SPECIAL ACTS (EXTENSION OF TIME)
ACT, 1915.

ABERDEEN CORPORATION WATER
ORDER, 1916.

Whereas by the Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915, it is provided inter alia that where the time within which a power may be exercised under any Special Act is limited, an application may be made by the person by whom such power may be exercised to the appropriate Government Department for an Order extending that time, and that the Department, if satisfied that the time should be extended, may make an Order accordingly: and it is further provided that such an Order shall have full effect, notwithstanding that the time to which it relates has expired, if the application upon which the Order is made was made before the time expired.

And whereas under the Aberdeen Corporation Water Order, 1916 (hereinafter called "the Order of 1916") the Corporation of the City of Aberdeen (hereinafter called "the Corporation") were empowered compulsorily to acquire certain lands for the works authorised by that Order and by Section 29 (13) of that Order, the time within which the said power of compulsory purchase might be exercised so far as regards the lands belonging to the trustees of the estate of East Pitfodels described in Section 29 (5) of the Order as marked "A" and "C" on the signed plan is limited to a period which expired on the 19th day of April 1919:

And whereas the Corporation have applied to the Secretary for Scotland in terms of the Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915, for an Order extending the said time:

And whereas I am satisfied that the time in respect of which the application is made should be extended:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the last-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Robert Munro, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, hereby order as follows:—

1. The time limited by Section 29 (13) of the Order of 1916 within which the power of the Corporation for the compulsory purchase of the lands belonging to the trustees of the estate of East Pitfodels, described in Section 29 (5) of the Order as marked "A" and "C" in the signed plan, may be exercised, is hereby extended for a period of one year, that is to say, until the 19th day of April 1920.

2. This Order may be cited as the Aberdeen Corporation Water Order, 1916 (Extension of Time) Order, 1919.

(L. S.) (Sd.) ROBERT MUNRO,
His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland.
Scottish Office,
Whitehall,
31st July 1919.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of August 1919.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation or Order in Council made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, as amended by the Act now in recital, may, whilst a state of war exists, be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Restriction) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation made under Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, may, whether the Proclamation was made before or after the passing of the Act now in recital, be varied or added to, whilst a state of war exists, by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas by a Proclamation, dated the 10th day of May 1917, and made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, and Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, and Section 1 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, the exportation from the United Kingdom of certain articles to certain or all destinations was prohibited:

And whereas by subsequent Orders of Council, and by the Proclamations dated respectively the 18th day of December 1918 and the 12th day of March 1919, the said Proclamation was amended and added to in certain particulars:

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Board of Trade to the following effect:—

That the Proclamation, dated the 10th day of May 1917, as amended and added to by
