

SECOND SUPPLEMENT

TO

The Edinburgh Gazette

Of FRIDAY, the 17th of JANUARY, 1919.

Published by Authority.

This Gazette has now been registered at the General Post Office for transmission by Inland Post as a newspaper. As regards copies sent by post within the United Kingdom, unless dispatched in proper course from a Metropolitan Government Office, or from the Publishing Office of the Gazette, the postage should in future be prepaid at the rate of a halfpenny for each copy. Copies sent abroad should be prepaid at the rate of a halfpenny for every 2 ounces, except in the case of copies sent to Canada, which will be transmissible by the Canadian Magazine Post at the rate of a penny for every pound or fraction of a pound.

MONDAY, JANUARY 20, 1919.

15th January, 1919.

The KING has been graciously pleased to confer the Medal of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire upon the undermentioned persons for services in connection with the War which have been distinguished by great courage or self-sacrifice, or by exceptional merit:—

Allen, Samuel James.

Gave his services as ambulance driver, and showed courage and devotion to duty on the occasion of a naval bombardment.

Allison, Eleanor, Forewoman.

For courageous conduct and high example.

Almond, Ernest Arthur, Cable Hand, G.P.O.

For good work on cable ships in dangerous waters.

Ames, Richard, Head Foreman.

For courage and promptitude in extinguishing a serious fire, and thereby preventing a disastrous explosion in a shell-filling factory.

Andrews, Harry.

For courage and devotion to duty while working on poison gas under circumstances of grave personal danger.

Andrews, Harry.

For courage on the occasion of a serious explosion in a filling factory. Although injured he helped to extinguish two fires.

Ansell, Ellen Elizabeth, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Armitage, Annie, Fire Police Woman.

For highly meritorious performance of duty, especially on occasions of air-raid warnings.

Ashton, Joseph, Signalman.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during an air raid, when the signal-box in which he was working was struck by a bomb.

Ayers, William.

For courage and high example shown on the occasion of fires at an explosives factory in Canada.

Baillie, James, Foreman Smith.

For self-sacrifice and devotion to duty.

Banks, A. C.

For courage in helping to remove large quantities of loaded fuses during a fire at an explosives factory in Canada, while explosions were taking place

Barber, Violet May, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Barnes, Thomas.

For courage and devotion to duty, often working long hours in a poisonous atmosphere, though suffering seriously from the effects of gas poisoning.

Bartlett, Fanny Caroline Jane, Night Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Beal, Samuel John, Skilled Labourer (Furnace-man).

For courage and devotion to duty in continuing urgent casting operations throughout an air raid.

Beckingham, Henry.

For courage and high example at a fire at an explosives factory in Canada, when he prevented the fire from spreading, and thus saved valuable stores.

Beighton, Thomas Arthur, Inspector, Engineering Department, G.P.O.

For special services performed with great ability under trying conditions.

Bell, Thomas Renford, Shell Filler.

For courage and promptitude in extinguishing a serious fire and thereby preventing a disastrous explosion in a shell-filling factory.

Bennett, Jennie Amy, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Bennett, Sydney Alfred George, Fitter.

For meritorious service overseas in carrying out torpedo work under trying conditions.

Bennie, Frank Andrew.

For courage and devotion to duty on the occasions of air raids.

Bielby, Robert John, Foreman, Army Ordnance Department.

For courage in removing inflammable material from a burning shed on the occasion of a fire in a shell-filling factory.

Birch, Ellen.

For courage and high example on the occasion of an air raid.

Blagdon, Alexander.

For great courage and self-sacrifice shown at an explosion at an explosives factory in Canada. Although injured by the explosion, he returned to attempt the rescue of another worker.

Blythe, Joseph.

For courage and devotion to duty, often working long hours in a poisonous atmosphere, though suffering seriously from the effects of gas poisoning.

Booth, William Edward.

For courage and devotion to duty in connection with the manufacture of poison gas under circumstances of grave personal danger.

Bound, Jesse.

For courage and devotion to duty on the occasion of fires at an explosives factory in Canada.

Bowden, Alfred John.

For great courage in helping to remove a large quantity of explosive material during a fire at grave personal risk.

Bowring, Freda.

For great courage and self-sacrifice as nurse; has frequently given skin for grafting on to patients.

Boyle, Peter.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

Bratley, Samuel.

For courage and resource in helping to extinguish a fire at a munitions factory at great personal risk.

Brett, Charles Alfred, Carpenter.

For meritorious service under shell fire at Dunkirk.

