DANGEROUS DRUGS.

REGULATIONS, DATED 20TH MAY 1921, MADE BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE UNDER SECTION 3 OF THE DANGEROUS DRUGS ACT, 1920 (10 & 11 GEO. 5, CH. 46), FOR CONTROLLING AND RESTRICTING THE POSSESSION, SALE, AND DISTRIBUTION OF RAW OPIUM.

In pursuance of Section 3 of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1920, I hereby make the following Regulations:—

Sale and Distribution.

1. No person shall supply or procure, or offer to supply or procure, raw opium to or for any person whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, or shall advertise raw opium for sale—

(a) unless he is licensed by the Secretary of State or is authorised by these Regulations or by any authority granted by the Secretary of State to supply raw opium, or unless he is licensed by the Secretary of State to import or export raw opium, or

(b) otherwise than in accordance with the terms and conditions of such licence or authority.

2. No person shall supply or procure, or offer to supply or procure, raw opium to or for any person who is not licensed or otherwise authorised to be in possession of raw opium nor to any person so licensed or authorised except in accordance with the terms and conditions of such licence or authority.

Possession.

3. No person shall be in possession of raw opium unless—

(a) he is licensed to import or export raw opium, or

(b) he is licensed or otherwise authorised to supply raw opium, or

(c) he is otherwise licensed by the Secretary of State or authorised by these Regulations or by any authority granted by the Secretary of State to be in possession of raw opium.

Records.

4. Every person who supplies raw opium shall comply with the following provisions:—

(a) He shall enter or cause to be entered in a register kept for the sole purpose all supplies of raw opium purchased or otherwise obtained by him, and all dealings in raw opium effected by him (including sales or supplies to persons outside the United Kingdom) in the form and containing the particulars shown in the Schedule to these Regulations;

(b) he shall make the entry with respect to any raw opium purchased or otherwise obtained by him on the day on which it is received and with respect to any sale or supply by him of raw opium on the day on which the transaction is effected; or where that is not reasonably convenient on the day following the day on which the raw opium is received or the transaction is effected;

(c) where he carries on business at more than one set of premises he shall keep a separate register in respect of each set of premises;

(d) he shall keep the register in some part of the premises to which it relates so that it shall at all times be available for inspection in accordance with the provisions of the Act;

(e) he shall not cancel, obliterate, or alter any entry in the register or make therein any entry which is untrue in any particular. Any mistake in an entry may be corrected by a marginal note or foot-note giving the correct particulars and dated.

General Authorisation.

5. Any duly qualified medical practitioner, or any person lawfully keeping open shop for the retailing of poisons in accordance with the provisions of the Pharmacy Act, 1868, as amended by the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, or any person employed or engaged in dispensing medicines at any public hospital or other public institution being a person duly registered under the Pharmacy Act, 1868, as amended by the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, or any Registered veterinary surgeon or any person in charge of a laboratory for purposes of research or instruction attached to any University, University College, public hospital or other institution approved by the Secretary of State for the purpose, or any person appointed by a local authority with the approval of the Minister of Health as an analyst for the purposes of the Sale of Food and Drugs Acts, 1875 to 1907, is hereby authorised so far as is necessary for the practice of his profession or employment in such capacity to be in possession of and supply raw opium, but subject always to the provisions of the foregoing regulation.

6. In the event of any person authorised by these Regulations or by any authority granted by the Secretary of State to be in possession of or supply raw opium being convicted of an offence against the Act or an offence under the enactments relating to the Customs as applied by the Act the Secretary of State may by notice in the London, Edinburgh or Dublin Gazette withdraw the authorisation aforesaid in respect of such person if in the opinion of the Secretary of State such person cannot properly be allowed to be in possession of or supply raw opium.

Delivery to Messengers.

7. No person shall deliver any raw opium to any person not licensed or otherwise authorised to be in possession of raw opium who purports to be sent by or on behalf of a person so licensed or authorised unless such person produces an authority in writing, signed by the person so licensed or authorised, to receive the raw opium on his behalf and unless the person supplying the raw opium is satisfied that the authority is genuine.

