ADMIRALTY OFFICE, APRIL 29.

Copy of letter transmitted by Lord Collingwood.

His Majesty's ship Thunderer, off Cadiz, March 20, 1866.

My Lord—I have the satisfaction to inform your Lordship, that at daylight in the morning of the 12th instant, in lat. 41 deg. 53 min. N. longitude, 15 deg. 27 min. W. I discovered three strange sail on my lee bow, one of which appeared suspicious; I made all possible sail, and after five hours chase, captured her. She proved to be a Spanish Schooner Privateer, mounting fourteen long guns, viz.—ten sixes, and four four-pounders, name Santo Christo del Paldo, Jean Gonzales, Commander, sixty-seven men; from Bayonne, out fifteen days, sails fast, hull, rigging, and sails quite new; victualled for four months; had captured a Swedish brig the Pomone, Maenons Sandalons, master, belonging to Gottenburgh, last from Gibraltar, bound to Liverpool with a cargo of currants; also a galliot, name Louisa et Emilia, Jeane Peter Johnson, master, belonging to Hamburg, last from Lisbon, bound to Cherbourg, laden with cotton and hides and a Danish brig, Crunstad, which vessel I recaptured at seven the same evening, and sent a petty officer in her to England; her cargo was lintseed, fruit, &c.

The privateer is seventy-five tons, Spanish measurement. I have the honour to be, &c.
