The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 1 of the Colonial Probates Act, 1892, it was enacted as follows :—

And whereas by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland bearing date at Westminster the 28th day of February 1906, His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh was pleased to declare that the Colony of Lagos should from the coming

And whereas by Treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, His Majesty the King has power and jurisdiction in the Nigeria Protectorate :

And whereas His Majesty The King is satisfied that the Legislature of the said Protectorate has made adequate provision for the recognition therein of Probates and Letters of Administration granted by the Courts of the United Kingdom :

And whereas it is expedient that the Colonial Probates Act, 1892, should be extended to the said Protectorate :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, 1890 and 1913, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Colonial Probates Act, 1892, shall, from the date of this Order, apply to the Nigeria Protectorate as though the said Protectorate were a British Possession.

Whitehall, May 18, 1920.

The KING has been pleased to award the Albert Medal in recognition of the gallant conduct of William Mathers and Joseph Bowman, two Dockyard workmen, in endeavouring at the cost of their own lives to save the life of Able Seaman Arthur Henry Brewer at Rosyth on the 27th August last.

Brewer had descended into the Wet Provision Room of H.M.S. "Tiger," in company with J. H. Anderson, a shipwright, when he was overcome by poisonous gases and collapsed. Anderson, himself feeling the effect of the gases, left the compartment as quickly as possible to obtain assistance, and Mathers and Bowman, who were near to the scene, descended without hesitation to endeavour to rescue Brewer. They did not wait for further assistance or for safety appliances, though they were fully aware of the cause of Brewer's collapse and consequently of the grave risk they were running. They were at once overcome by the noxious gases in the compartment, and when removed were in an unconscious condition.

Every endeavour was made to restore them to consciousness, but without success.

In any week .. .. .	46
On any day (other than Saturday) ..	8½
On Saturday .. .. .	5

Provided that any other day (not being Sunday) may be substituted by an employer for Saturday as the weekly short day, and in such case the normal number of hours of work on such substituted day shall be five, and the normal number of hours on Saturday shall be eight and a half.

Provided also that all hours worked by a worker on Sundays and on Customary Public and Statutory Holidays shall be regarded as Overtime to which the Overtime Rates shall apply.

SECTION II.—The Minimum Rates for Overtime in respect of hours worked by a worker whether engaged on time-work or on piece-work, in excess of the declared number of hours shall be as follows; that is to say:—

1. For the first two hours' Overtime on any day, except Saturdays (or the weekly short day substituted therefor), Sundays and Customary Public and Statutory Holidays, the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to Time-and-a-Quarter; that is to say, One-and-a-Quarter times the Minimum Rate otherwise applicable.
2. For Overtime after the first two hours of Overtime on any day except Sundays and Customary Public and Statutory Holidays, and for all Overtime on Saturdays (or the weekly short day substituted therefor), the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to Time-and-a-Half; that is to say, One-and-a-Half times the Minimum Rate otherwise applicable.

The Overtime Rate shall be payable where on any day (not being a Sunday or a Customary Public or Statutory Holiday) the number of hours worked exceeds 8½, or, in the case of Saturday (or the weekly short day substituted therefor) exceeds five, notwithstanding that the number of hours worked in the week does not exceed 46.

- (b) That where it is or may become the established practice of an employer to require attendance only on alternate Saturdays, the normal number of hours for the week in which attendance on Saturday is required shall be deemed to be 50.
- (c) That where it is or may become the established practice of an employer to require attendance on Sunday instead of Saturday, the Minimum Rates for Overtime, as set out above, shall apply in like manner, as if in the provisions of this Notice as to Overtime the word "Saturday" were substituted for "Sunday," and the word "Sunday" for "Saturday."

But in the application of these Provisos, where the employer requires attendance on any day on which it is not the established practice of the employer to require attendance, all time worked on such day (not being a Sunday or a Customary Public or Statutory Holiday) shall be paid for at Time-and-a-Quarter for the first two hours and Time-and-a-Half thereafter.