Brinkley, Edward, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

For highly meritorious performance of duty entailing work of a dangerous and trying character.

Bristowe, Edward.

For courage and resource on the occasion of a fire and explosion at a munitions factory.

Brown, George.

For great courage in helping to remove a large quantity of explosive material during a fire at grave personal risk.

Brown, John Henry.

For courage and devotion to duty while working on poison gas under circumstances of grave personal danger. He repeatedly volunteered for dangerous work, and was seriously injured.

Brunton, J.

For courage in helping to remove large quantities of loaded fuses during a fire at an explosives factory in Canada, while explosions were taking place.

Burch, Arthur.

For great courage in saving the life of a fellow-worker who was overcome by poisonous fumes.

Burwood, Warwick Courteney, Charge-hand of Smiths' Shop.

For courage and exemplary conduct on the occasion of an air raid.

Byers, Thomas W.

For courage, self-sacrifice, and high example to his fellow-workers in continuing at very hazardous work at an explosives factory in Canada.

Cairns, James.

For courage and high example shown on the occasion of fires at an explosives factory in Canada.

Camp, Arthur George.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

Cannon, Arthur.

For courage and devotion to duty in rendering first aid to the injured during an air raid.

Carey, Willie Frederick, Cable Hand, G.P.O.

For good work on cable ships and small craft in dangerous waters.

Catterall, Albert Stephen, Principal Foreman, Army Ordnance Department.

For courage in removing inflammable material from a burning shed on the occasion of a fire in a shell-filling factory.

Caunce, Margaret.

For courage and high example. Although herself injured and burnt on the occasion of an explosion at a filling factory, she remained at her post and extinguished the burning clothing of another worker.

Chaytor, Herbert Stanley.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

Chester, Eveine, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Chetwynd, Rev. The Hon. Walter James Bosville.

For courage and devotion to duty. He was injured in the head by a serious explosion in a filling factory, but, without waiting to have his wound dressed, proceeded to organise the work of rescue, continuing at it all through the night.

Clarke, Alec Bernard.

For courage and presence of mind on the occasion of a serious explosion at a filling factory. He remained in a badly damaged building, shutting off steam valves and drawing the fires.

Clough, Joan Welcome.

For courage on the occasion of a serious explosion in a filling factory. Although injured herself, she worked in the Red Cross station until all the other cases had been dealt with.

Clubb, William George.

For courage in helping to extinguish a fire at a munitions factory.

Cole, Richard Horace, Cable Hand, G.P.O.

For good work on cable ships and small craft in dangerous waters.

Coleman, Kate Elizabeth, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Collings, William, Charge Man.

For meritorious performance of very responsible and trying duties.

Conrad, Theodore, Quartermaster, G.P.O.

For good work on cable ships and small craft in dangerous waters.

Corbett, James.

For great courage in helping to remove a large quantity of explosive material during a fire at grave personal risk.

Corns, William, Plate Shop Worker.

For inventiveness and specially meritorious service.

Corpe, Harry, Fitter.

For meritorious service overseas in carrying out torpedo work in trying conditions.

Coultrip, George, Skilled Labourer (Stoker and Traveller man).

For courage and devotion to duty in continuing urgent casting operations throughout an air raid.

Crampton, Christopher.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

Crew, Frederick Thomas.

For great courage in helping to remove a large quantity of explosive material during a fire at grave personal risk.

Crisp, Thomas Benjamin.

For courage and resource in averting what would have been a very serious accident.

Cross, John Henry.

For courage and presence of mind on the occasion of a serious explosion at a filling factory. He remained in a badly damaged building, shutting off steam valves and drawing the fires.

Culhane, Patrick.

For courage. Although injured by a serious explosion at a filling factory, he continued his duties throughout the night.

Cunningham, William Frederick.

For great courage in helping to remove a large quantity of explosive material during a fire at grave personal risk.

Davis, Hilda Louisa, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Dawkins, Mary Rose (now Mrs. Oakman), Night Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Dealey, John Carol, Chargeman of Fitters.

For meritorious service overseas in carrying out torpedo work under trying conditions.

Dempsey, Charles John.

For courage and devotion to duty while working on poison gas under circumstances of grave personal danger.

Devereux, William, Carpenter.

For meritorious service under shell fire at Dunkirk.

Donnachie, John.

For great courage and resource at a fire at an explosives factory in Canada, thereby preventing loss of life and damage to plant.

Dorman, William G.

