certificate, and as if both such British Subjects were resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, as the case may be.”

And whereas by Section 1 of the Marriage of British Subjects (Facilities) Amendment Act, 1916, it is enacted as follows :—

“If His Majesty is satisfied that, for the purposes of a marriage to be solemnised or contracted in any part of His Dominions outside the United Kingdom between a British Subject resident in that part and a British Subject resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, no notice of the marriage is, under the law in force in that part of His Dominions, required on the part of the person resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, declare that Section 1 of the Marriage of British Subjects (Facilities) Act, 1915, shall apply to that part of His Dominions, notwithstanding that the law in force in that part does not make provision for the recognition of certificates for marriage issued in England, Scotland, and Ireland, and of certificates of proclamation of banns issued in Scotland, as sufficient notice in respect of such marriages as aforesaid, provided that the other conditions required by that Section are fulfilled :”

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that, for the purposes of a marriage to be solemnised or contracted in the parts of His Dominions outside the United Kingdom hereinafter mentioned between a British Subject resident therein and a British Subject resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, no notice of the marriage is under the law in force in those parts of His Dominions required on the part of the person resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, and that under the said law the other conditions required by the hereinbefore-recited Section 1 of the Marriage of British Subjects (Facilities) Act, 1915, are fulfilled :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the above-recited Acts in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

Section 1 of the Marriage of British Subjects (Facilities) Act, 1915, shall apply to the parts of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom hereunder mentioned :—

The Island of Jamaica,

The Gilbert and Ellice Islands Colony.

And the Right Honourable Walter Hume Long, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Whitehall, July 16, 1917.

His Majesty the KING has been pleased to award the Edward Medal of the 1st Class to George Shearer Christie, James Erskine, David Baird, Andrew Scott, Edward M'Cafferty, and John Boyle.

On the 20th January 1917, at about 10 a.m., while operations were being conducted for the widening of a shaft at the Cowdenbeath Colliery, Fife, a portion of the side of the shaft collapsed, throwing a workman named Newton down the mine to a scaffold about 90 feet below.

Scott, M'Cafferty, and Baird at once descended in a large bucket or kettle to attempt a rescue. The whole of the shaft below the point at which the fall had occurred was in a highly dangerous condition: stones and rubbish were continually falling, and there was constant danger of a further collapse. Newton was found, alive and conscious, buried beneath about 12 feet of debris and pinned by some fallen timber. The men worked continuously from 10.45 a.m. until 7 p.m. They were joined at 11 a.m. by Christie, and at 1.30 p.m. by Baird, both of whom remained at work with the others until 7 p.m. During the whole of this period all five men were in serious danger.

At 12.45 Boyle descended in the kettle with two other men. While the kettle was descending a fall occurred, killing one of his companions and injuring another. Boyle drew the kettle to the side of the shaft until the fall was over, and then took the kettle again to the surface. He subsequently remained in charge of the kettle, exposed to constant danger, until 7 p.m.

At 7 p.m., after 9 hours' continuous and highly dangerous labour, the rescue party was relieved by other men. Unfortunately, Newton died at 8.30 p.m. Attempts to recover his body were then postponed until the shaft could be worked with greater safety.

POLICE, FACTORIES, &c. (MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS) ACT, 1916.

The Secretary of State for the Home Department gives notice that on the 16th July 1917, he made Rules in pursuance of subsection (6) of Section 7 of the Police, Factories, &c. (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1916, as to the time and manner of making objections to Orders proposed to be made under subsection (1) of the said Section, and as to the selection of, and the procedure before, a Referee, and the cost of the proceedings before a Referee (including his remuneration).

Copies of the Rules can be purchased through any Bookseller or directly from H.M. Stationery Office at the following addresses: Imperial House, Kingsway, London, W.C. 2, and 28, Abingdon Street, London, S.W. 1; 37 Peter Street, Manchester; 1 St. Andrew's Crescent, Cardiff; 23 Forth Street, Edinburgh; or from E. Ponsonby Ltd., 116 Grafton Street, Dublin.

Whitehall,
19th July 1917.

ARMY COUNCIL ORDER.

DEFENCE OF THE REALM REGULATIONS.

Prohibition of the Lifting of Hay and Straw in Great Britain and Ireland and the Isle of Man.

1. In pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the Defence of the Realm Regulations, the Army Council hereby give notice that all hay or oat or wheat straw now standing in bulk in Great Britain and Ireland and the Isle of Man or as and when harvested is taken possession of by the Army Council and shall from the date of this Order, or as and when harvested, be held at the disposal of the duly authorised Officers of the War Department; excepting such hay or straw of the 1916 or earlier crop as has been released by Sale Licence. The Army Council Orders of the 30th June 1916, and the 14th September 1916, relative to the prohibition of the lifting of hay and straw in England, Wales and Ireland, in Great Britain, in Scotland, and in the Isle of Man respectively are hereby cancelled.

2. Applications to enable hay or wheat or oat straw to be sold to private consumers or dealers will only be granted in respect of qualities and quantities of hay or straw in respect of which a Sale Licence has been issued being found not to be required for Army use, and that part of the Army Council Order of 9th May 1917, prohibiting the use of straw for certain purposes, in so far as it relates to wheat straw in Great Britain, and in so far as it relates to oat straw in Scotland, is cancelled.

3. Farmers and stock breeders are authorised to use a reasonable quantity of hay or oat or wheat straw in their possession for consumption by stock in their possession or control.

