FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1918.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of September 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 18th day of August 1918, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are, from time to time, directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas under the Regulations for the Government of Your Majesty's Naval Service, it is provided that Climate Allowance at the following rates may be paid to Officers and Men serving in certain specified localities where the climate is of a tropical or unhealthy nature, viz. :—

Commissioned and Commissioned
Warrant Officers	3s a day,
Warrant and Subordinate Officers	1s a day,
Rest of the Ship's Company	6d a day :

“And whereas we consider that payment of this Allowance should be extended in certain cases :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the following arrangements :—

(1) Climate Allowance to be payable from the 1st April to 30th September of each year to Officers and Men serving in Your Majesty's Ships on the River Nile.

(2) In the following localities the Climate Allowance now payable only during the period 1st June to 30th September of each year to be extended to cover the period 1st April to 30th September :—

The Persian Gulf,
Mesopotamian Rivers,
Red Sea,
Gulf of Aden (including Aden Wireless Telegraph Station).

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of September 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 23rd day of August 1918, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas we consider that Medical Officers of Your Majesty's Fleet who are carrying on the duties of a Dental Surgeon in addition to their proper duties as Surgeons should be granted extra pay for the additional work performed :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the payment, at our discretion, of an allowance of 3s. a day to Medical Officers, on the Permanent or Temporary Lists, who are performing these combined duties, with effect as from the 8th August 1918.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of September 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 2nd day of September 1918, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas it is provided by Order in Council of the 29th November 1881 that a Quartermaster, Royal Marines, may, after completing 10 years' service as such, be granted the Honorary and Relative Rank of Captain :

“And whereas, during the present abnormal conditions, Quartermasters of Your Majesty's Army are granted the Honorary Rank of Captain after 3 years' commissioned service, and we consider that Quartermasters, Royal Marines, should be eligible for a step in Honorary Rank after the same period :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to authorise us to grant, at our discretion, the Honorary Rank of Captain to Quartermasters, Royal Marines, after the completion of 3 years' commissioned service, if duly recommended : this provision to take effect from the 1st July 1917, and to operate during the continuance of the present Hostilities.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

REPRESENTATION OF THE PEOPLE ACT, 1918.

THE REPRESENTATION OF THE PEOPLE (ADAPTATION OF ACTS, NO. 1) (SCOTLAND) ORDER, 1918, DATED 10TH SEPTEMBER 1918.

WHEREAS by Section 42 of the Representation of the People Act, 1918 (hereinafter referred to as “the Act”), the provisions of the Sixth Schedule to the Act with respect to the adaptation of Acts have effect for the purpose of adapting the law to the provisions of the Act, and by paragraph 7 of the said Schedule it is provided that as respects Scotland, the Secretary for Scotland may by Order make such further adaptations in the provisions of any Act as may seem to him necessary to make those provisions conform with the provisions of the Act, and that any Order so made shall operate as if enacted in the Act :

And whereas certain further adaptations in the provisions of the Ballot Act, 1872, appear to me, the undersigned, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, to be necessary to make those provisions conform with the provisions of the Act :

Now therefore, in pursuance of my powers in that behalf, I hereby order as follows :—

Article I.—The following adaptations shall be made in the provisions of the Ballot Act, 1872, that is to say,—

The provisions contained in Section 2 and Rule 24 of the First Schedule shall be read and have effect as if the number of the voter or elector required to be marked on the counter-foil of the ballot paper in accordance with those provisions included the distinctive letter of the polling district in which the elector is registered, or, if he is entitled to be admitted to vote at a polling place of another polling district, the distinctive letter of such last-mentioned polling district.

Article II.—This Order may be cited as “The Representation of the People (Adaptation of Acts, No. 1) (Scotland) Order, 1918.”

Given under my hand and Seal of Office at Whitehall, this 10th day of September 1918.

DEFENCE OF THE REALM REGULATIONS.

In pursuance of the powers conferred upon the Admiralty by Regulation 35A of the Defence of the Realm Regulations, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, after consultation with a Secretary of State, hereby make the following Rules:—

1. APPLICATION.

These rules shall apply to every person who is employed or who is in or in the vicinity of any store, wharf, vessel, vehicle, receptacle or other premises or place in or upon which any ammunition or explosive substance or any highly inflammable substance or any substance which gives off an inflammable vapour at a temperature of less than 73° Fahrenheit when tested by the Abel close test, is under Admiralty direction, handled, carried, stored or deposited, or is under such direction in the course of transit.

These rules shall not apply to small quantities of liquid substances not exceeding 20 gallons contained in vessels securely closed to prevent leakage.

The posting of these Rules conspicuously in or upon any such premises or place as aforesaid shall be deemed to be notice of their contents to all persons employed or being therein or in the vicinity thereof.

2. SMOKING, TOBACCO, MATCHES, LIGHTS, ETC.

No person while he is employed or is in or in the vicinity of any such store, wharf, vessel, vehicle, receptacle, premises or place as aforesaid, shall either smoke or have in his possession any tobacco, cigar, cigarette, pipe or contrivance for smoking, or any match or apparatus of any kind for producing a light, or any lamp, light or fire of any description, except as may be expressly sanctioned by an Officer in the employ of the Admiralty or of some person authorised by him.

3. SEARCHING.

Any Police Constable or anyone authorised by an Officer, as aforesaid, may search at any time any person entering or being in or in the vicinity of any such store, wharf, vessel, vehicle, receptacle, premises or place, as aforesaid, and may examine any such person's clothing and any bag, basket, parcel or other article he may be carrying, and any such person shall if so required by any Police Constable or by anyone authorised as aforesaid submit to be searched and shall comply with any reasonable directions or regulations given or made with the object of enabling the search to be carried out. Provided, that in no case shall any female person be searched by or in the presence of anyone but a female person.

4. INTOXICATION.

No person in a state of intoxication shall enter or remain in or in the vicinity of any such store, wharf, vessel, vehicle, receptacle, premises or place as aforesaid.

Any person failing to comply with any provision of the above Rules will be guilty of an offence against the Defence of the Realm Regulations and liable on summary conviction to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a period not exceeding 6 months or to a fine not exceeding £100 or both.

The Admiralty Rules made under Defence of the Realm Regulation 35A and published in the London Gazette of 23rd March 1917 and 22nd March 1918 are hereby cancelled.

Given under our hands this 7th day of September 1918.
