Whitehall, December 15, 1917.

The KING has been pleased to award the Albert Medal to Mr. Charles John Carne, a Goods Inspector in the employ of the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway Company, in recognition of his gallantry in saving life on the 22nd September last. The circumstances are as follows :—

On the day in question a train loaded with ammunition was running to the coast when, on reaching a point near a town, a truck loaded with fuses was seen to be on fire. The train was stopped and the burning truck was detached, but in the meantime two other trucks containing large loaded shells became ignited. Carne, who had been summoned to the spot when the trucks had been burning for a considerable time, and had been warned of the great danger of an explosion, mounted one of the trucks and then took steps to put out the fire with the help of the engine-driver, fireman and guard. In spite of difficulties in getting water the fire was ultimately extinguished. Had it not been for the courage and resourcefulness of Inspector Carne a destructive explosion would probably have occurred, with loss of life and valuable material.
