TUESDAY, MAY 13, 1919.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of May 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 83 of the Children Act, 1908, it is enacted as follows:—

“The provisions of this Part of this Act with respect to industrial schools shall, so far as applicable, apply to Certified Day Industrial Schools, subject to such modifications as are made therein by this Part of this Act: Provided that His Majesty may, by Order in Council, make such further modifications of those provisions as may appear to His Majesty to be necessary or proper for adapting those provisions to Day Industrial Schools”:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the 2nd day of April 1909, applying certain provisions of the Children Act to Certified Day Industrial Schools:

And whereas Section 130 of the said Act provides that:—

“An Order in Council under this Act may be revoked or varied by any subsequent Order in Council.”

And whereas it is desirable to vary Article

IV. of the Order in Council, dated the 2nd day of April 1909, which reads as follows:—

“Section 65 of the Children Act shall in its application to Day Industrial Schools take effect with modifications as follows:—

“The detention order shall specify the time for which the child is to be detained in the school, being such time as to the court may seem proper for the teaching and training of the child, but not in any case extending beyond the time when the child will, in the opinion of the court attain the age of fourteen years”:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to vary the Order of the 2nd day of April 1909 by substituting for the said Article IV. the following Article:—

“IV. Section 65 of the Children Act shall, in its application to Day Industrial Schools, take effect with modifications as follows:—

“The detention order shall specify the time for which the child is to be detained in the school, being such time as to the court may seem proper for the teaching and training of the child, but not in any case extending beyond the end of the school term in which the child will, in the opinion of the court, attain the age of fourteen years.”

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of May 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 16th day of April 1919, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being, or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council.

“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Orders in Council bearing date the 30th March 1917, and 14th January 1919, to authorise the Minister of Pensions to award pensions, allowances, and gratuities to Seamen and Marines disabled in consequence of service during the present war, on the scales and subject to the conditions prescribed in the Regulations annexed thereto :

“And whereas it is provided therein that the additions allowable under Naval Regulations in respect of Petty Officer or Non-Commissioned Officer time, Good Conduct Badges, Medal or character, shall be made to the minimum pension corresponding to the degree of disablement and that a further addition shall be made in respect of service in accordance with a special scale :

“And whereas by Your Royal Warrants bearing date the 29th day of March 1917, and the 12th day of October 1918, Your Majesty has been graciously pleased to sanction the grant of disablement pensions to soldiers disabled in the present war in addition to service pensions :

“And whereas we are of opinion that similar provision should be made for Seamen and Marines disabled during the present war while serving in the Royal Navy or Royal Marines :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the grant to discharged Seamen and Marines who have been awarded disablement pensions on the minimum scale corresponding to their degree of disablement under Your Orders in Council of 30th March 1917, and 14th January 1919, without any additions for rank or service, good conduct badges, medal or character, of permanent pensions for service, in addition, under the following conditions :—

(1) If a Naval rating has 22 years or more of pensionable service, his pension shall be assessed in accordance with Articles 1934, 1935, and 1938 of the King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions.

(2) If a Marine has 21 years or more of pensionable service, his pension shall be assessed in accordance with Articles 1197 and 1198, King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions.

(3) If a Naval rating with 14 and less than 22 years of pensionable service has been granted a permanent disablement pension on the minimum scale without any additions for rank or service, good conduct badges, or medal (or is entitled by the nature of his injuries to a permanent pension on that scale the rate of which has not been finally assessed) he may be granted a permanent pension for service assessed in accordance with Article 1932, Clauses 1, 2, and 4, King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions.

(4) Subject to the foregoing condition as to permanence of the disablement pension, a continuous service man who has completed 10 years on the Continuous Service system may be granted a permanent pension for service assessed under Article 1932, Clauses 3 and 4, King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions.

(5) If a marine with 14 and less than 21 years of pensionable service has been granted a disablement pension on the minimum scale without any additions for rank or service, good conduct badges or medal, he may, subject to the aforesaid condition regarding the permanence of the award, be granted a permanent pension for service assessed in accordance with Article 1208, Clauses 1 and 3, King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions.