Meaning of "Possession."

8. Raw opium in the order or disposition of any person shall, for the purpose of these Regulations, be deemed to be in his possession.

Application to Ireland.

9. In the application of these Regulations to Ireland a reference to the Poisons (Ireland) Act, 1870, the Pharmacy (Ireland) Act, 1875, and the Pharmacy (Ireland) Act, 1875 (Amendment) Act, 1890, shall be substituted for any reference to the Pharmacy Act, 1868.

Commencement.

10. These Regulations shall come into force on the 1st day of September 1921.

EDWARD SHORTT,
One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,

DANGEROUS DRUGS.

REGULATIONS, DATED 20TH MAY 1921, MADE BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE UNDER SECTION 7 OF THE DANGEROUS DRUGS ACT, 1920 (10 & 11 GEO. 5 CH. 46), FOR CONTROLLING THE MANUFACTURE, SALE, POSSESSION AND DISTRIBUTION OF MORPHINE, COCAINE, ECGONINE AND DIAMORPHINE (COMMONLY KNOWN AS HEROIN) AND THEIR RESPECTIVE SALTS, AND MEDICINAL OPIUM, AND PREPARATIONS AND SUBSTANCES CONTAINING NOT LESS THAN ONE-FIFTH PER CENT. OF MORPHINE OR ONE-TENTH PER CENT. OF COCAINE, ECGONINE OR DIAMORPHINE.

In pursuance of Section 7 of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1920, I hereby make the following Regulations:—

Application.

1. The drugs to which these Regulations apply are morphine, cocaine, ecgonine, and diamorphine (commonly known as heroin), and their respective salts, and medicinal opium, and any preparation, admixture, extract or other substance containing not less than one-fifth per cent. of morphine or one-tenth per cent. of cocaine, ecgonine or diamorphine.

For the purpose of the foregoing provision, the percentage in the case of morphine shall be calculated as in respect of anhydrous morphine Manufacture.

2. No person shall manufacture or carry on any process in the manufacture of morphine, cocaine, ecgonine or diamorphine, or their respective salts or medicinal opium—

(a) unless he is licensed by the Secretary of State or is authorised by these Regulations or by any authority granted by the Secretary of State to do so;

(b) except on premises licensed for the purpose by the Secretary of State;

(c) otherwise than in accordance with the terms and conditions of such licence or authority.

Sale and Distribution.

3. No person shall supply or procure or offer to supply or procure any of the drugs to or for any person whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere or shall advertise any of the drugs for sale—

(a) unless he is licensed by the Secretary of State or is authorised by these Regulations or by any authority granted by the Secretary of State to supply the drug or unless he is licensed by the Secretary of State to import or export the drug or unless he is licensed or otherwise authorised to manufacture the drug or

(b) otherwise than in accordance with the terms and conditions of such licence or authority.

4. Except when the drugs are lawfully dispensed in pursuance of a prescription given by a duly qualified medical practitioner, registered dentist or registered veterinary surgeon, or are supplied by a duly qualified medical practitioner or registered veterinary surgeon who dispenses his own medicines, in accordance with the conditions hereinafter specified, no person shall supply or procure or offer to supply or procure any of the drugs to or for any person in the United Kingdom who is not licensed or otherwise authorised to be in possession of the drug nor to any person so licensed or authorised except in accordance with the terms and conditions of such licence or authority.

Provided that administration of the drugs by or under the direct personal supervision of a duly qualified medical practitioner, or by or under the direct personal supervision of a registered dentist in dental treatment, or by or under the direct personal supervision of a registered veterinary surgeon in the treatment of any animal, shall not be deemed to be supplying the drug within the meaning of this and the following Regulations.

Conditions as to the Giving and Dispensing of Prescriptions.

