TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1921.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, 22nd November 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Archbishop of Canterbury.
 Lord Chancellor.
 Prime Minister.
 Lord Chamberlain.
 Mr. Secretary Shortt.

HIS MAJESTY was this day pleased to declare His Consent to a Contract of Matrimony between His Most Dearly Beloved Daughter Her Royal Highness Princess Victoria Alexandra Alice Mary and Henry George Charles Lascelles, commonly called Viscount Lascelles, which Consent His Majesty has caused to be signified under the Great Seal and to be entered in the Books of the Privy Council.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of November 1921.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 91 of the Patent and Designs Act, 1907 (7 Edw. 7, c. 29) as amended by the Patents and Designs Act, 1914 (4 & 5 Geo. 5, c. 18), and the Patents and Designs Act, 1919 (9 & 10 Geo. 5, c. 80), it is enacted as follows:—

“ 91. (1) If His Majesty is pleased to make any arrangement with the Government of any Foreign State for mutual protection of inventions, or designs, or trade marks, then any person who has applied for protection for any invention, design or trade mark in that State, or his legal representative or assignee, shall be entitled to a patent for his invention or to registration of his design or trade mark under this Act or the Trade Marks Act, 1905, in priority to other applicants; and the patent or registration shall have the same date as the date of the application in the Foreign State.

“ Provided that—

“ (a) The application is made in the case of a patent within 12 months, and in the case of a design or trade mark within 4 months, from the application for protection in the Foreign State; and

“ (b) Nothing in this Section shall entitle the patentee or proprietor of the design or trade mark to recover damages for infringements happening prior to the actual date on which his complete specification is accepted, or his design or trade mark is registered, in this country.

“ (2) The patent granted for the invention or the registration of a design or trade mark shall not be invalidated:—

“ (a) In the case of a patent, by reason only of the publication of a description of, or use of, the invention; or

“(b) In the case of a design, by reason only of the exhibition or use of, or the publication of a description or representation of, the design; or in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man during the period specified in this Section as that within which the application may be made.

“(c) In the case of a trade mark, by reason only of the use of the trade mark;

“(3) The application for the grant of a patent, or the registration of a design, or the registration of a trade mark under this Section, must be made in the same manner as an ordinary application under this Act or the Trade Marks Act, 1905:—

“Provided that—

“(a) In the case of patents the application shall be accompanied by a complete specification, which, if it is not accepted within the 12 months from the application for protection in the Foreign State, shall with the drawings (if any) be open to public inspection at the expiration of that period; and

“(b) In the case of trade marks, any trade mark the registration of which has been duly applied for in the country of origin may be registered under the Trade Marks Act, 1905.

“(4) The provisions of this Section shall apply only in the case of those Foreign States with respect to which His Majesty by Order in Council declares them to be applicable, and so long only in the case of each State as the Order in Council continues in force with respect to that State.

“(5) Where it is made to appear to His Majesty that the Legislature of any British Possession has made satisfactory provision for the protection of inventions, designs, or trade marks, patented or registered in this country, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to apply the provisions of this Section to that Possession, with such variations or additions, if any, as may be stated in the Order.”

And whereas by Section 103 of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1883, as amended by Section 6 of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act (Amendment) Act, 1885, and by Section 1 of the Patents Act, 1901, and since repealed by Section 98 of the said Patents and Designs Act, 1907, provisions were made to the same or like effect as those above set forth as contained in Section 91 of the last-mentioned Act, and by the said Section 98 it was provided that “this repeal shall not affect any Convention, Order in Council, Rule, or Table of Fees having effect under any enactment so repealed, but any such Convention, Order in Council, Rules, or Table of Fees in force at the commencement of this Act shall continue in force, and may be repealed, altered or amended, as if it had been made under this Act”:

And whereas it pleased Her late Majesty Queen Victoria to make an arrangement of the nature contemplated by the said Section 103, and in virtue of a Declaration signed and sealed by Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, on the 17th March 1884, duly conveying the accession of Great Britain and Ireland to the International Convention and Protocol for the protection of Industrial Property, signed by Representatives of certain Powers on the 20th March 1883, and duly ratified on the 6th June 1884, power being reserved to Her Majesty to accede thereafter to the provisions of the said Convention and Protocol on behalf of the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands, and any of Her Majesty's Possessions, which Declaration of Accession was duly accepted by the French Government on behalf of the Signatory Powers by and in virtue of a Declaration dated the 2nd April 1884:

And whereas on the 14th December 1900, at Brussels, an Additional Act was agreed upon between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the Heads of the Foreign Countries parties thereto for the purpose of modifying certain of the provisions of the said International Convention and the Protocol annexed thereto, the ratification of which Additional Act was duly effected:

And whereas by a Convention signed at Washington on the 2nd June 1911, His Majesty and the Heads of the Foreign States named therein agreed to make certain modifications in and additions to the said Convention dated 20th March 1883, as revised at Brussels on the 14th December 1900, the ratification of which Convention was duly effected by Great Britain and certain other States:

And whereas by various Orders in Council Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and His late Majesty King Edward VII. and His present Majesty have been pleased to declare that the hereinbefore mentioned provisions of the said Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1883 (as amended), should apply to the several Foreign Countries named in the said Orders parties to the said Convention and Protocol:

And whereas the Free City of Danzig has acceded to the said International Convention, Protocol and Additional Act as revised at Washington on 2nd June 1911:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers in Him vested by the above-recited provisions, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth declare, and it is hereby declared, as follows:—

1. The provisions of Section 91 of the Patents and Designs Act, 1907 as amended by the Patents and Designs Act, 1914, and the Patents and Designs Act, 1919, shall apply to the Free City of Danzig.