4. Applications for sale under this Order must be made in writing to the District Purchasing Officer of the district or county in which the hay or straw affected is standing.

5. Applications to purchase for the purpose of re-sale will be made in England and Wales and the Isle of Man to the Administrative Member, Forage Committee, 64 Whitehall Court, London, S.W. 1; in Ireland to the Area Administrative Officer, Royal Hospital, Dublin, and in Scotland to the Area Administrative Officer, Carlton Hotel, Edinburgh.

6. All Licences or Authorities issued under this Order will be issued subject to the restrictions and conditions contained in such Licences or Authorities; any departure from these conditions or other act in contravention of the provisions of this Order will be an offence under the Defence of the Realm Regulations, and render the offender liable to the penalties attaching thereto.

7. Detailed instructions regarding the necessary procedure to be adopted by all desiring to sell, purchase or remove hay or straw under this Order can be obtained on application to the Secretary, Forage Committee, 64 Whitehall Court, London, S.W. 1; in Ireland to the Area Administrative Officer, Royal Hospital, Dublin; in Scotland to the Area Administrative Officer, Carlton Hotel, Edinburgh; and in the Isle of Man to the D.P.O.S., Edinburgh House, Loch Promenade, Douglas.

ARMY COUNCIL ORDER.

WOOL.

Whereas by the Wool (Restriction of Consumption) Order, 1917, the Army Council regulated the hours of work in certain factories:

And whereas the said Order was amended by Orders of the Army Council dated the 5th June 1917 and 9th June 1917:

And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Order in the manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, the Army Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Defence of the Realm Regulations, hereby order that the following amendments be made in the said Order:—

1. In clause 5, there shall be inserted after the words "amounted to 55½ hours" the words "or more."

2. After clause 7, the following new clauses shall be inserted:—

"8. In any textile factory, the business carried on in which consists wholly or partly in the combing of Merino wool, the weekly hours of work on combing such Merino wool shall not, except under permit issued by or on behalf of the Director of Army Contracts, include, after the fourteenth day of July 1917, any hours of work on any Monday or Monday night, provided that nothing herein contained shall apply to re-combing.

"9. In any textile factory, the business carried on in which does not consist wholly or partly, at the date hereof, in the combing of Merino wool, no Merino wool shall be combed.

"10. In any textile factory, the business carried on in which consists wholly or partly in the combing of Merino wool, those combs engaged at the date hereof on Merino wool shall not manipulate any wool other than Merino."

By Order of the Army Council.

18th July 1917.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Military Cross to Capt. John Palethorpe, R.F.C.

During a recent hostile air raid Capt. Palethorpe, with 1st Cl. Air Mech. J. O. Jessop, R.F.C., as Gunner, was engaged in an endurance trial from a testing squadron.

When about three miles from the coast a formation of seventeen enemy aeroplanes was sighted. Capt. Palethorpe at once attacked with great courage and determination, under very heavy fire, till the Gunner was killed.

He then landed, and having procured another Gunner, endeavoured to renew the attack.

Mentioned in Despatches for gallant and distinguished services in connection with recent enemy air raids:—

No. 25501 1st Cl. Air Mech. James Oliver Jessop, R.F.C. (Killed in action.)

R. MIDDLEMASS & SON LIMITED AND REDUCED.

A PETITION has been presented to the Lords of Council and Session (First Division,—Mr. Paton, Clerk) by R. Middlemass & Son Limited and Reduced, incorporated under the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1890, and having their Registered Office at No. 137 Causeway-side, Edinburgh, praying their Lordships, inter alia, to pronounce an Order confirming the reduction of Share Capital resolved on by the following Special Resolution, passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held on thirty-first May nineteen hundred and seventeen, and confirmed at a subsequent Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held on twenty-first June nineteen hundred and seventeen, viz:—

"That the share capital of the Company, consisting of £80,000, divided into 4000 Preference Shares of £10 each, all issued and fully paid, and 4000 Ordinary Shares of £10 each, all issued and fully paid, be reduced to £30,000, divided into 4000 Preference Shares of £5 each, all issued and fully paid, and 4000 Ordinary Shares of £2, 10s. each, all issued and fully paid; and that such reduction be effected by cancelling paid-up capital to the extent of and by the sum of £5 on each of the said Preference Shares, and by reducing the nominal amount of these Shares to £5 each, fully paid, and to the extent of and by the sum of £7, 10s. on each of the said Ordinary Shares, and by reducing the nominal amount of these Shares to £2, 10s. each, fully paid"; to approve of the Minute set forth in the Petition; to direct the registration of the said Confirmation Order and Minute by the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies; and, on the said Order and Minute being registered as aforesaid, to direct notice thereof to be given by advertisement once in the Edinburgh Gazette; to dispense altogether with the words "and Reduced" as part of the name of the Company, all as fully set forth in the said Petition; on which Petition their Lordships of the First Division have been pleased to pronounce an Interlocutor in the following terms:—

"Edinburgh, 17th July 1917.—The Lords appoint the Petition to be intimated on the Walls and in the Minute-Book in common form, to be advertised once in the Edinburgh Gazette and once in the Scotsman newspaper; and allow all parties having or claiming interest to lodge Answers within eight days after such intimation and advertisement; further, dispense with the words 'and Reduced' as part of the name of the Company from this date until the disposal of the Petition.