5. A prescription for the supply of the drugs must comply with the following conditions:—

The prescription must be in writing, must be dated and signed by the medical practitioner, registered dentist or registered veterinary surgeon as the case may be, with his full name and address, and must specify the name and address of the person for whose use the prescription is given, and the total amount of the drug to be supplied on the prescription, except that in the case of prescriptions issued for national health insurance purposes on the form provided by the Insurance Committee the medical practitioner's address need not be marked on the prescription.

A prescription shall only be given by a registered dentist for the purposes of dental treatment and shall be marked "For local dental treatment only."

A prescription shall only be given by a registered veterinary surgeon for the purposes of treatment of animals and shall be marked "For animal treatment only."

The Secretary of State may prescribe and issue a form hereinafter referred to as the "official form" for use in giving prescriptions for the drugs, and in that case a prescription for any of the drugs shall only be given on an official form or in the case of prescriptions issued for national health insurance purposes on the form provided by the Insurance Committee, provided that in a case of emergency when the person giving the prescription has not the official form available, the prescription may be given without using the official form, but in that case shall be marked with the words "Official Form not available" or similar words.

A medical practitioner, registered dentist or registered veterinary surgeon shall not give any prescription for the supply of any of the drugs otherwise than in accordance with the foregoing conditions.

A medical practitioner who dispenses any medicines to which these Regulations apply shall enter particulars thereof in his day book or in the register hereinafter specified.

6. The following conditions shall be observed by persons dispensing prescriptions for the drugs:—

(a) If an official form is prescribed and issued by the Secretary of State in pursuance of the foregoing Regulation, a prescription for any of the drugs shall only be dispensed if the prescription is on one of those forms or on the form provided for national health insurance purposes by the Insurance Committee, or in the case of an emergency prescription given under the conditions specified in the foregoing Regulation, if the person dispensing the prescription is acquainted with the signature of the medical practitioner, registered dentist, or registered veterinary surgeon by whom the prescription purports to be given, or is acquainted with the person for whose use the prescription is given and has no reason to suppose that the prescription is not genuine;

(b) the drugs shall not be supplied more than once on the same prescription: Provided that, if the prescription so directs, the drugs may be supplied on more than one but not exceeding three occasions, as directed in the prescription, at intervals to be specified in the prescription;

(c) the prescription shall be marked with the date on which it is dispensed, and shall be retained by the person, firm, or body corporate by whom the prescription is dispensed, and (unless issued for national health insurance purposes on the form provided by the Insurance Committee) shall be kept on the premises where it is dispensed and shall be available for inspection.

Possession.

7. No person shall be in possession of any of the drugs unless—

(a) he is licensed to import or export the drug, or

(b) he is licensed or otherwise authorised to manufacture or supply the drug, or

(c) he is otherwise licensed by the Secretary of State or authorised by these Regulations or by any authority granted by the Secretary of State to be in possession of the drug, or

(d) he proves that the drug was supplied for his use by a duly qualified medical practitioner or registered veterinary surgeon or on and in accordance with such a prescription as aforesaid.

Marking of Packages or Bottles.

8.—(i) No person shall supply any morphine, cocaine, ecgonine, diamorphine or their respective salts or any medicinal opium unless the package or bottle containing it is plainly marked with the amount of the drug in the package or bottle.

(ii) No person shall supply any preparation, admixture, extract, or other substance containing any of these last-mentioned drugs and coming within these Regulations unless the package or bottle is plainly marked

(a) in the case of a powder, solution, or ointment, with the total amount thereof in the package or bottle and the percentage of the drug in the powder, solution, or ointment;

(b) in the case of tablets or other articles with the amount of the drug in each article and the number of articles in the package or bottle.

This Regulation shall not apply to any preparation dispensed by a duly qualified medical practitioner or on the prescription of a duly qualified medical practitioner.

Records.

