

SECOND SUPPLEMENT

TO

The Edinburgh Gazette

Of FRIDAY the 24th of AUGUST 1917.

Published by Authority.

This Gazette has now been registered at the General Post Office for transmission by Inland Post as a newspaper. As regards copies sent by post within the United Kingdom, unless dispatched in proper course from a Metropolitan Government Office, or from the Publishing Office of the Gazette, the postage should in future be prepaid at the rate of a halfpenny for each copy. Copies sent abroad should be prepaid at the rate of a halfpenny for every 2 ounces, except in the case of copies sent to Canada, which will be transmissible by the Canadian Magazine Post at the rate of a penny for every pound or fraction of a pound.

MONDAY, AUGUST 27, 1917.

War Office,
25th August, 1917.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to award a Bar to the Distinguished Service Order to:—

Maj. (T.Lt.-Col.) Cyril Darcy Vivien Cary-Barnard, D.S.O., Wilts. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He handled his battalion with conspicuous success and ability on numerous occasions, inspiring all ranks with confidence by his fearless example.

(D.S.O. gazetted 1st January, 1915.)

Capt. and Bt. Maj. Henry Cecil Lloyd Howard, D.S.O., Lrs.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty as Brigade's Liaison Officer. He went into the midst of a very heavy hostile barrage and remained there with the leading troops of the brigade until consolidation commenced and touch was established on the flanks. By his total disregard of danger he contributed largely to the success of the attack.

(D.S.O. gazetted 1st January, 1917.)

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the appointments of the undermentioned Officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty in the Field:—

T./Maj. (A. Lt.-Col.) Charles William Howard Birt, Bord. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He made a dashing and successful reconnaissance of the ground in front of his outpost line, which enabled his battalion to make a successful attack on the following day. During this reconnaissance he encountered and wiped out a hostile picket which endeavoured to intercept his patrol, and, although wounded and very severely shaken by heavy shell fire, he displayed great personal courage and gallantry during the attack, as he had previously done on two other occasions.

Temp. Lt.-Col. William Charles Clark, R. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in leading his battalion with great cool-

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER.
