Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-fifth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and in the Tenth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of June 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by sub-section one of section nine of the Scottish Board of Health Act, 1919, it is enacted that the Act shall come into operation upon such day or days as may be appointed by Order in Council and that different days may be appointed for different purposes and provisions of the Act.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, in pursuance of the Scottish Board of Health Act, 1919, and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows :—

1. For such of the provisions of the said Act as are hereinafter mentioned the appointed day shall be (1) the 25th day of June 1919 in the case of sections one and three, (2) the 1st day of July 1919 in the case of section two, paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of sub-section one of section four, and both provisos to the said sub-section, sub-sections two, three, four, and five of section four, section five, section six (except so far as relating to the Highlands and Islands (Medical Service) Board), section seven, section eight, and sub-section four of section nine; except so far as paragraph (a) of sub-section one of section four relates to powers and duties conferred or imposed upon the Local Government Board for Scotland by any Act of Parliament passed, or Provisional Order confirmed, or other Instrument made, on or after the 1st day of July 1919, but during the present session of Parliament, in respect of which powers and duties the appointed day shall be the day on which the Act, Order or Instrument comes into operation.

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies for the purpose of the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. This Order may be cited as the Scottish Board of Health Act, 1919 (Date of Commencement) (No. 1) Order, 1919.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of June 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Secretary for Scotland has, under the provisions of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, as amended by the Secretary for Scotland Act, 1885, made a Representation that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor by the Sheriff-Substitute at Banff, dated the 20th May 1919, and made on a Petition of the Reverend George Arthur Macdonald Dickson, the Minister of the Parish of Fordyce, in the County of Banff, and certain persons assessed for the relief of the poor within the said Parish, finding that the Burial Ground of the said Parish is offensive, and contrary to decency :

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that the Churchyard at Fordyce in the said Parish of Fordyce, in the County of Banff, should be closed forthwith, in terms of the said first-named Act, except for the interment therein of the surviving spouses of persons already interred therein; Provided that, with regard to interments taking place after the date when the Closing Order comes into operation, (1) the exercise of the right of burial shall not be injurious to the public health, or offensive or contrary to decency, (2) Notice be given to the Clerk of the Parish Council of Fordyce on the day preceding that on which a grave is to be opened, and (3) no interment shall be made unless the coffin can be laid at a depth of four feet from the surface of the ground to the upper side of the coffin, and that without the exposure of another coffin :

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased to give Notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 1st day of August next :

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order, or Notice thereof, be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of this Order, or Notice thereof, be fixed as required by the above-mentioned Act on the doors of the Church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parish of Fordyce aforesaid, one month before such Representation is so considered.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

Privy Council Office,
25th June 1919.

Notice is hereby given, that a Petition has been presented to His Majesty in Council by The Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh, praying for the grant of a Supplementary Charter so as to permit of women being admitted Fellows and Members of the said College; and, His Majesty having referred the said Petition to a Committee of the Lords of the