9. Every person who supplies any of the drugs shall comply with the following provisions:—

(a) he shall enter or cause to be entered in a register kept for the sole purpose all supplies of the drug purchased or otherwise obtained by him and all dealings in the drug effected by him (including sales or supplies to persons outside the United Kingdom) in the form and containing the particulars shown in Schedule I. to these Regulations;

(b) separate registers or separate parts of the register shall be used for (a) cocaine and ecgonine and substances containing them, (b) morphine and substances containing it, (c) diamorphine and substances containing it, (d) medicinal opium; provided that with the approval of the Secretary of State separate registers may be kept for separate departments of a business;

(c) he shall make the entry with respect to any of the drugs purchased or otherwise obtained by him on the day on which the drug is received and with respect to any sale or supply by him of the drug on the day on which the transaction is effected; or where that is not reasonably convenient on the day following the day on which the drug is received or the transaction is effected.

(d) where he carries on business at more than one set of premises he shall keep a separate register or registers in respect of each set of premises;

(e) he shall keep the register or registers in some part of the premises to which it relates so that it shall at all times be available for inspection in accordance with the provisions of the Act;

(f) he shall not cancel, obliterate, or alter any entry in the register or make therein any entry which is untrue in any particular. Any mistake in an entry may be corrected by a marginal note or footnote giving the correct particulars and dated;

(g) he shall furnish to the Secretary of State or to any person authorised by any order of the Secretary of State for the purpose all information in regard to any purchases by him of the drugs, all stocks held by him of the drugs, and all transactions effected by him in the drugs as may be required by the Secretary of State for the purpose of seeing that the provisions of the Act are observed.

A duly qualified medical practitioner who records in a day book particulars of any of the drugs supplied by him to any patient, together with the name and address of the patient and date of the supply, may, in lieu of keeping the register required by this Regulation of drugs sold or supplied by him, enter separately for each of the drugs in a book to be kept for the purpose references under the appropriate dates to the records in the day book of any supply of the drug. A person lawfully keeping open shop for the retailing of poisons in accordance with the provisions of the Pharmacy Act, 1868, as amended by the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, may, in lieu of keeping the register required by this Regulation of drugs sold or supplied by him, enter separately for each of the drugs in a book to be kept for the purpose references under the appropriate dates to the entries in the "Poisons Book" or "Prescription Book" kept by him in pursuance of Section 17 of the Pharmacy Act, 1868, relating to any supply of the drugs. Provided that all such books shall at all times be available for inspection in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

General Authorisations.

10. Any person lawfully keeping open shop for the retailing of poisons in accordance with the provisions of the Pharmacy Act, 1868, as amended by the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, is hereby authorised—

(a) to manufacture at the shop in the ordinary course of his retail business any preparation, admixture or extract of any of the drugs;

(b) to carry on at the shop the business of retailing, dispensing or compounding the drugs, but subject always to the provisions of these Regulations.

In the event of any such person being convicted of an offence against the Act or of an offence under the enactments relating to the Customs as applied by the Act, the Secretary of State may by notice in the London, Edinburgh or Dublin Gazette withdraw the authorisation aforesaid, if, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, such person cannot properly be allowed to carry on the business of manufacturing or selling or distributing as the case may be, any such drug; provided that the Secretary of State shall, before withdrawing the authorisation in the case of any such person, consult the Council of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain.

11. Any duly qualified medical practitioner, or any registered dentist, or any registered veterinary surgeon or any person employed or engaged in dispensing medicines at any public hospital or other public institution, being a person duly registered under the Pharmacy Act, 1868, as amended by the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, or any person in charge of a laboratory for purposes of research or instruction attached to any University, University College, public hospital or other institution approved by the Secretary of State for the purpose, or any person appointed by a local authority with the approval of the Minister of Health as an analyst for the purposes of the Sale of Food and Drugs Acts, 1875 to 1907, is hereby authorised so far as is necessary for the practice of his profession or employment in such capacity to be in possession of and supply the drugs.

12. In the event of any person authorised by these Regulations or by any authority granted by the Secretary of State to manufacture, supply or be in possession of the drugs, or any of them, being convicted of any offence against the Act or of an offence under the enactments relating to the Customs as applied by the Act, the Secretary of State may, by notice in the London, Edinburgh or Dublin Gazette, withdraw the authorisation in respect of such person, if, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, such person cannot properly be allowed to manufacture, supply or be in possession of any such drug.

