PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the territories in East Africa situate within the limits of this Order and forming part of the Protectorate known as the East Africa Protectorate, are under the protection of His Majesty the King:

And whereas British subjects have settled in large numbers in the said territories and it is expedient, with a view to the further development and more convenient administration of the said territories, that they should be annexed to and should henceforth form part of His Majesty's Dominions:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

I. This Order may be cited as the Kenya (Annexation) Order in Council, 1920.

II. Until further provision shall be made in respect thereof, the limits of this Order are the territories comprised in the East Africa Protectorate as specified in the East Africa Order in Council, 1902, save and excepting only such territories therein included as form part of the Dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Zanzibar.

III. From and after the coming into operation of this Order the said territories shall be annexed to and form part of His Majesty's Dominions and shall be known as the Colony of Kenya, hereinafter called the Colony.

IV. Nothing in this Order shall affect the validity of any Commission or Instructions issued by His Majesty under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet to the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the territories now included within the limits of this Order, or of any Order in Council affecting the said territories, or of any Ordinance, Proclamation or Regulations passed or issued under any such Instructions or Order, or of any act or thing done under any such Instructions, Order, Ordinance, Proclamation or Regulations, save in so far as any provision of any such Order in Council, Ordinance, Proclamation or Regulations may be repugnant to the provisions of any Act of Parliament which may, by reason of the annexation hereby declared, become extended to the Colony or to any Order or Regulation made under the authority of any such Act, or having in the Colony the force and effect of any such Act.

V. This Order shall be published in the Official Gazette of the East Africa Protectorate, and shall thereupon commence and come into operation, and the Governor shall give directions for the publication of this Order at such places and in such manner, and for such time or times, as he thinks proper for giving publicity thereto within the Colony.

VI. His Majesty may from time to time revoke, alter, add to, or amend this Order.

ALMERIO FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of August 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty the King to hold, exercise, and enjoy any jurisdiction which His Majesty now has or may at any time hereafter have within a foreign country in the same and as ample a manner as if His Majesty had acquired that jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory:

And whereas by an Order in Council bearing date the Eleventh day of June 1920, and entitled the Kenya (Annexation) Order in Council, 1920, it is provided that the territories comprised in the East Africa Protectorate save and excepting only such territories therein included as form part of the Dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Zanzibar shall, from and after the coming into operation of the said Order, be annexed to and form part of His Majesty's Dominions and shall be known as the Colony of Kenya:

And whereas the said Order in Council was published in the Official Gazette of the East Africa Protectorate on the Twenty-third day of July 1920, and thereupon commenced and came into operation:

And whereas His Majesty has this day been pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to direct that Letters Patent be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland constituting the office of Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Kenya, and, amongst other things, establishing a Legislative Council for the said Colony, with certain powers and authority to legislate for the said Colony, as in the said Letters Patent is more fully set forth:

And whereas it is expedient to make further and other provisions for the peace, order, and good government of the territories formerly comprised in the East Africa Protectorate other than those now included in the Colony of Kenya:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

I. This Order may be cited as the Kenya Protectorate Order in Council, 1920:—

II. This Order shall apply to the territories comprised in the East Africa Protectorate as specified in the East Africa Order in Council, 1902, save and excepting only such territories therein included as from and after the coming into operation of the Kenya (Annexation) Order in Council, 1920, were annexed to and form part of His Majesty's Dominions and are now known as the Colony of Kenya.

III. Nothing in this Order shall affect the validity of any Instructions issued by His Majesty under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet to the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the territories now included within the limits of this Order, or of any Order in Council affecting the said territories, or of any Ordinance, Proclamation or Regulations passed or issued under any such Instructions or Order, or of any act or thing done under any such Instructions, Order, Ordinance, Proclamation or Regulations save in so far as any provision of any such Order in Council, Ordinance, Proclamation or Regulations may be repugnant to the provisions of this Order.

The territories within the limits of this Order shall be known and described as the Protectorate of Kenya.

