FROM FRIDAY, JULY 18. TO TUESDAY, JULY 22. 1806.

WESTMINSTER, JULY 16.

This day, the Lords being met, and the Commons attending, the Royal Assent, by commission, was given to an act for repealing the duties of Excise on stills used for distilling or rectifying low wines or spirits for consumption in Scotland, on worts or wash made for extracting spirits, and on spirits made for consumption in Scotland, and for granting and securing other duties in lieu thereof, and for better securing the duties on foreign spirits and on malt.—An act to enable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury to issue Exchequer bills on the credit of such aids or supplies as have been or shall be granted by Parliament for the service of Great Britain for the year 1806.—An act for allowing, until the 1st day of August 1807, the importation of certain fish from Newfoundland and the coast of Labrador, and for granting a bounty thereon.—An act to provide for the better execution of the several acts relating to the revenues, matters, and things under the management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland.—An act for enabling the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland to contract for the purchase of the duties of priage and butlerage in Ireland.—An act for rectifying mistakes in the names of the Commissioners appointed by an act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled an act for appointing Commissioners for putting into execution an act of this Session of Parliament, for continuing and granting to his Majesty a duty on pensions, offices, and personal estates, in England, and certain duties on sugar, malt, tobacco, and snuff, in Great Britain, for the service of the year 1805; and an act made in the 38th year of his present Majesty, for granting an aid to his Majesty by a land tax, to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798; and for appointing other Commissioners, together with those named in the first mentioned act, to put in execution an act of this Session of Parliament, for continuing and granting to his Majesty a duty on pensions, offices, and personal estates, in England, and certain duties on sugar, malt, tobacco, and snuff, in Great Britain, for the service of the year 1806; also the said act made in the 38th year of his present Majesty, and for indemnifying such persons as have acted as Commissioners for executing the said acts.—An act to enable his Majesty annually to train and exercise a proportion of his subjects in England, under certain regulations, and more effectually to provide for the defence of the realm.—An act for the return of correct lists of persons liable to serve in the militia under an act passed in the forty second year of his present Majesty, and to suspend the ballot for the militia in England for two years.—An act to permit the free interchange of every species of grain between Great Britain and Ireland.—An act for making additional and further provisions for the effectual performance of quarantine in Great Britain.—An act for allowing a bounty on the exportation of oil of vitriol made in Great Britain.—An act to amend three acts made in the thirty-fifth, forty-first, and forty-second years of his present Majesty, relating to the conveyance of letters and packets by the post.—An act to vest certain messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments in trustees, for better securing his Majesty's docks, ships, and stores at Portsmouth; and for extending the lines and works at Dover.—An act for the more effectually regulating and providing for the relief of the poor, and the management of infirmaries and hospitals in Ireland.—An act for improving the funds of the chest at Greenwich, and amending an act passed in the forty-third year of his present Majesty relating to the said chest.—An act to empower the Commissioners and Governors of the royal hospital for seamen at Greenwich, in the county of Kent, to make certain allowances to old infirm, or wounded or disabled officers in the royal navy; and to provide a fund for the payment of such allowances, and for the increase of pensions to disabled seamen and marines—and to several private acts.

ST JAMES'S, JULY 14.

The King has been pleased to appoint Henry Norton Willis, Esq. to be Comptroller and Paymaster to the establishment of her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, JULY 19.

Copy of a letter from the Hon. Rear-Admiral Sir Alexander Cochrane, K. B. Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels at the Leeward Islands, to William Marfden, Esq. dated at Barbadoes, the 3d June, 1806.

SIR—I inclose, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, copies of letters from Captains Campbell and Bluett, of his Majesty's sloops Cygnet and Wasp, giving an account of the capture of a French national schooner and sloop, the latter his Majesty's late armed sloop Dominica, which had been run away with by her crew three or four days before, and carried to Guadaloupe, where she was immediately commissioned and manned with 75 men, and sent back with the schooner to attempt cutting out the merchant ships in Roseau Bay, which was happily frustrated, and one vessel only, which they had taken possession of, was recaptured.

The French General, Hortade, with a party of soldiers, were taken on board these vessels; what motives could have induced an officer of his rank to engage in such petty predatory warfare I am at a loss to guess, particularly as he was taken without any uniform whatever.

The Captain of the Duke of Montrose Packet deserves great credit for his exertions; he received on board a party of the 46th regiment, and at the desire of the President got under weigh and chased, and by his means the schooner was captured.

I have the honour to be, &c.

ALEX. COCHRANE.

His Majesty's Sloop Cygnet, off Dominica, 24th May, 1806.

SIR—At nine this morning, when at anchor in Prince Rupert's Bay, I received information of a schooner and cutter of the enemy being in the offing, on which I weighed, and made the necessary signals to his Majesty's sloop Wasp, then standing in for the Bay. At two the cutter surrendered to the Wasp, and before eight, the schooner commented a partial action with the Duke of Montrose Packet, (who joined in chase from Roseau) on the approach of the Cygnet she surrendered, and proved to be the French National schooner l'Impe-rial, commanded by a Lieutenant de Vaisseau, mounts one long 9-pounder, two 2-pounders, with small arms, and 65 men; failed the evening before from Saints.

I am, &c.

ROBERT BELL CAMPBELL.
To the Hon. Rear-Admiral Cochrane,
Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.
Leeward Islands.