(6) The pensions granted for service under the foregoing proposals shall be payable from the same date as the disablement pension granted under Your Orders in Council of 30th March 1917, and 14th January 1919.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of May 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 26th day of April 1919, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas we consider that an improvement should be made in the rates of Retired Pay for Commissioned Warrant Officers and Warrant Officers and Lieutenant-Commanders and Lieutenants promoted from those ranks, and in the scale of the ordinary pensions for the widows and of the compassionate allowances for the children of these Officers :

" We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by

Your Order in Council, to approve of the scales of Retired Pay Widows' Pensions, and Compassionate Allowances shown in the annexed schedules being substituted for those at present in force, with effect from the 1st February 1919.

DEFENCE OF THE REALM REGULATIONS.

PROTECTION AGAINST RISKS OF MINES ORDER.

In exercise of the powers conferred upon them by the Defence of the Realm Regulations and all other powers thereunto enabling them, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby make the following Order with a view to protecting British Merchant Vessels when navigating within certain Areas from the risk of damage by Mine:—

PART I.—USE OF MINE PROTECTION GEAR.

1. British vessels equipped with the "Otter" protection gear are to stream their "Otters" on all occasions in the following waters:—

- (a) Arctic Ocean and White Sea: East of 30° East Longitude.
- (b) Baltic and Cattegat: throughout.
- (c) Mediterranean:
 - (i) Aegean Sea: North and East of a line Thaso-Lemnos-Tenedos, extended both ends to meet the nearest point on the main land.
 - (ii) Eastern Mediterranean: North and East of a line Marmarice-Cyprus-Beirut.
 - (iii) Adriatic: North of the parallel of Latitude of Santa Maria di Leuca.
 - (iv) Western Mediterranean: in the Straits of Bonifacio and Straits of Messina.
- (d) Black Sea: throughout.

2. Otters are to be streamed if uncertain of position, i.e., in doubt as to being in approved tracks, channels, and fairways, as follows:—

- (a) North Sea:
 - In an area bounded on West by meridian of Cape Wrath.
 - In an area bounded on North by 61° N. parallel.
 - In an area bounded on East by 10° East meridian.

In an area bounded on South by line Dungeness-Boulogne.

- (b) Bay of Biscay and English Channel: within 10 miles of the North and West coasts of France.
- (c) Mediterranean: East of 2° East and West of 21° East in waters of less than 180 fathoms.

3. In all other waters Otters are not required to be used provided that the approved tracks, channels, and fairways are adhered to.

4. Senior Naval Officers at Ports from which ships are sailing may modify or add to these Orders as necessary.

5. To secure the efficient working of the Otter gear it must be properly adjusted, actually running, and adequately manned.

The Master or other person in command or charge of any British vessel who neglects to see that the apparatus is so adjusted, running, manned and worked as required by paragraphs 1 and 2 hereof, subject to the exceptions authorised or ordered under paragraph 4 hereof, shall be guilty of an offence against the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

Entry is to be made in the ship's log regarding the streaming and taking inboard of Otters.

6. Masters of vessels carrying deck cargo are to ensure that sufficient space to enable Otters to be handled efficiently is always left when loading.

7. The Admiralty Order, dated 17th June 1918, and published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 21st June 1918, is hereby cancelled.

PART II.—SPECIAL MASTHEAD LOOK-OUTS.

8. The special Masthead Look-Outs ordered to be carried and employed in ships of 2500 gross tonnage and upwards, under Admiralty Order of the 16th November 1917, are still to be employed in the areas mentioned in paragraph 1 hereof and, in addition, in the English Channel to the Eastward of the Meridian of Greenwich and in the entire area of the North Sea to the Southward of Latitude 62° North and East of the Meridian of Cape Wrath. The special Masthead Look-Outs are to be paid only while the ship in which they are borne is navigating in these areas, and vessels which trade entirely outside these areas should cease to carry and pay these Look-Outs.

9. Special care is to be taken in navigating in the waters defined in paragraph 2, clauses (b) and (c) hereof, but special Look-Outs are not required to be carried in vessels navigating through these waters unless part of their voyage is within the areas, covered in paragraph 1 hereof.

10. This Order is to apply to all ships to which Admiralty Order of the 16th November 1917 in regard to Masthead Look-Outs applied, whether fitted with Otters or not.

11. The Admiralty Order, dated the 16th November 1917, and published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 20th November 1917, is hereby cancelled.

Given under our hands this 9th day of May 1919.
