The following Agreement regarding the mutual settlement of questions arising out of the sequestration of property in Great Britain and Belgium has been concluded by the Governments of the two countries by means of an Exchange of Notes, and came into force on the 8th August last. The French text of the Agreement was published in the Moniteur Belge of the 16th September :—

Agreement.

The Sequestration Authorities of each of the two countries will remit to the nationals of the other country, as to their own nationals, the shares of which the latter are owners, and which are included in the sequestrated property under their control, on condition that the said owners establish in every legal way their ownership of these shares, and that they have no debts payable to the sequestrated establishment. In case of need the British Government would be satisfied with an attestation emanating from the German Directorate of the sequestrated establishment that no sum is due on the shares since the 1st August 1914. -

In the case of securities deposited with London branches of enemy banks, the Certificate furnished by the claimant will be required (a) to be signed or counter-signed by a responsible official of the Head Office of the enemy bank, and (b) to state that the securities had not at any time during the period of the war been subject to a lien or charge in favour of a German or other former enemy subject.