His Majesty's Sloop Wasp, Dominico,
24th May 1806.

SIR,—I have the honour to inform you, that in proceeding to Prince Rupert's Bay this morning, I received intelligence (per signal) from his Majesty's sloop Cygnet, that anchorage, of an enemy in the S. W. quarter, which I immediately went in chase of, being a cutter and schooner, the former I captured, which proved to be the Napoleon privateer, (late his Majesty's cutter Dominica) commanded by Vincent Gautier, having 73 men, four of whom were of the 4th regiment of artillery, and 12 of the 26th regiment; she failed from Basseterre on the 23d instant.

I experienced the greatest satisfaction in being witness to the most gallant conduct and perseverance of his Majesty's Packet the Duke of Montrose, in capturing L'Imperial schooner (consort to the above cutter).

I am sorry to inform you, from the determination of the cutter to escape, if possible, she had two men killed.

I have the honour to be, &c.

B. STERLING BLUETT.
To the Hon. Sir Alex. Cochrane, K. B.
Rear Adm. of the White, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

SECOND NOTICE—SECOND TERM.

IN the Process of Ranking and Sale, at the instance of ROBERT ANDERSON of Strawhan, against ROBERT LINDSAY MCKINNELL of Captaintown, and his CREDITORS, the Lord Robertson, Ordinary, by interlocutor dated the 10th July current, assigned the third federunt of day November next, for the whole creditors to produce all their claims, rights, and diligences, competent to them respectively against the bankrupt or his estate, and that for the first term, with certification, as in a reduction and improbation—Of which intimation is hereby given accordingly.

NOTICE

To the CREDITORS of DAVID STRONG,
Merchant in Glasgow.

ROBERT TOD, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said DAVID STRONG, hereby intimates, that a meeting of the Creditors of the said David Strong is to be held within the Prince of Wales's Tavern in Glasgow, upon Saturday the 2d day of August next, at two o'clock afternoon; to decide upon an offer of composition made by the said David Strong to the meeting held this day.

GLASGOW, JULY 12, 1806.

INTIMATION.

THAT NEIL SNODGRASS, Merchant in Paisley, has, with concurrence of James Laurie, merchant in Glasgow, trustee on his sequestrated estate, and of more than four fifths of the creditors, both in number and value, applied to the Court of Session for a discharge of the debts contracted by him prior to the date of his sequestration.

JULY 11. 1806.

TO CREDITORS.

A very few of the Creditors of JOHN GRAY, late writer in Brechin, have lodged their claims with Robert McKenzie, merchant in Brechin, the Trustee, in terms of an advertisement inserted in this Gazette on the 30th April 1805; the Trustee again requests the Creditors to lodge with him their grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereon, within three weeks from this date; certifying, that those who fail, will be deprived of their share of the funds to be divided.

NOTICE

THE Concern of ORR & BRODIE, merchants here, was DISSOLVED by mutual consent on the 24th June last; and debtors are required to make immediate payment to the subscriber James Orr, who is not only solely authorized to uplift and discharge the debts due to the concern, but is also to answer all demands thereagainst.

(Signed) JAMES ORR.

HUGH BRODIE.
LOCHWINNOCH, 14th July 1806.

NOTICE

To the CREDITORS of JOHN M'KNIGHT,
Innkeeper in Kirkcudbright.

AT a meeting of the Creditors of the said John M'Knight, held here upon the 21st day of June last, the bankrupt made an offer of composition of Two Shillings and Sixpence per pound, upon the principal sums only of the debts owing by him at the date of the sequestration, payable at two and eight months from the date of his discharge; which offer was approved of, and another meeting appointed to be held here upon the 19th current for the purpose of deciding upon the said offer, at which last meeting the Creditors resolved, for the reasons stated to them, to delay deciding upon the said offer until the 9th day of August next; and directed the Trustee to call a meeting of the Creditors, to be held upon the said 9th day of August next, within the house of Anthony M'Kenzie, vintner in Kirkcudbright, at mid-day, for the purpose of deciding upon said offer; of all which intimation is hereby given accordingly.

ROB. GORDON, Trustee.

KIRKCUDBRIGHT, July 19. 1806.

NOTICE

To the CREDITORS of ROBERT BROWN,
Grocer in Ayr.

HUGH COWAN, merchant in Ayr, hereby intimates to the creditors of the said Robert Brown, that he has been appointed trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Robert Brown, and that his appointment has been confirmed by the Court of Session. That, upon his application, the Sheriff of Ayrshire has fixed Thursday the 21st day of July instant, and Thursday the 14th day of August next, at 12 o'clock noon, within the Sheriff Court-house of Ayr, for the public examination of the said Robert Brown, his wife, family, or others acquainted with his business, upon the state of his affairs, and all circumstances relative thereto; and that a meeting of the creditors of the said Robert Brown will be held at Mrs Simson's, at Bridge-end of Ayr, on Friday the 15th of August next, at one o'clock afternoon, being the first lawful day immediately succeeding the last of these examinations, for instructing the trustee as to the management and recovery of the estate, and chusing commissioners. And the trustee hereby requires the creditors of the said Robert Brown, to produce in his hands, their claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with their oaths on the verity thereof, at or previous to the said meeting, if not already produced; and he farther intimates that, unless the said productions are made between and the 29th day of March 1807, being ten months after the date of the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration, the party neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the debtor's estate.
