With reference to the announcement of the undermentioned awards, which appeared in the London Gazette of the 18th February, 1919, the following are the acts of gallantry for which the awards were made:—

AWARDED A SECOND BAR TO THE DISTINGUISHED CONDUCT MEDAL.

G/95066 C./S./M. A. J. Bonser, D.C.M., 2nd Bn., Lond. Regt. (Mansfield).

For conspicuous gallantry during the attack near Peizieres on 18th September, 1918. This warrant officer, under heavy machine-gun fire, collected men and led them forward against an enemy machine gun. He disposed of the crew himself, thus enabling the advance to continue. During the six to eight hours' bombing attacks on Poplar trench he continually organised one attack after another, and the trench was finally captured. Throughout he showed fine courage and determination.

For marked courage and ability at Niergnies on 8th October, 1918. He rallied his men and led them forward through a heavy machine-gun barrage, and established the line between his company and the left flank. He then, with great courage, charged an enemy post single-handed, killing two and making six prisoners. His gallantry and initiative were most marked.