For self-sacrifice and devotion to duty in continuing at his work in an explosives factory in Canada, although his health was seriously affected by poisonous fumes.

Doyle, Rupert James Edward, Painter.

For meritorious service under shell fire at Dunkirk.

Dumas, Charles.

For courage and resource under circumstances of great danger at an accident at a steel foundry in Canada.

Dunell, Hubert.

For courage in returning to a filling factory immediately after a serious explosion, in order to get part of the power-house fit for work again.

Englefield, Richard Charles.

For great courage in helping to remove a large quantity of explosive material during a fire at grave personal risk.

Evison, John.

For courage and resource on the occasion of an explosion at a filling factory, when at grave personal risk he extinguished a fire.

Falconer, David, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

For highly meritorious performance of duty entailing work of a very trying character.

Ferris, William Stanley, Shipwright.

For valuable service, frequently under conditions involving personal risk.

Findlay, George.

For great courage and resource at a fire at an explosives factory in Canada, thereby preventing loss of life and damage to plant.

Finlayson, William Thompson.

For great courage and resource. He remained in a building filled with poisonous fumes to carry out a necessary operation at grave personal risk.

Foster, Thorpe.

For great courage on the occasion of an explosion at a munitions works. He was three times overwhelmed by falling debris while successive explosions were occurring, but went on with the work of safeguarding the plant.

Fuggle, John Henry.

For courage and presence of mind on the occasion of a serious explosion at a filling factory. Although injured, he remained in a badly damaged building, shutting off steam valves and drawing the fires.

Gadd, Charles Sidney.

For great courage in helping to remove a large quantity of explosive material during a fire at grave personal risk.

Gafford, Emily (Mrs.), Caretaker-Operator, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Garriock, Andrew Gilbert, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

For special services of a high degree of merit.

Gemson, Florence Elizabeth.

For great courage in continuing at her work in a telephone exchange, although an ammunition dump was on fire close at hand and shells were bursting all round, some even entering the building.

Gibbons, Robert William, Labourer.

For courage and presence of mind during an air raid.

Gibson, Innes E.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

Gibson, James John.

For great courage in helping to remove a large quantity of explosive material during a fire at grave personal risk.

Gittings, Elsie Priscilla, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Gleeson, Michael.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

Godin, Louis.

For great courage in assisting to subdue fires at an explosives Factory in Canada, and in long-continued working in a very dangerous atmosphere.

Gordon, Harry.

For great courage and resource. He remained in a building, filled with poisonous fumes, to carry out a necessary operation at grave personal risk.

Gray, Grace Lizzie (Mrs.), Sub-Postmistress.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Green, Arthur.

For courage and devotion to duty, often working long hours in a poisonous atmosphere, though suffering seriously from the effects of gas poisoning.

Green, May.

For great courage in continuing at her work in a telephone exchange, although an ammunition dump was on fire close at hand and shells were bursting all round, some even entering the building.

Gross, Maitland G.

For great courage in assisting to subdue fires at an explosives factory in Canada, and in long continued working in a very dangerous atmosphere.

Hadd, Juliette.

For courage and self-sacrifice at a fire at an explosives factory in Canada. She received severe burns in helping to save another worker and returned to the same work as soon as possible after the accident.

Haigh, Joseph.

For courage and self-sacrifice on the occasion of an accident at a filling factory.

Hancock, William Upton, Assistant Electrical Overseer.

For devotion to duty on the occasion of an accident to a submarine.

Hannaford, James Frederick, Shipwright.

For valuable service, frequently under conditions involving personal risk.

Hansell, Ernest Alban.

For courage and devotion to duty on the occasion of an explosion at a filling factory.

Harcup, Edward, Chargeman of Labourers.

For courage, skill and high example in the discharge of his duties.

Harding, William Denbury, Inspector, Engineering Department, G.P.O.

For highly meritorious performance of duty, entailing work of a dangerous and trying character.

Harrington, George Hayward.

For great courage and resource on several occasions when, at very grave personal risk, he prevented serious accidents at an explosives factory.

Hearl, Ernest John, Laboratory Manager (acting).

For inventiveness and devotion to duty.

Hedde, James.

For courage and devotion in assisting helpless patients and injured persons on the occasion of an air raid.

Henderson, Walter.

For courage and devotion to duty while working on poison gas under circumstances of grave personal danger.

Hermans, Edward, Boiler Cleaner.

For courage and presence of mind in extinguishing a dangerous fire.

Hibbard, Harriet Matilda (Mrs.), Night Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Hills, Arthur, Labourer.

