TO CREDITORS.

WILLIAM LAURIE, writer in Glasgow, trustee on the sequestrated estate of WHITE-LAW, M<sup>r</sup>FREDRICK, & CO. Jewellers and Perfumers in Glasgow; and of JOHN WHITE-LAW, an individual partner of said concern, hereby requests a meeting of their creditors, within his office, on Friday the 21st day of March next, at 12 o'clock noon, to give their instructions relative to an offer made for the purchase of the remainder of the goods on hand belonging to the bankrupts.

GLASGOW, 25th Feb. 1806.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES SMITH, Merchant, Bo-nefs.— George Gibson, merchant in Grangemouth, trustee on Mr Smith's sequestrated estate, hereby intimates, that he has made up a state of the bankrupt's affairs and of his proceedings under the sequestration, which lies for inspection of the creditors with Robert Young, writer in Edinburgh; but, from a total want of funds, there can be no dividend.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

HENRY COWAN, Fleisher and Cattle Dealer in Paisley.

That at the meeting of these creditors which took place on the day following the second statutory examination of the bankrupt, he made offer of a composition of 5s per pound on the debts due by him at the date of the sequestration, payable in three and six months from the date of the said offer being approved of by the Court of Session.

The meeting appointed another general meeting of the creditors to be held on the 15th day of March next, in Hector's Tavern, Paisley, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of taking into consideration and deciding upon the said offer.—Of which meeting this notice is given to all concerned.

24th February 1806.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN WILLIAMSON, Corn Dealer in Sypland, in the parish of Kirkcudbright.

That upon the application of the said John Williamson, with concurrence of a creditor to the extent required by law, the Court of Session did, upon the 26th day of February curt. sequestrate his whole real and personal estate; and appointed his creditors to meet, at Kirkcudbright, within the house of Peter Black, innkeeper there, upon Tuesday the 11th of March next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of choosing an interim factor; and further appointed them to meet, in the same place, upon Tuesday the 1st day of April next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of naming a trustee; and granted commission to any of the resident Magistrates of Kirkcudbright, or the Stewart Depute or Substitute of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, or any of the Justices of Peace for that Stewartry, to attend the said first meeting of creditors, and to receive their grounds of debt, with the oaths of verity thereon, &c.—Of all which intimation is hereby made.

Edinburgh, 26th Feb. 1806.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

THE MERCHANT BANKING COMPANY of STIRLING, and the Individual Partners thereof.

By section 35th of the statute 33d of his present Majesty, it is, inter alia, enacted, that "The trustee shall be obliged, within the space of one calendar month after the expiration of ten months (from the date of the sequestration), to make up a state of the debts entitled to a share of the first dividend;" and it is farther enacted, by the same section of the statute, that "On the first lawful day after the expiration of one complete year from the date of the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration, the dividend shall be paid, and the trustee shall give one month's previous notice thereof, by advertisement in the Gazette."

Owing to the difficulties the trustee has met with in recovering the sequestrated funds (of which nearly the whole are yet outstanding), and particularly to the various questions in which the estate has unfortunately been involved with Andrew Belch, and which are not yet terminated—he finds it will not be in his power to make a dividend at 29th March 1806, the statutory period. Meanwhile states of the debts claimed upon, and of the funds so far as recovered, lie at the office of the trustee, No. 24, George Street, open to the inspection of all concerned.