IV. In this Order, unless the subject or context otherwise requires—

“ His Majesty ” includes His Majesty's heirs and successors.

“ Secretary of State ” means one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

“ Colony ” means the Colony of Kenya.

“ Protectorate ” means the Protectorate of Kenya.

“ Governor ” means the Governor and Commander-in-Chief for the time being of the Colony of Kenya and includes every person for the time being administering the Government of the said Colony.

V. The Governor and Commander-in-Chief for the time being of the Colony (hereinafter called the Governor) shall be the Governor of the Protectorate, and he is hereby authorised, empowered and commanded to exercise on His Majesty's behalf all such powers and jurisdiction as His Majesty at any time before or after the passing of this Order had or may have within the said territories, and to that end to take or cause to be taken all such measures and to do or cause to be done all such matters and things therein as are lawful and as in the interest of His Majesty's service he may think expedient, subject to such instructions as may have been received, or as he may hereafter receive by Order in Council, or under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, or through a Secretary of State.

And in the absence of such Instructions, any Instructions addressed to the Governor of the Colony by His Majesty, or through a Secretary of State shall in so far as they are applicable be observed by the Governor in the exercise of his powers and jurisdiction as Governor of the Protectorate.

VI. The Executive Council of the Colony shall be and be deemed to be the Executive Council of the Protectorate.

VII. It shall be lawful for the Legislative Council for the time being of the Colony, by any ordinance or ordinances, to exercise and provide for giving effect to all such power and jurisdiction as His Majesty at any time before or after the passing of this Order has acquired or may acquire in the Protectorate, and generally for the peace, order and good government of the Protectorate and of all persons therein.

Provided as follows:—

(1) That all laws, ordinances, proclamations, byelaws and regulations of whatsoever nature in force at the date of the commencement of this Order within the said Protectorate shall continue in force until repealed or revoked by or in pursuance of any law or ordinance passed by the Legislative Council of the Colony.

(2) That every suit, action, complaint, matter, or thing which shall be depending in any Court having jurisdiction within the said Protectorate at the commencement of this Order shall and may be proceeded with in such Court in like manner as if this Order had not been passed.

VIII. The Governor shall have a negative voice in the making and passing of all such Ordinances as aforesaid. And the right is hereby reserved to His Majesty to disallow any such Ordinances as aforesaid. Such disallowance shall be signified to the Governor through a Secretary of State, and shall take effect from the time when the same shall be promulgated by the Governor.

The right is also hereby reserved to His Majesty, with the advice and consent of Parliament, or with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to make all such laws or ordinances as may appear to Him necessary for the exercise of such powers and jurisdiction as aforesaid as fully as if this Order had not been made.

IX. In the making and establishing of all such Ordinances the Governor and the Legislative Council shall conform to and observe all rules, regulations and directions in that behalf contained in any instructions under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, and, until further directed, the Instructions in force for the time being as to the passing of Ordinances by the said Legislative Council for the peace, order and good government of the Colony shall, so far as they may be applicable, be taken and deemed to be in force in respect of Ordinances passed by the said Council by virtue of this Order.

X. When a Bill passed by the Legislative Council is presented to the Governor for his assent, he shall, according to his discretion, but subject to any instructions addressed to him under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet or through a Secretary of State, declare that he assents thereto, or refuses his assent to the same, or that he reserves the same for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure.

No law shall take effect until either the Governor shall have assented thereto in His Majesty's name or on His Majesty's behalf, and shall have signed the same in token of such assent, or until His Majesty shall have given His assent thereto by Order in Council or through one of His Principal Secretaries of State.

XI. The Governor may reserve for the signification of His Majesty's pleasure any Bill passed by the Legislative Council, and shall so reserve any such Bill which is in any way repugnant to or inconsistent with any of the provisions of any Instructions addressed to him under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet. A Bill so reserved shall take effect so soon as His Majesty shall have given His assent to the same by Order in Council, or through a Secretary of State, and the Governor shall have signified such assent by proclamation in the Official Gazette of the Colony.

