TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1917.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of October 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-eighth day of November nineteen hundred and fourteen, His Majesty was pleased to make regulations (called the "Defence of the Realm Regulations") under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the realm :

And whereas the said Act has been amended by the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) Act, 1915, the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 2) Act, 1915, and the Munitions of War Act, 1915, and other enactments :

And whereas the said regulations have been amended by various subsequent Orders in Council :

"(3) If any person fails to comply with any requirement made under the provisions of this regulation or obstructs any chief officer of police or any person authorised as aforesaid in the execution of his powers under this regulation he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations."

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of October 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is enacted by Section 1 of the Ministry of National Service Act, 1917, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty to appoint a Minister of National Service under the title of Director-General of National Service, and that the Director-General of National Service (hereinafter referred to as the Director-General) shall have such powers and duties of any Government department or authority, whether conferred by statute or otherwise, as His Majesty may by Order in Council transfer to him or authorise him to exercise or perform concurrently with or in consultation with the Government department or authority concerned:

And whereas by virtue of Section 14 of the New Ministries and Secretaries Act, 1916, as applied by sub-section (2) of Section 2 of the Ministry of National Service Act, 1917, where any powers or duties are transferred by virtue of the said last-mentioned Act the transfer is to take effect as from a date to be fixed by Order of His Majesty in Council, and different dates may be fixed for different powers and duties:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in pursuance of the powers conferred on Him by the said recited Acts and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. There shall be transferred to the Director-General by virtue of this Order all powers and duties of the Army Council or the Secretary of State under the enactments mentioned in Part I. of the Schedule to this Order, and those enactments shall accordingly be construed and have effect as if the Director-General were specified therein instead of the Army Council or the Secretary of State, as the case may be.

2. If the Director-General and the Army Council at any time after the date of this Order agree that any other powers or duties of the Army Council, Secretary of State, or any military authority, in relation to recruiting, enlistment, the calling up of the reserve forces, exempting from service, or otherwise in relation to the provision of men for the Army, ought to be transferred to the Director-General, those powers and duties shall on notice to that effect being given by the Director-General and the Army Council, be thereupon transferred by virtue of this Order to the Director-General.

3. The Director-General may exercise concurrently with the Army Council or Secretary of State, as the case may be, the powers conferred by the enactments mentioned in Part II. of the Schedule to this Order, and those enactments shall accordingly be construed and have effect as if the Director-General were specified therein in addition to the Army Council or the Secretary of State, as the case may be.

4. A reference to any of the enactments mentioned in the Schedule to this Order shall be deemed to include a reference to any of those enactments as applied to any other subject matter by any other enactments.

5. Nothing in this Order shall affect the validity of any regulations or orders made, any action taken, or any forms authorised before this Order comes into operation by the Army Council, Secretary of State, or any other authority, and any such regulations, orders, or forms, shall until revoked or varied by the Director-General, continue in force as though they had been made or authorised by the Director-General under the powers vested in him under this Order.

6. This Order shall come into operation on the first day of November 1917:

Provided that if the Director-General is of opinion that it is expedient to postpone the operation of this Order, either generally, or as respects any particular area in the United Kingdom, or as respects the transfer of any particular power or duty, he may at any time before the said first day of November and thereafter from time to time, by order, postpone the operation of this Order accordingly to a date or dates not later than the first day of May 1918, and if any order is so made by the Director-General this Order shall have effect accordingly.

7. (1) This Order may be cited as the Ministry of National Service Order, 1917.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

NOTE (1).—All persons or firms resident, carrying on business or being in the United Kingdom are prohibited from having, with any person or firm mentioned in this List, or in any List issued under the Trading with the Enemy (Statutory List) Proclamation, 1916, No. 3, any dealings other than such as are expressly authorised by paragraph 5 of the Proclamation. A List (the Consolidating List, No. 37A) consolidating all previous Lists was published on the 12th October 1917, and which, together with the List herewith annexed, contains all the names which up to this date are included in the Statutory List.

Additions to and variations in these Lists will be published at intervals approximately of two weeks.