Delivery to Messengers.

13. No person shall deliver any of the drugs to any person not licensed or otherwise authorised to be in possession of the drugs who purports to be sent by or on behalf of a person so licensed or authorised, unless such person produces an authority in writing, signed by the person so licensed or authorised, to receive the drug on his behalf, and unless the person supplying the drug is satisfied that the authority is genuine. This Regulation shall not be deemed to apply to medicines dispensed in pursuance of the foregoing Regulations.

Meaning of "Possession."

14. Any of the drugs in the order or disposition of any person shall be deemed to be in his possession.

Ships.

15. In the case of a ship not carrying as part of her complement a duly qualified medical practitioner, the master of the ship shall be deemed to be a person authorised to be in possession of the drugs so far as is necessary to comply with the requirements of the Merchant Shipping Acts, and it shall also be lawful for him, subject to any conditions prescribed by the Secretary of State, to administer and supply the drugs to any member of the crew in accordance with instructions prepared or sanctioned by the Board of Trade. The keeping of a record of the use of the drugs in the official log in accordance with the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Acts shall be deemed to be compliance with the requirements of these Regulations as to the keeping of records.

Hospitals.

16. The Secretary of State may exempt from the operation of these Regulations any hospital or other public institution subject to the observance of such conditions as he may by order prescribe.

Preparations exempted from the Regulations.

17. These regulations shall not apply in respect of the preparations named in Schedule II. to these Regulations nor to any of the drugs when denatured in a manner approved by the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State may from time to time by order add any other preparation to the Schedule or remove any preparation from the Schedule.

Application to Ireland.

18. In the application of these regulations to Ireland:—

(a) A reference to the Poisons (Ireland) Act, 1870, the Pharmacy (Ireland) Act, 1875, and the Pharmacy (Ireland) Act, 1875 (Amendment) Act, 1890, shall be substituted for any reference to the Pharmacy Act, 1868, and

(b) A reference to the Pharmaceutical Society of Ireland shall be substituted for the reference to the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain.

Commencement.

19. These Regulations shall come into force on the 1st day of September 1921.

PART II.

PROPOSED VARIATION OF PIECE-WORK BASIS TIME-RATES FOR MALE AND FEMALE WORKERS (OTHER THAN HOME-WORKERS).

	Piece-Work Basis Time-Rate.
	At present fixed. Per hour. s. d.	Proposed. Per hour. s. d.
SECTION I.—For Male Workers employed in Stamping, Burnishing, Spinning, Dipping, Staining, Turning, or Cutting (other than Cutting on Wet Lathes)	1 10½	1 7½
In the case of all Male Workers employed on Piece-Work in Stamping, Burnishing, Spinning, Dipping, Staining, Sawing, Turning, or Cutting (other than Cutting on Wet Lathes), each Piece-Rate paid must be such as would yield, in the circumstances of the case, not less than 1s. 7½d. per hour to an ordinary male worker (i.e. , a male worker of ordinary skill and experience in these processes).
SECTION II.—Female Workers (other than Home-Workers)	0 10	0 8½
In the case of all Female Workers (other than Home-Workers) employed on Piece-Work, each Piece-Rate must be such as would yield, in the circumstances of the case, not less than 8½d. per hour to an ordinary Female Worker (i.e. , a Female Worker of ordinary skill and experiences in the circumstances in question).

PART III.

PROPOSED VARIATION OF OVERTIME RATES FOR MALE AND FEMALE WORKERS (OTHER THAN HOME-WORKERS).

SECTION I.—In accordance with Section 3 (1) (3) of the Trade Boards Act, 1918, the Trade Board propose to declare for the purpose of the application of the proposed Overtime Rates set out in Section II. of this Part of this Schedule the normal number of hours of work in the trade to be as follows :—

In any week	48
On Saturday	5

Provided that all hours worked on Sundays and on Customary Public and Statutory Holidays shall be regarded as Overtime, to which the Overtime Rates shall apply.

