FROM TUESDAY, JULY 8. TO FRIDAY, JULY 11. 1806.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE—July 8. 1806.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Dacres, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels at Jamaica, to William Marfden, Esq. dated at Port-Royal, May 16. 1806.

SIR,

I inclose, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the copy of a letter I have received from Captain Wise, acquainting me of the Elk having taken one of the tured two doggers, one of which she was fortunate enough to recapture.

I am, &c.

J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's floop Elk, Lucea, May 12. 1806.

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you, that having received intelligence off St Ann's, the evening of the 4th instant, there was a small Spanish privateer on the coast, which had captured two doggers; thinking it most probable they would stand over to Cuba in the night, we made sail to the northward, and, on the evening of the 5th, were so fortunate as to fall in with them off Cape Cruz, to retake one of the doggers, and to capture La Cubana Spanish row-boat privateer, armed with one swivel and small arms; had been five days from St Jago, her crew originally consisted of fourteen men; but she had only five on board when captured. I am, &c.

W. F. WISE.

To James Richard Dacres, Esq. Vice-Admiral of the White, Commander in Chief, &c. Jamaica.

Copy of another Letter from Vice-Admiral Dacres, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels at Jamaica, to William Marfden, Esq. dated Port-Royal. 16th May 1806.

SIR,

I have the honour to inclose, for their Lordship's information, the copy of a letter I have received from Captain Selby, of the Cerberus, acquainting me of his having captured, the day before he arrived, a privateer that was hovering about the convoy. I am, &c.

JAS. R. DACRES.

Price Sixpence.

His Majesty's ship Cerberus, off the east end of Jamaica, 15th May 1806.

SIR,
I beg leave to acquaint you, that this morning, as I was standing towards Jamaica, with a convoy under my charge bound to that island, I discovered, at dawn of day, a vessel of a suspicious appearance, hovering about the fleet; I stood towards her, when she immediately hauled her wind, under a press of sail; upon which I gave chase, and in two hours had the good fortune to come up with and capture her. She proves to be La Amable Theresa, belonging to St Jago de Cuba, armed with two brass howitzers, and eighteen men, and containing a cargo of wine and merchandize, out three days from St Jago de Cuba.

I feel much satisfaction in having it in my power to communicate to you the capture of the above vessel, as in the event of her escape she must have proved a great annoyance to the trade of this island, and particularly so to the large convoy under my command.

I have the honour to be, &c. W. SELBY.
To Vice-Admiral Dacres, Commander in Chief, &c.