The Lists are published in the London Gazette and reproduced in the Board of Trade Journal, and separate copies of all Lists may be obtained at a small cost from the Superintendent of Publications, His Majesty's Stationery Office, Imperial House, Kingsway, W.C.

†NOTE (2).—Where a person or firm mentioned in the List has more than one address in the country, or group of countries under which the name of the person or firm appears, all dealings in that country, or in any country in the group, with such person or firm are prohibited, even in cases where one only of the addresses or one only of the countries is specifically mentioned.

*NOTE (3).—Trading is prohibited under the Trading with the Enemy Proclamations of 25th June and 10th November 1915 with any person or firm of enemy nationality resident or carrying on business in China, Siam, Persia, Morocco, Liberia, or Portuguese East Africa. Persons or firms in the United Kingdom are therefore prohibited from trading with any person or firm of enemy nationality in any of those countries, even though such person or firm is not mentioned by name in the Statutory List.

NOTE (4).—In order to minimise as far as possible any inconvenience which may be caused to British traders by the dislocation of export trade owing to the inclusion in the Statutory List of a former connection, the Foreign Trade Department is collecting and classifying the names of non-enemy firms who may be able to act as substitutes for firms mentioned in the Statutory List. A considerable amount of information is already available at the Foreign Trade Department, and it is in many cases possible to suggest the names of satisfactory substitutes without the necessity of referring the matter abroad. The Department is, however, prepared on application to inquire of His Majesty's Representatives abroad for the names of suitable substitutes. When the applicant wishes this done by telegraph he is required to undertake to pay the cost of telegraphic correspondence. It would greatly facilitate the work of the Foreign Trade Department if applicants in making inquiries would specify the particular trade or trades for which substitutes are required.

NOTE (5).—The Statutory List for each country is telegraphed, on the day of issue, to His Majesty's Representative in that country, who is instructed to notify accordingly British Consular Officers, to whom persons abroad should apply for information as to names on the List. Persons and firms in the United Kingdom with agencies or branches abroad would, however, be well advised to furnish such agencies or branches with issues of the List as they appear. The Lists for all countries in Central or South America are also telegraphed to His Majesty's Ambassador at Washington, who transmits them to H.M. Consul-General at New York and to other centres in the United States likely to be interested.

§NOTE (6).—It is not unusual for firms in Holland and the Netherland East Indies to be registered under names commencing with descriptive terms such as "Handel Maatschappij" (Trading Company) or "Naamlooze Venootschap" (Limited Liability Company). In such cases it has been found more convenient to publish the firm under its proper name followed by the general descriptive term "Handel Maatschappij" or "Naamlooze Venootschap" (N.V.) as in the case of an English company. For instance, Handel Maatschappij van den Berg & Company, and Naamlooze Venootschap de Komeet v/h Dumonceau Frères will be found under "Berg" and "Komeet" respectively, and not under "Handel" or "Naamlooze."

Made by the Board of Trade under Regulations 2F, 2G, and 2JJ of the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

Whereas the Board of Trade have made Orders restricting the use of paper for the purpose of posters, catalogues, price lists and advertising circulars dated respectively 2nd March 1917 and 17th March 1917, and whereas General Licences were granted by the Board on 18th April 1917 and 20th August 1917, under the first of the said Orders:

And whereas it appears expedient to the Board of Trade to amend and consolidate the said Orders and Licences:

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade, in exercise of their powers under the Defence of the Realm Regulations, hereby order as follows:—

Posters.

1. (a) In this Order the expression "poster" means a sheet or sheets made wholly or partly of paper, cardboard, or other similar material containing any advertisement, announcement, or intimation, whether in words, pictorial form, or otherwise, printed, written, or depicted, which is exhibited or intended to be exhibited;

(b) An announcement, advertisement or intimation consisting of any combination of posters shall be treated as one poster;

(c) In the case of posters relating to the advertisement of or contents in any newspaper or periodical, the expression "poster" includes posters made of any material whatever.

2. No person shall exhibit or cause or permit to be exhibited any poster relating to the advertisement of or contents in any newspaper or periodical except at the premises where the newspaper or periodical is published.

3. No person shall make or exhibit or cause or permit to be made or exhibited any poster the superficial measurements of which exceed two thousand four hundred square inches.

