ADMIRALTY OFFICE—July 5.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral the Right Hon. Lord COLLINGWOOD, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels in the Mediterranean, to Wm. MARSDEN, Esq. dated on board the Ocean, off Cadiz, the 29th of May 1806.

SIR,

I inclose to you, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a copy of a letter which I have this day received from Captain Prowse, detailing the proceedings of his Majesty's ship the Sirius, in an encounter he had with a very formidable flotilla of the enemy off the Tiber, in which the Commander of it was captured. The exertion and zeal of Captain Prowse has on every occasion been distinguished, and highly honourable to himself; on this he has performed an important service, in disabling so formidable a flotilla of the enemy.

I also inclose a list of the enemy's vessels, and of the killed and wounded on board the Sirius.

I am, &c. COLLINGWOOD.

His Majesty's ship Sirius, Malta
27th April 1806.

MY LORD,

Being six or seven leagues to the eastward of Civita Vecchia, on the 17th inst. at two P. M. I gained intelligence that a French force was to have sailed that morning from thence, and were to proceed to Naples. I crowded a press of sail in the same direction; and, at a quarter past four, they were seen from the mast-head near shore. On closing with them just after sun-set, I had the satisfaction of seeing one ship, three brigs (corvettes), and five heavy gun-vessels, a list of which is annexed, formed in compact order of battle, within two leagues of the mouth of the Tiber, and near a dangerous shoal, lying to, with resolution to await our attack. At seven, within pistol-shot, commenced firing with vigour from both sides, and continued closely engaged with the squadron for 2 hours, when the Commodore, in the ship, hailed "he had surrendered." His gallant and determined resistance, together with the dangers of the shore, and the crippled condition of his Majesty's ship, (the smoothness of the water admitting the enemy to use their guns with the greatest effect,) prevented me from pursuing the remainder of the flotilla, although several were much disabled, and compelled, a short time before the ship struck, to cease firing, and make off. Had it been daylight I have no doubt from the firm and gallant conduct evinced by the officers and ship's company, that we should have succeeded in capturing more of the enemy's vessels. I have deeply to lament the loss of my nephew, the only officer, and eight seamen and marines, killed in the above contest, and three officers and seventeen seamen and marines wounded, nine of whom are in a very dangerous state. The ship captured is called La Bergere; mounts eighteen long twelve-pounders, manned with one hundred and eighty-nine men, and was commanded by Chaney Duolvis, Capitaine of a frigate, and Commodore of the flotilla; and belonging to the Legion of Honour. She is a remarkably fine vessel, sails well, and is fit for his Majesty's service.

I beg particularly to recommend to your Lordship's notice Lieutenant William Hepenstall, who was the senior Lieutenant in the actions of the 22d July and 21st October, and who has been in the ship nearly five years, as an officer deserving promotion. The gallantry and good conduct of the other officers and ship's company likewise deserves my warmest acknowledgments.

I inclose lists of the killed and wounded; and have the honour to be, &c. W. PROWSE.

Copy of another letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Collingwood to William Marfden, Esq. dated on board the Ocean, off Cadiz, 5th June 1806.

SIR,

I inclose, to be laid before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a copy of a letter which I have this day received from Captain Sir Thomas Livingstone, Bart. giving an account of the capture, on the morning of the 4th ultimo, of his Catholic Majesty's schooner the Giganta, having been boarded in a very gallant manner, and brought out from under the guns of the town and tower of Vieja, by the boats of the Renommee and Nautilus, under the direction of Lieutenant Sir William Parker, Bart.

I also inclose a copy of the return of wounded on this occasion.

I am, &c.

COLLINGWOOD.

Renommee, off Cape Palos,
4th May 1806.

MY LORD,

I have the honour to inform your Lordship, that this morning about one a. m. the boats of the Renommee and Nautilus, under the direction of Lieutenant Sir William Parker, of this ship, gallantly boarded, carried, and brought out from under the fire of the guns of the town and torre de Vieja, and also from under the fire of more than one hundred musketeers, his Catholic Majesty's schooner Giganta, of nine guns, viz. two twenty-four pounders, and three four-pounders, long guns, and four four-pounders, swivels, commanded by Aliere de Navis Don Juan de Moire, with a crew of thirty-eight men. The two twenty-four pounders are in her bow, and she is, in my opinion, very fit for his Majesty's service, particularly at Gibraltar.

The officers who gallantly supported Sir W. Parker, were Mr. Charles Adams, Lieutenant, Mr. Henry Meerton, Lieutenant of royal marines, and Mr. Timothy Murray, boatswain of the Renommee; Mr. Alexander Nesbett, Lieutenant, and Mr. Dawson, carpenter of the Nautilus; and when it is considered this schooner was moored with a chain, within half pistol shot of the shore, and had boarding nettings up, and that she was in every respect prepared to receive our boats, as was also the batteries and musketeers, too much praise cannot be given to the officers and men employed on the enterprise, and I am confident their conduct will meet your Lordship's approbation.

In this affair Mr. Charles Forbes, midshipman, and three men, were badly wounded, and three others slightly, their names are herewith inclosed.

The enemy had nine men wounded, one of them mortally, the other severely. There were none killed on either side.

I have the honour to be, &c.

T. LIVINGSTONE.

Right Hon. Lord Collingwood, &c.
Mediterranean.

The King has been pleased, in consideration of the distinguished services of Sir Thomas Louis, of Cadewell, in the county of Devon, Bart. Knt. Commander of the Sicilian Order of St. Ferdinand and of Merit, and Rear-Admiral of the White squadron of his Majesty's fleet, performed by him on divers important occasions, to grant his Royal licence and authority, that he, the said Sir Thomas Louis, and the heirs male of his body to whom the dignity of Baronet shall descend, in virtue of the limitations in his Majesty's letters patent of creation, may bear supporters to the armorial ensigns of Louis; provided the same be first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office.

And also to order, that this his Majesty's concession, and especial mark of his royal favour, be registered in the College of Arms.