XII. The Courts now or hereafter established in the Colony shall have in respect of matters occurring within the Protectorate, so far as such matters are within the jurisdiction of His Majesty, the same jurisdiction, civil and criminal, original and appellate, as they respectively possess from time to time in respect of matters occurring within the Colony, and the judgments, decrees, orders and sentences of any such Court made or given in the exercise of the jurisdiction hereby conferred may be enforced and executed, and appeals therefrom may be had and prosecuted in the same way as if the judgment, decree, order or sentence had been made or given under the ordinary jurisdiction of the Court.

XIII. In any of the events in which he is authorised, by the aforesaid Letters Patent, constituting the office of Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony or any other Letters Patent adding to, amending or substituted for the same, to appoint a Deputy within any part or parts of the Colony, the Governor may appoint any person or persons to be his Deputy or Deputies within any part or parts of the Protectorate, and in that capacity to exercise, during his pleasure, such of the powers and authorities vested in the Governor as shall in the instrument appointing him be specified and limited, but no others. Every such Deputy shall conform to and observe all such instructions as the Governor shall from time to time address to him for his guidance. Provided nevertheless that by the appointment of a Deputy or Deputies as aforesaid the power and authority of the Governor shall not be abridged, altered, or in any way affected otherwise than His Majesty may at any time hereafter think proper to direct.

XIV. The Governor may constitute and appoint all such Judges, Commissioners, Justices of the Peace and other necessary officers as may be lawfully constituted and appointed by His Majesty, all of whom, unless otherwise provided by law, shall hold their offices during His Majesty's pleasure.

XV. The Governor, in His Majesty's name, and on His Majesty's behalf, may make and execute, under the Public Seal grants and dispositions of any lands within the Protectorate which may be lawfully granted or disposed of by His Majesty: Provided that every such grant or disposition be made in conformity, either with some Order in Council or law now or hereafter in force in the Protectorate, or with some Instructions which may be addressed to the Governor under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, or through one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

XVI. The Governor may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, dismiss any public officer not appointed by virtue of a Warrant from His Majesty, whose pensionable emoluments do not exceed one hundred pounds sterling a year, provided that in every such case the grounds of intended dismissal are definitely stated in writing, and communicated to the officer in order that he may have full opportunity of exculpating himself, and that the matter is investigated by the Governor with the aid of the head for the time being of the department in which the officer is serving.

The Governor may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, also suspend from the exercise of his office any person holding any office within the Protectorate, whether appointed by virtue of any Commission or Warrant from His Majesty, or in His Majesty's Name, or by any other mode of appointment. Such suspension shall continue and have effect only until His Majesty's pleasure therein shall be signified to the Governor. If the suspension is confirmed by a Secretary of State, the Governor shall forthwith cause the officer to be so informed, and thereupon his office shall become vacant. In proceeding to any such suspension, the Governor is strictly to observe the directions in that behalf given to him as Governor of the Colony by any Instructions from His Majesty or signified through a Secretary of State.

XVII. When any crime or offence has been committed within the Protectorate or for which the offender may be tried therein, the Governor may, as he shall see occasion, in His Majesty's name and on His Majesty's behalf, grant a pardon to any accomplice in such crime or offence who shall give such information and evidence as shall lead to the conviction of the principal offender, or of any one of such offenders if more than one; and, further, may grant to any offender convicted of any crime or offence in any Court or before any person having jurisdiction to try any such crime or offence within the Protectorate, a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions, or any remission of the sentence passed on such offender, or any respite of the execution of such sentence, for such period as the Governor thinks fit, and may remit any fines, penalties, or forfeitures which may become due and payable to His Majesty.

XVIII. The Seal now or hereafter in use as the Public Seal of the Colony shall be and be deemed to be also the Public Seal of the Protectorate, and shall be used for sealing all things whatsoever that shall pass the said Seal.

XIX. This Order shall be published in the Official Gazette of the Colony, and shall thereupon commence and come into operation; and the Governor shall give directions for the publication of this Order at such places and in such manner, and for such time or times as he thinks proper for giving due publicity thereto within the Protectorate.