Provided that the certification or registration of a learner may be cancelled if the other conditions of learnership are not complied with.

Provided that an employer may employ a female learner on her first employment without a certificate or registration for a probation period not exceeding four weeks, but in the event of such learner being continued thereafter at her employment the probation period shall be included in her period of learnership.

Provided that, notwithstanding compliance with the conditions contained in this Section, a person shall not be deemed to be a learner if she works in a room used for dwelling purposes, and is not in the employment of her parent or guardian.

SECTION II.—The expression "Home-worker" shall be held to mean a worker who works in her own home or any other place not under the control or management of the employer.

Civil Service Commission.

May 21, 1920.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

TEMPORARY RECONSTRUCTION REGULATIONS FOR RECRUITING CLERKS IN THE FOREIGN OFFICE AND ATTACHES IN THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.

(These regulations are liable to alteration at any time after due notice.)

1. Age.—Candidates must have been born on or after the 2nd August 1889, and have attained the age of 22 on the date fixed for the qualifying examination described below.

2. Nationality.—Candidates must be natural-born British subjects, and born within the United Kingdom or in one of the self-governing Dominions of parents also born within those territories, except when the circumstances are such as to justify a departure from the general rule, in which case they can be allowed to compete by special permission of the Secretary of State.

3. Military Service.—Candidates must have served in His Majesty's Naval, Military, or Air Forces; provided that a candidate who has been found unfit on grounds of health for general service, has served for at least a year in a Government Department, has there shown himself to be up to or above the standard of ability usually obtained from competitive examinations, and is recommended by his Department, may also be considered; provided also that a candidate who has been interned in an enemy country in such manner as to preclude him from serving in His Majesty's Forces may be eligible.

4. Education.—Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they have received whole-time continuous and systematic education of a high type until at least the age of 18, or, alternatively, education as described up to the date of joining H.M. Forces. Deficiency of education before the age of eighteen may be made good by an equal or longer period of residence at a University after that age. They must also be able, by reference to places of education or otherwise, to furnish evidence satisfactory to the Commissioners of the mastery of French that is essential for this service.

5. Health and Character.—Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character.

No candidate will be passed who cannot be sent to any climate.

The loss of a limb will not in itself be regarded as a disqualification, but the loss of sight, deafness, or a bad stammer will be so regarded.

6. Application.—Candidates must make application on the appropriate Form, which may be obtained from the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, 6 Burlington Gardens, London, W. 1.

7. Qualifying Examination.—Those candidates who on their Application Forms and the resulting inquiries are adjudged by the Civil Service Commissioners to be eligible will undergo a qualifying examination in the following subjects :—

French,
English,
General Knowledge,
Arithmetic,

and those whom the Civil Service Commissioners judge to approximate to the standard of ability usually obtained from competitive examinations for these situations will be considered as qualified to appear before a Selection Board (see Clause 8).

A candidate who has passed the qualifying examination may not present himself again for examination, whilst a candidate who has failed in the qualifying examination may present himself again for examination on one subsequent occasion but not twice in the same calendar year.

8. Competitions.—Candidates who pass the qualifying examination and are of the requisite age, health, and character, will be summoned to an interview before a Selection Board. The Selection Board will hold competitions at intervals while these regulations remain in force, and on each competition they will recommend for the vacancies existing those candidates who appear to them to possess the highest qualifications, and their decision will be final; but a candidate who has passed the examination and, although judged suitable for appointment, has not been appointed on the results of one competition, may be reserved by the Selection Board for consideration in later competitions and, if so reserved, will be invited to appear before the next Selection Board.

The Selection Board will take into account together with the candidate's record and his personal qualities as shown at the interview any special merit that he may have shown in any subject of the examination.

9. Warning.—Any attempt on the part of a candidate to enlist support for his application through Members of Parliament, or other influential persons, will disqualify him for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard spontaneous recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's work whether at school, at the university, in the Forces, or otherwise.

10. Fee.—Every candidate is required to pay a fee of ten shillings, payable when the Application Form is sent in.
