

ipso facto in accordance with its provisions, nationality of an Allied or Associated Power, including those who, under Articles 72 and 76 of the Treaty, obtained such nationality with the consent of the competent authorities, or who, under Articles 74 or 77 thereof, acquired such nationality by virtue of previous rights of citizenship.

12. The Treaty of Peace (Austria) Order, 1920, shall not apply to Egypt, except so far as may be consistent with the provisions of this Order or of any Proclamation issued by the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief the British Forces in Egypt, or with any rules or directions given thereunder.

13. This Order may be cited as the Egypt (Treaty of Peace), Austria Order in Council, 1920, and shall be read as one with the Egypt Order in Council, 1915.

14. This Order shall be deemed to have had effect as from the date when the Treaty of Peace came into force.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of October 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 24th day of August 1920, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas by Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 22nd day of January 1920, it is provided that an allowance of 2s. 6d. a day shall be paid to Officers above the rank of Sub-Lieutenant who are appointed to depot ships for duty with Submarines, such allowance to cover all periodical embarkation in Submarines :

“And whereas we consider that provision should be made for the payment of a continuous allowance to Officers below the rank of Lieutenant similarly appointed whose duties require them to proceed to sea in Submarines periodically and that such payment should be at a lower rate than that authorised for the Officers referred to in the preceding paragraph :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to approve with effect from the 11th day of June 1920, the payment of an allowance of 1s. 6d. a day to all Officers below the rank of Lieutenant who have been, or may hereafter be, appointed to Depot Ships for duty with Submarines.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's

Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

“And whereas we are of opinion that the rate of allowance payable to Naval ratings acting as Schoolmasters (a) in the absence of Naval Schoolmasters allowed by complement, and (b) in Harbour or Shore Establishments should conform with the rate applicable in the case of ratings acting as Naval Schoolmasters in ships in which no Naval Schoolmaster is allowed :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the payment in such cases of an allowance of 8d. a day, with effect from the 1st of May 1919.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.