For meritorious service under shell fire at Dunkirk.

Hilton, Charles.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

Hindmarsh, A. B.

For great courage and resource at a fire at an explosives factory in Canada. He helped to save valuable records and removed, at grave personal risk, a large quantity of loaded fuses, while explosions were taking place.

Hollett, George.

For courage and high example shown on the occasion of fires at an explosives factory in Canada.

Holycake, Arthur.

For great courage and resource at a fire at an explosives factory in Canada, thereby preventing loss of life and damage to plant.

Honey, Jesse Rose, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty on the occasion of a serious explosion.

Hood, Horace James, Telegraphist.

For special services of a high degree of merit.

Hooper, Celia Kate, Supervisor, Telephones.

For devotion to duty and high example in a position of great responsibility during air raids.

Horrigan, John, Boiler Cleaner.

For courage in extinguishing a dangerous fire on a ship in port.

Horsley, Carl.

For courage and high example shown on the occasion of fires at an explosives factory in Canada.

Hubert, A.

For courage in helping to remove large quantities of loaded fuses during a fire at an explosives factory in Canada, while explosions were taking place.

Hughes, Owen, Lightship Mate.

For unflinching devotion to duty when in imminent danger from enemy submarines and mines.

Hunt, Jessie.

For continuous courage and devotion to duty in a filling factory under circumstances of grave personal danger, in spite of several serious explosions and severe injuries.

Hunt, Richard James.

For courage and devotion to duty while working on poison gas under circumstances of grave personal danger.

Hurst, Sidney.

For courage on the occasion of a serious explosion at a filling factory. Although himself injured, he succeeded in rescuing other workers from the wreckage.

Hutchinson, Leonard, Y.M.C.A. Hut Worker.

For great courage in attending to wounded soldiers under fire; has lost a leg through shell fire.

Hutt, Florence Gladys, Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Jacobs, May Haylock.

For saving the lives of patients at great personal risk when a field hospital was bombed by enemy aircraft.

Jenkinson, Charles Pierre, Superintendent Marine Engineer.

For promptitude and resource in dealing with a serious fire on a vessel containing a large quantity of oil.

Jenkinson, John Hayes.

For courage and resource in extinguishing a fire in a tank car of benzol at a chemical factory in Canada, at grave personal risk.

Johns, Gertrude Maud Mary, Supervisor, Telephones.

For devotion to duty and high example in a position of great responsibility during air raids.

Johnson, Alice Naomi, Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Johnson, Charles Percy.

For courage and presence of mind in extinguishing a fire in a munitions factory and removing explosive material.

Jones, William, Master of Harbour Craft.

For self-sacrifice and meritorious performance of arduous and important work.

Joyce, Mary.

For courage and high example on the occasion of an air raid.

Kallend, Edith Charlotte, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

de Kapelle, W. K.

For great courage at a fire at an explosives factory in Canada. He helped to save valuable records, and removed, at grave personal risk, a large quantity of loaded fuses, while explosions were taking place.

Kay, Alexander McNair, Sorting Clerk and Telegraphist.

For special services of a high degree of merit.

Kempson, William, Works Manager.

For devotion to duty and courage in carrying out rescue work during a fire and explosion.

Kendall, William.

For courage and resource in helping to extinguish a fire at a munitions factory at great personal risk.

Kewley, James, Lightship Master.

For unflinching devotion to duty when in imminent danger from enemy submarines and mines.

Kidd, Alexander, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

For highly meritorious performance of duty entailing work of a dangerous and trying character.

Killick, Richard Rothwell, Y.M.C.A. Hut Worker.

Has displayed zeal and courage in carrying out Y.M.C.A. work.

King, Kenneth.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

Knight, May.

For courage and high example on the occasion of an air raid.

Knott, Rose, Checker.

For conspicuous courage and high example at an Army Ordnance Depot on the occasion of an air raid.

Lambert, William, Telegraphist.

For special services of a high degree of merit.

Lamey, Edwin, Shipwright.

For valuable service, frequently under conditions of personal risk.

Lamey, Thomas John, Shipwright.

For valuable services, frequently under conditions of personal risk.

Lapointe, G. H.

For courage in helping to remove large quantities of loaded fuses during a fire at an explosives factory in Canada, while explosions were taking place.

Long, Charles.

For great courage and resource shown on the occasion of a fire at an explosives factory in Canada.

Lownes, John.

For great courage and resource shown on the occasion of a fire at an explosives factory in Canada.