4. No person shall exhibit or affix or cause or permit to be exhibited or affixed on any one wall, hoarding or place a number of posters relating to the same subject matter or business which in the aggregate exceeds a superficial area of two thousand four hundred square inches, except at the place of business of the person advertising, in which case no one poster so exhibited or affixed shall exceed the superficial area aforesaid.

5. No person shall exhibit, or cause or permit to be exhibited, any poster containing any advertisement, announcement, or intimation with respect to goods offered for sale by a retailer, except at the premises where such goods are offered for sale, nor any poster containing any advertisement, announcement, or intimation with respect to the business of a moneylender, book-maker, commission agent for the making or placing of bets and wagers or with respect to any competition involving guessing or any test of skill.

Advertising Circulars.

6. In this Order the expression "advertising circulars" includes advertisements (other than posters) issued gratuitously and printed or written on paper, cardboard, or other similar material; tradesmen's catalogues and price lists; advertising sheets or periodicals in the form of a newspaper or magazine, whether registered as a newspaper or not, which are distributed gratuitously and of which advertising is the main and not merely an ancillary purpose, diaries, almanacks, and calendars issued gratuitously and containing advertising matter.

7. Save as is hereinafter provided no person shall issue or despatch any advertising circular, either by post, by hand, in the form of inset or otherwise, whether the same is issued or despatched by a trader to a trader, or in response to a request in writing or otherwise.

8. Advertising circulars may until 31st January 1918 be issued and despatched within the United Kingdom for, by and on behalf of all persons, other than those mentioned in paragraph 13 hereof, provided that the total weight of paper used for such advertising circulars (including the envelopes or wrappers) between 20th day of August 1917 and 31st day of January 1918 shall not exceed one-third of that used by the person by or on whose behalf the same were issued or despatched within the United Kingdom between 1st August 1916 and 31st January 1917.

9. 10. Nothing in this Order shall apply to diaries, almanacks, and calendars containing advertising matter for gratuitous issue for the year 1918 which were printed or partly printed before 10th day of September 1917, and which contain no more advertising matter than was contained in the issue made for the same person for the year 1917, and which are not made for or issued by the persons mentioned in paragraph 13 hereof, nor to circulars requesting verification of information for books of reference and containing no advertising matter other than that relating to books of reference published by the same person.

11. Nothing in this Order applies to circulars relating to the purchase, sale, or dealing in, or to price lists of, any stocks, shares, debentures, bonds or securities of a like nature issued or despatched by members of the London Stock Exchange or of any provincial Stock Exchange represented on the Council of Associated Stock Exchanges.

13. No advertising circulars shall be made, printed, issued, despatched, or exhibited for, by, or on behalf of any registered moneylender, bookmaker, commission agent for the making or placing of any bets or wagers, or by the promoters of or persons interested in any guessing competition or test of skill.

14. Where it appears to the Board of Trade or the Royal Commission on Paper that the total weight of paper used by or on behalf of any person for advertising circulars issued or despatched by him between 1st August 1916 and 31st January 1917, or in the case of those circulars mentioned in paragraph 9, between 1st August 1914 and 31st January 1915, was unreasonable or excessive, having regard to the nature and importance of the business or matter referred to in such circulars and all the circumstances of the case, the Board or Royal Commission on Paper may by notice in writing directed to such person prescribe the total weight of paper that may be used by such persons for advertising circulars issued or despatched between the dates mentioned in paragraphs 8 and 9 of this Order, and such weight may be less than that permitted by those paragraphs and shall be the total weight which such person is hereby permitted to use for the purpose aforesaid.

15. All persons who make, print, issue, despatch, distribute, or publish advertising circulars shall, if and when required by the Royal Commission on Paper on behalf of the Board of Trade, make returns to the said Commission in such form and giving such particulars as they may direct as to the making, printing, issuing, despatch, distribution, or publication of advertising circulars.

General.

16. Nothing in this Order applies to posters or advertising circulars despatched or to be despatched by persons (other than those mentioned in paragraph 13) to persons abroad.