SECTION II.—Overtime Rates calculated on the proposed Minimum Rates of Wages specified in Parts I. and II. of this Schedule in the manner specified below, shall apply in substitution for the proposed minimum rates set out in Parts I. and II. of this Schedule in respect of all hours worked in excess of the normal number of hours of work in the trade proposed to be declared by the Trade Board as set out in Section I. of this Part of this Schedule, that is to say :—

(a) Male and Female Workers employed on Time-Work :—

(1) For all hours worked on Sundays and on Customary Public and Statutory Holidays the Overtime Rate shall be twice the General Minimum Time-Rate applicable, i.e., Double time.

Provided that the said Overtime Rate shall not apply—

- (i) In respect of time worked on Good Friday in the case of workers who are given Easter Tuesday as a holiday in lieu of Good Friday ; or
- (ii) In respect of time worked on Easter Tuesday in the case of workers who are given Good Friday as a holiday in lieu of Easter Tuesday.

(2) For all hours worked in excess of five on Saturdays, the Overtime Rate shall be one-and-a-quarter times the General Minimum Time-Rate applicable, i.e., Time-and-a-Quarter, except in so far as higher Overtime Rates are payable under the provisions of paragraph (1) of sub-section (a) of this Section.

(3) For all hours worked in excess of 48 in any week, the Overtime Rate shall be one-and-a-quarter times the General Minimum Time-Rate applicable, i.e., Time-and-a-Quarter, except in so far as higher Overtime Rates are payable under the provisions of paragraph (1) of sub-section (a) of this Section.

(b) Female Workers employed on Piece-Work :—

Female Workers employed on Piece-Work shall receive, in respect of each hour worked in excess of 48 hours in any week, in addition to payment at Piece-Rates each of which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, at least 8½d. per hour to an ordinary worker, the sum of 1d. per hour.

PART IV.

The above Proposed Minimum Rates of Wages shall apply, subject to the provisions of the Trade Boards Acts, to all workers specified in Parts I. and II. above in respect of all time during which they are employed in any branch of the trade specified in the Trade Boards (Button-Making) Order, 1919, that is to say :—

The manufacture of buttons, button-moulds, upholsterers' buttons or upholsterers' button-headed nails (excluding the shanks), from any material by the processes of cutting, sawing, stamping, pressing, turning, drilling, fancying, grinding, barrelling, polishing, japanning, lacquering, dyeing, colouring, painting, varnishing, sewing, crocheting, or the covering of button-moulds ;

Including—

- (a) The manufacture of studs, links, or parts thereof, from any material other than metal, where such manufacture is carried on in association with or in conjunction with button-making, so as to provide a common or interchangeable form of employment for workers ;
- (b) The manufacture of shanks for buttons where carried on in association with or in conjunction with button-making ;
- (c) The carding of any of the above articles, wherever carried on ;
- (d) All despatching, packing, warehousing, or other operations incidental to or appertaining to the manufacture of any of the above articles ;

But excluding—

- (e) The manufacture of wooden button-moulds ;
- (f) The covering of button-moulds where carried on in association with or in conjunction with the making of wearing apparel.

Provided that the above Proposed Minimum Rates shall not apply to Home-Workers.

The Trade Board will consider any Objections to the above Proposals to Vary which may be lodged with them within two months from 24th May 1921. Such Objections should be in writing and signed by the person making the same (adding his or her full name and address), and should be sent to the Secretary of the Button-Making Trade Board (Great Britain), 7-11 Old Bailey, London, E.C. 4.

It is desirable that Objections should state precisely, and so far as possible with reasons, what is objected to.

Dated this twenty-third day of May 1921.

Signed by Order of the Trade Board.

F. POPPLEWELL, Secretary.

Office of Trade Boards,
7-11 Old Bailey, London, E.C. 4.
