

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of December 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-eighth day of November nineteen hundred and fourteen, His Majesty was pleased to make regulations (called the "Defence of the Realm Regulations") under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the realm:

And whereas the said Act has been amended by the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) Act, 1915, the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 2) Act, 1915, and the Munitions of War Act, 1915, and other enactments:

And whereas the said regulations have been amended by various subsequent Orders in Council:

And whereas it is expedient further to amend the said regulations in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendment be made in the said regulations:—

Regulation 8AA shall be revoked.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of December 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Sub-Section four of Section four of the Scottish Board of Health Act, 1919, it is enacted that His Majesty may by Order in Council make provision for the transfer of any property, rights, or liabilities held, enjoyed, or incurred by any Government Department in connection with any powers or duties transferred to the Scottish Board of Health by the provisions of the Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, in pursuance of the Scottish Board of Health Act, 1919, and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. All funds, bonds, securities, investments, sums of money, and other property, rights and assets belonging to, or vested in, or held in trust for the Highlands and Islands (Medical Service) Board in relation to the powers and duties transferred to the Scottish Board of Health by the provisions of the said Act shall be, and shall from the 1st September 1919, be deemed to have been, transferred to and vested in and held in trust for the Board as successor of the Highlands and Islands (Medical Service) Board without the necessity of any transfer, assignment, or other instrument, but subject to all debts, and liabilities affecting the same, and shall be held by the Board for the purposes for which they are now held, or would have been held, if the said Act had not passed.

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies for the purpose of the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. This Order may be cited as the Scottish Board of Health Act, 1919 (Transfer of Property) (No. 2) Order, 1919.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of December 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 5 of the Scottish Board of Health Act, 1919, it is enacted as follows:—

- (1) It shall be lawful for His Majesty by Order in Council to establish consultative councils for giving, in accordance with the provisions of the Order, advice and assistance to the Board in connection with such matters affecting or incidental to the health of the people in Scotland as may be referred to in such Order.
- (2) Every such council shall include persons of both sexes, and shall consist of persons having practical experience of the matters referred to the council, and due regard shall be had in constituting them to any special interests (including those of local authorities and of labour) which may be involved.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, in pursuance of the Scottish Board of Health Act, 1919, and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Consultative Councils shall be established in pursuance of the foregoing provisions for giving, in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained, advice and assistance in connection with such matters as relate severally to:—

- (1) Medical and Allied Services.
- (2) National Health Insurance (Approved Societies' work).
- (3) Local Health Administration and General Health Questions.
- (4) Highlands and Islands.

2. Each council shall consist of such number of members, not exceeding 20, as the Board may determine, being persons having, in the case of each council, practical experience of the matters for the purposes of which the council in question is established, and due regard shall be had in constituting such council to any special interests (including those of local authorities and of labour) which may be involved.

3.—(1) The members of a council shall be appointed by the Board, and shall include persons of both sexes.

(2) At the expiration of one, two, and three years respectively from the first appointment of the members of the council, one-third of the original members, to be selected by lot, shall go out of office, but for the purpose of this provision an original member who has been re-appointed shall not be deemed to be an original member.