17. The Paper Restriction Order, 1917, and the Paper Restriction Order, 1917 (No. 2), and the General Licences granted under the Paper Restriction Order, 1917, are hereby revoked without prejudice to any act or thing done or suffered or to any penalty incurred or prosecution or proceeding which has been or may be instituted thereunder.

18. The Royal Commission on Paper, on behalf of the Board of Trade, may in such cases as they think fit, and either particularly as respects any person or thing, or generally as respects any class of persons or things, issue Licences dispensing with the application of this Order to any person or thing or any class of persons or things.

19. Where the fulfilment by any person of any contract is interfered with by the necessity on the part of himself or any other person of complying with any provision of this Order, that necessity shall be a good defence to any action or proceeding taken against that person in respect of the nonfulfilment of the contract, so far as it is due to that interference.

20. Infringements of this Order are summary offences under the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

21. This Order may be cited as the Paper Restriction (Posters and Circulars) Consolidation Order, 1917.

(2) If any person having control of any tar oil to which this Order applies without the consent of the Minister of Munitions sells, removes, or secretes it or deals with it in any way contrary to any conditions imposed in any licences that be granted in respect thereof, he will be guilty of an offence against the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

(3) No person shall on or after the 1st November 1917 until further notice purchase or take delivery of any tar oil situate in the United Kingdom except under and in accordance with the terms of a licence issued under the authority of the Ministry of Munitions, or offer to sell, sell, supply, or deliver any such tar oil to any person other than the holder of such a licence and in accordance with the terms thereof. Provided that no such licence shall be required:

(a) By any person for the purchase and delivery of tar oil in quantities not exceeding an aggregate of 5 gallons during any one calendar month.

(b) By any person, after the first application by him for and pending the granting or refusal of a licence, for the delivery to him under a contract in writing existing at the date hereof of tar oil for the purpose of benzol washing or the manufacture of disinfectants, antiseptic drugs, lamp or vegetable black, or fuel, to an amount not exceeding during any one calendar month the amount of the average monthly deliveries under such contract during the three calendar months immediately preceding the date hereof.

(4) No purchase or sale of tar oil situated in the United Kingdom, or offer to purchase or sell any such tar oil whether such purchase, sale or offer is or is not under any licence issued under the authority of the Minister of Munitions, shall, in the case of any class of tar oil specified in the schedule hereto, be until further notice at a price exceeding the price fixed for the same in the said schedule, provided that this clause shall not apply to any deliveries under and in pursuance of a contract in writing entered into prior to the 13th July 1917.

(5) No person, whether he is or is not the actual producer of such tar oil shall on and after the 1st November 1917 until further notice use any tar oil exceeding in quantity 5 gallons in any one calendar month for the purpose of or in connection with any manufacture or work except under and in accordance with the terms of a licence issued under the authority of the Minister of Munitions.

(6) All persons producing or holding stocks of tar oils shall furnish to the Controller of Explosives Supply, Storey's Gate, Westminster, S.W. 1, as and when required by him such returns of tar oils at any time manufactured, purchased, sold, supplied, delivered, or used by them at such times and in such form as the said Controller of Explosives Supply shall from time to time direct.

(7) All persons heretofore required by the Minister of Munitions to furnish returns relating to tar oil shall until further notice continue to furnish returns in accordance with such previous requirements.

(8) For the purpose of this Order the expression "tar oil" shall mean Creosote Oil, Green Oil, Sharp Oil, Anthracene Oil, and other oils produced from or containing an admixture of oil produced from the distillation of Coal Tar, Coke Oven Tar, Producer Tar, Water Gas Tar and Mond Gas Tar or any of them.

(9) The Order of the Minister of Munitions dated the 13th July 1917, relating to Creosote and other oils produced from the distillation of coal tar is hereby cancelled as from the 1st November 1917, but such cancellation shall not affect the previous operation of that Order prior to such last mentioned date or the validity of any action taken under it, or the liability to any penalty or punishment in respect of any contravention or failure to comply with the same respectively prior to its cancellation, or any proceeding or remedy in respect of such penalty or punishment.

(10) All applications for licences under this Order shall be made to the Controller, Mineral Oil Production Department, Ministry of Munitions, 8 Northumberland Avenue, W.C. 2.