XX. His Majesty may from time to time revoke, alter, add to, or amend this Order.

ACT OF ADJOURNAL

FOR FIXING THE PROPORTIONS IN WHICH JURORS SHALL BE RETURNED FOR SITTINGS OF THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICIARY AT EDINBURGH.

At Edinburgh, the sixth day of December One Thousand nine hundred and twenty.

PRESENT,

The Rt. Honourable the Lord Justice-General.
The Rt. Honourable The Lord Justice-Clerk.
The Honourable Lord Dundas.
The Honourable Lord Mackenzie.
The Honourable Lord Anderson.

The Lord Justice-General, Lord Justice-Clerk, and Lords Commissioners of Justiciary, CONSIDERING that by the Act of 39 and 40 Victoria, Chapter 152, entitled "An Act to alter the Justiciary District of the County of Peebles," it is provided by Section Second that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of Justiciary, and they are hereby required to make such Orders and Regulations and to pass such Acts of Adjournal as may be necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act, and in particular for determining the proportions in which Jurors shall be returned for the several counties thereafter included within the district attached to the High Court of Justiciary in Edinburgh.

CONSIDERING that by Act of Adjournal, dated 30th May 1903, made by virtue of the said Act (superseding an earlier Act of Adjournal also made by virtue of the said Act, dated 30th August 1876) it was ordered, inter alia, that where forty-five Jurors are required for trials before the High Court of Justiciary in Edinburgh, the Jurors to be returned by the Sheriff should be in the following proportions, viz. :—twenty-eight for the City of Edinburgh, four for the Town of Leith, five for the remainder of the County of Edinburgh, four for the County of Linlithgow, two for the County of Haddington, and two for the County of Peebles, or as near as may be in these proportions at the discretion of the Sheriff, according to the number of Jurors required, more or less than forty-five :

CONSIDERING that by the Act of 10 and 11 George the Fifth, session 1920, entitled the "Edinburgh Boundaries Extension and Tramways Act, 1920," the Town of Leith and certain portions of the County of Midlothian (formerly Edinburgh) adjacent to the City of Edinburgh have been annexed to and incorporated in the City of Edinburgh and the County of the City of Edinburgh as from the second day of November 1920, it being by the said Act, inter alia, provided that (Sec. 7 (1)) "the City shall include and comprehend in addition to the area embraced in the existing City the added area, and the City shall be comprised within the boundaries set forth and described in the First Schedule to" the Act, and that (Sec. 9) "the County of the City of Edinburgh shall include and comprehend the City as extended and defined by this Act," and that (Sec. 10), "the added area shall be and the same is hereby for the purposes of this Act disjoined from the County of Midlothian":

AND CONSIDERING that accordingly the number of persons qualified to act as Jurors in the City of Edinburgh has largely increased, and the number of persons so qualified in the area of the County of Midlothian (formerly Edinburgh) has correspondingly diminished, and that it is therefore necessary to alter the proportions determined by the said first-mentioned Act of Adjournal:

DO THEREFORE, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said first recited Act, make the following Orders and Regulations, viz. :—

- I. When the attendance of Jurors is required for trials before the High Court of Justiciary at Edinburgh, notices, writs, or precepts shall be issued from the said Court to the Sheriff of the Lothians and Peebles, specifying the number of Jurors required; and the said Sheriff shall thereupon return a list taken from the General Jury Book in the order in which they therein appear, subscribed by him, containing the number of persons required, which return, where forty-five Jurors are required, shall contain thirty-three from the City of Edinburgh and County of the City of Edinburgh, four for the County of Midlothian (formerly Edinburgh), four for the County of Linlithgow, two for the County of Haddington, and two for the County of Peebles, or as near as may be in these proportions at the discretion of the Sheriff, according to the number required, more or less than forty-five.
- II. That in all other respects the provisions hitherto in force in regard to Jurors shall remain as at present.
- III. This Act of Adjournal shall come into force on the date hereof.

