Whereas by the Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915, it is provided, inter alia, that where the time within which a power may be exercised under any Special Acts is limited, an application may be made by the person by whom such power may be exercised to the appropriate Government Department for an Order extending that time, and that the Department, if satisfied that the time should be extended, may make an Order accordingly, and it is further provided that no time shall be extended under any such Order for more than a year, without prejudice however to the making of any further Order:

And whereas by the Irvine and District Water Board Order, 1915, the Irvine and District Water Board (hereinafter called "the Board") were empowered compulsorily to acquire certain lands, for the purposes therein mentioned, and by Section 18 of that Order the time within which the said power of compulsory acquisition may be exercised is limited to a period which expired on the 15th day of July 1918:

And whereas on the 18th day of December 1917, upon the application of the Board, the Secretary for Scotland made an Order under the said Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915 (hereinafter called "the Order of 1917"), extending the said time for one year, that is to say, until the 15th day of July, 1919:
