

£5 per cent. National War Bonds, repayable 1st February, 1929;

at the rate of £100 £4 10s. per cent. War Loan or Exchequer Bonds for each £100 National War Bonds.

£4 per cent. National War Bonds, repayable 1st February 1929 ("Income Tax compounded");

At the rate of £101 10s. £4 10s. per cent. War Loan or Exchequer Bonds for each £100 National War Bonds, but such applications must be for amounts which are multiples of £50.

Applications must be lodged at the Bank of England, and National War Bonds issued in exchange for converted holdings will carry interest from the dates on which the relative applications have been so lodged. A separate dividend will be paid for interest, if any, accrued to date of conversion on a converted holding. Where an application for conversion of a holding in any issue, whether "registered" or "to bearer," is lodged after the balance of such issue has been struck for the preparation of a dividend and before the date on which the said dividend is due, such conversion will be effected as on the latter date.

N.B.—Applications for the conversion of Stock inscribed or Bonds registered in the Books of the Bank of Ireland should be forwarded to the Bank of Ireland, Dublin.

Stock registered in the Books of the General Post Office, and Bonds issued by the General Post Office, will not be convertible at the Bank of England. They will be convertible at the Post Office under the arrangements set forth in the separate Prospectus issued by H.M. Postmaster-General.

A commission of one-eighth per cent. will be allowed to Bankers, Stockbrokers, and Financial Houses on allotments made in respect of cash applications for this issue bearing their Stamp, but no commission will be allowed in respect of applications for conversion.

Applications must be made upon the printed forms which may be obtained, together with copies of this Prospectus, at the Bank of England; at the Bank of Ireland; of Messrs. Mullens, Marshall, & Co., 13 George Street, Mansion House, E.C. 4; and at any Bank, Money Order Office, or Stock Exchange in the United Kingdom.
