

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The Aliens Order, 1920, shall be amended as follows:—

(a) The following sub-section shall be substituted for sub-section (6) of Article 3—

(6) Without prejudice to any other provision of this Article where an alien to whom leave to land has not been granted by an immigration officer is found on shore in the United Kingdom, it shall be lawful for the immigration officer or any constable, notwithstanding any intervening prosecution and imprisonment of the alien, at any time within one month after the arrival of the alien to replace that alien on board the ship in which he arrived in the United Kingdom, or on board any ship belonging to the same owners and bound for the port from which the alien come to the United Kingdom.

(b) The following sub-section shall be substituted for sub-section (6) of Article 7—

(6) This article applies to any premises, whether furnished or unfurnished, where lodging or sleeping accommodation is provided for reward.

(c) The following paragraph shall be substituted for the last paragraph of sub-section (1) of Article 23—

A reference to the Scottish Board of Health shall be substituted for any reference to the Minister of Health, and a reference to Section sixteen of the Summary Jurisdiction (Scotland) Act, 1908, shall be substituted for the reference to Section twenty-nine of the Summary Jurisdiction Act, 1879.

(d) The following paragraph shall be added at the end of sub-section (2) of Article 26—

Any permission or direction given, or order or requirement made or other action taken under any Order made under the Aliens Restriction Act, 1914, and no longer in force, shall be deemed to have been given made or taken under the corresponding provision of this Order, and any expulsion order made under the Aliens Act, 1905, and in force at the time of the repeal of that Act, shall have effect as though it were a deportation order made under this Order.

2. This Order shall come into operation forthwith.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 1st day of December 1920.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by Section 2 of the Pharmacy Act, 1868, it is enacted that the several Articles named or described in the Schedule (A) to that Act shall be deemed Poisons within the meaning of that Act, and that the Council of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain may, from time to time, by Resolution, declare that any Article in such Resolution named ought to be deemed a Poison within the meaning of that Act, and that thereupon the said Society shall submit the same for the approval of the Privy

Council; and that if such approval shall be given, then such Resolution and approval shall be advertised in the London Gazette; and, on the expiration of one month from such advertisement, the Article named in such Resolution shall be deemed to be a Poison within the meaning of that Act:

And whereas by Section 1 of the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, it is enacted that Schedule (A) to the Pharmacy Act, 1868, be repealed, and the Schedule to the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, substituted therefor, and that the said last-named Schedule may be amended by adding thereto or removing therefrom any Article in the manner provided by Section 2 of the Pharmacy Act, 1868:

And whereas the Council of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain did on the 17th day of November 1920, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them by the Pharmacy Act, 1868, as amended by the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, resolve and declare as follows:—

(a) That the description in Part 1 of the schedule to the last-named Act 'Coca, any preparation or admixture of, containing 1 or more per cent. of coca alkaloids' ought to be removed therefrom and that the description 'Coca, any preparation or admixture of, containing 0.1 or more per cent. of coca alkaloids' ought to be added thereto.

(b) That Ecgonine and all preparations or admixtures containing 0.1 per cent. of Ecgonine ought to be added to Part 1 of the Schedule to the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908.

(c) That the description in Part 1 of the Schedule to the last-named Act 'Opium and all preparations or admixtures containing 0.75 or more per cent. of Morphine' ought to be removed therefrom, and that the description 'Opium and all preparations or admixtures containing 0.2 or more per cent. of Morphine' ought to be added thereto.

(d) That Diamorphine (also known as Heroin) and all preparations or admixtures containing 0.1 per cent. of Diamorphine, ought to be added to Part 1 of the Schedule to the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908.

(e) That Zinc Chloride and liquid preparations of Zinc Chloride, except preparations intended to be used for soldering or other purely industrial purpose, provided that they are contained in closed vessels labelled with the word 'Poisonous,' and bearing the name and address of the seller and a notice of the special purpose for which the preparations are intended, ought to be added to Part 2 of the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908.

(f) That the description in Part 2 of the Schedule to the last-named Act 'Coca, any preparation or admixture of, containing more than 0.1 per cent. but not less than 1 per cent. of coca alkaloids,' ought to be removed therefrom."

And whereas the said Society have submitted their Resolution for the approval of the Privy Council, and the Lords of the Privy Council are of opinion that the said Resolution should be approved:

Now, therefore, Their Lordships are hereby pleased to signify their approval of the said Resolution.

ALMERIC FITZROY.
