

1308 Sjt. R. F. Stanford, 1st Bn., R. Newfoundland R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on 29th September, 1918, during the advance east of Ypres. The right flank of his company being held up by two machine guns firing from a farmhouse 200 yards away, he took six men with him in an attempt to outflank them. After going 100 yards all except himself and one man were casualties. As soon as he got within 60 yards he threw a bomb, and, dashing in, bayoneted two men, shot another, and captured the two guns.

SOUTH AFRICA.

469 A./Sjt E. C. Hodges, 74th Sge. By., R.G.A. (S.A.H.A.).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when acting as linesman to a forward observation post on a ridge near Remy on the 29th and 30th October, 1918. He repeatedly repaired the line and kept up communication to the battery on both days, several times having to wear a gas mask while doing so. The information the battery got enabled belts of wire to be successfully cut.