J. A. CLYDE, I.P.D.

ACT OF ADJOURNAL

FOR GIVING EFFECT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE SEX DISQUALIFICATION (REMOVAL) ACT, 1919, AND OF THE JURORS (ENROLMENT OF WOMEN) (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1920.

At Edinburgh, the sixth day of December One thousand nine hundred and twenty.

PRESENT,

The Rt. Honourable the Lord Justice-General.
The Rt. Honourable The Lord Justice-Clerk.
The Honourable Lord Dundas.
The Honourable Lord Mackenzie.
The Honourable Lord Anderson.

The Lord Justice-General, Lord Justice-Clerk, and Lords Commissioners of Justiciary, CONSIDERING that by the Act of 9 and 10 George the Fifth, chapter 71, entitled The Sex Disqualification (Removal) Act, 1919, it is provided, inter alia, that a person shall not be exempted by sex or marriage from the liability to serve as a juror, and further, that any enactment relating to juries shall have effect so as to accord with the provisions of the said Act: CONSIDERING also that by the Act of 10 and 11 George the Fifth, chapter 53, entitled the Jurors (Enrolment of Women) (Scotland) Act, 1920, it is, inter alia, provided by section 1 (i.), that "the enactments relating to the qualification of jurors and the manner of making up any roll or list of persons who are qualified and liable to serve as jurors in Scotland shall apply to women in like manner as they apply to men," and that provision is made accordingly in the manner set forth in the said Act for the preparation of jury lists; and that it is further provided by section 2 of the said Act that "without prejudice to the powers conferred by section 1 of the Sex Disqualification (Removal) Act, 1919, the High Court of Justiciary by Act of Adjournal . . . may make any regulations necessary to carry this Act into effect as regards criminal . . . jury trials . . . and may by such regulations adapt the provisions of any enactment so as to make them conform with this Act"; and CONSIDERING that it is expedient that such regulations should be made accordingly:—

DO THEREFORE, by virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said last-recited Act, hereby make and enact the following:—

REGULATIONS.

- I. In every Act or Act of Adjournal in force at the date of the enactment hereof relating to jury trial in criminal cases in Scotland, and in particular in the several Acts and sections thereof enumerated in the First schedule hereto, there shall be substituted (unless the context otherwise requires) for the words "man," "men," "jurymen," and "jurymen" respectively, wherever occurring in such Acts the words "person," "persons," "juror," or "jurors" as the case may require: and such Acts shall (except as aforesaid) be hereafter read and construed as if said words were respectively substituted as herein provided for.
- II. The words enumerated in the second column of the Second schedule hereto, respectively contained in the several Acts and sections thereof enumerated in the first column of said schedule, are hereby repealed, and said Acts and sections shall hereafter be read and construed accordingly.

- III. In the several Acts and sections thereof enumerated in the first column of the Third schedule hereto, there shall be inserted the words respectively enumerated in the second column of said schedule immediately before the words in said Acts and sections respectively specified in the third column of said schedule: and the said Acts and sections thereof shall hereafter be read and construed accordingly.
- IV. The Sheriff of each county shall so soon as may be after the first day of January 1921, and in any case prior to the sixteenth day of February 1921, make up a roll of persons within his county who are qualified and liable to serve as jurors according to the law and practice heretofore in use, as amended by The Sex Disqualification (Removal) Act, 1919, The Jurors (Enrolment of Women) (Scotland) Act, 1920, and this Act of Adjournal; and shall enter the names of the persons on such roll in "general" and "special" jury books as the case may be, conform to the law and practice heretofore in use as the same is amended and applied by the said Acts and this Act of Adjournal: and in making any returns of jurors required by law the said Sheriffs shall make the same thereafter from the rolls and books so prepared and in force for the time being: and new lists shall from time to time be prepared by said Sheriffs as provided by section 1 (2) of the said Jurors (Enrolment of Women) (Scotland) Act, 1920.
- V. This Act of Adjournal shall come into operation on the date hereof, and shall be printed and published in the Edinburgh Gazette.
