SCOTTISH BOARD OF HEALTH.

ORDER OF THE SCOTTISH BOARD OF HEALTH in terms of Section 64 (3) of the National Insurance Act, 1911, providing for a combination of the County of Dunbarton and the Burghs of Dunbarton and Clydebank for the provision of a Sanatorium, etc.

Whereas by Section 16 (1) (b) of the Finance Act, 1911, a sum is made available, in such manner as Parliament may determine, for the purposes of the provision of, or making grants in aid to, Sanatoria and other institutions for the treatment of Tuberculosis;

And whereas Section 64 (1) of the National Insurance Act, 1911, provides that the aforesaid sum is to be distributed by the Local Government Board with the consent of the Treasury;

And whereas Section 64 (2) of the National Insurance Act, 1911, provides that, if any such grant is made to a County Council, the Local Government Board may authorise the County Council to provide any such institutions, and, where so authorised, the County Council shall have power to erect buildings and to manage and maintain the institution, and for that purpose to enter into agreements and make arrangements with Insurance Committees and other authorities and persons, and to do all such things as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid;

And whereas Local Authorities under the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, have power under Section 66 of that Act to provide, furnish and maintain such institutions;

And whereas Section 64 (3) of the National Insurance Act, 1911, provides as follows:—

“For the purposes of facilitating co-operation amongst County Councils, County Borough Councils and other Local Authorities (not being Poor Law Authorities) for the provision of such sanatoria and other institutions as aforesaid, the Local Government Board may by order make such provisions as appears to them necessary or expedient, by the constitution of Joint Committees, Joint Boards or otherwise, for the joint exercise by such Councils and Authorities of their powers in relation thereto, and any such Order may provide how, in what proportion, and out of what funds or rates the expenses of providing such institutions, so far as they are not defrayed out of grants under this Section, are to be defrayed, and may contain such consequential incidental and supplemental provisions as may appear necessary for the purposes of the Order, and an Order so made shall be binding and conclusive in respect of the matters to which it relates;”

And whereas by Section 16 of the Local Government (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1916, it is enacted that every joint committee and every joint board constituted or to be constituted under Sub-section (3) of Section 64 of the National Insurance Act, 1911, shall be a body corporate by such name as the Board by which it is constituted may direct and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal and may hold land for the purposes of their powers and duties without licence in mortmain.

And whereas Section 80 (3) of the National