2. This Order shall take effect from the 21st November 1921.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

War Office,
25th November 1921.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned:—

No. 1012 Sepoy Ishar Singh, 28th Punjabis, Indian Army.

For most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty on the 10th April 1921, near Haidari

Kach (Waziristan). When the convoy protection troops were attacked, this Sepoy was No. 1 of a Lewis Gun Section. Early in the action he received a very severe gunshot wound in the chest, and fell beside his Lewis gun. Hand-to-hand fighting having commenced, the British officer, Indian officer, and all the Havildars of his company were either killed or wounded, and his Lewis gun was seized by the enemy.

Calling up two other men, he got up, charged the enemy, recovered the Lewis gun, and, although bleeding profusely, again got the gun into action.

When the Jhadar arrived he took the gun from Sepoy Ihar Singh and ordered him to go back and have his wounds dressed. Instead of doing this the Sepoy went to the medical officer and was of great assistance in putting out the world were, and in carrying water to them. He made innumerable journeys to the river and back for this purpose. On one occasion when the enemy fire was very heavy, he took the rifle of a wounded man and helped to keep down the fire. On another occasion he stood in front of the medical officer who was dressing a wounded man, thus shielding him with his body. It was over three hours before he finally submitted to be evacuated, being then too weak from loss of blood to object.

His gallantry and devotion to duty were beyond praise. His conduct inspired all who saw him.

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE ACTS,
1920-1921.

DECISIONS OF THE HIGH COURT ON REFERENCES MADE UNDER SECTION 10 (1) OF THE 1920 ACT.

Contributions not Payable.

On the 22nd November the Minister referred to the High Court for decision the questions whether persons employed as—

1. Porter, to clean a hospital, deliver messages and to answer calls;
2. River-keeper on a private estate;
3. Attendant at a museum to open and close the galleries, and to dust and keep tidy the objects exhibited;
4. Trainer of greyhounds, by the owner of a private kennel of greyhounds;
5. Game-keeper on a private estate;
6. Huntsman, first whip, second whip and stableman, and kennelman, all employed by the Master of a Hunt on behalf of the Hunt Committee;
7. Porter, to take charge of the entrance lodge at a Hospital and to record the names of all visitors to the patients;
8. Stores porter at a Hospital, to supervise the issue and receipt of all stores and the cutting up of all meat;
9. Stoker in an engine house, by the Governors of a college, to provide hot water, lighting and heating for the residential buildings;

10. Dairymaid on the home farm of a large private estate ;

11. Green-keeper of a members' golf club ; were or were not employed persons within the meaning of the Act of 1920.

The Judge held that the first nine persons employed as indicated above were excepted from liability to insurance as being employed in domestic service within the meaning of paragraph (b) of Part II. of the First Schedule to the Act of 1920, and that the employment of the green-keeper was excepted as being employment in horticulture within the meaning of paragraph (a) of Part II. of the First Schedule to the Act of 1920. The employment of the dairymaid was held by the Judge to be employment in domestic service and in agriculture and therefore excepted under both paragraphs (a) and (b) referred to above.

Consequently no contributions under the Act are payable in respect of any of the persons so employed.

Contributions Payable.

On the same date the Minister also referred for decision the question whether persons employed as—

12. Driver of a motor lorry, by a farmer and market gardener, to carry vegetables from the market garden to stalls and to convey town manure to the farm and market gardens on the return journey ;

13. Private secretary, by the owner of a large private estate ;

14. Painter, by a college, in the upkeep and repair of the inside and outside of the residential buildings ;

15. Cobbler, by the Governors of an Orphan Home and School, to repair the boots of the boy and girl inmates, were or were not employed persons within the meaning of the Act of 1920.

The Judge held that the employment of the motor lorry driver was not employment in agriculture, and was therefore not excepted under paragraph (a) of Part II. of the First Schedule to the Act of 1920 ; and that the employment of the secretary, painter, and cobbler was not employment in domestic service, and was therefore not excepted under paragraph (b) of Part II. of the First Schedule to the Act of 1920.

Consequently contributions under the Act are payable in respect of the persons so employed.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during the period 30th July 1920 to the 8th August 1920, during the withdrawal from Diwaniyeh to Hillah, and especially for his daring reconnaissances, firstly on the 1st August 1920, when he rode ahead of a cavalry screen into Guchan and, having arranged for co-operation with the garrison at that place, returned with very valuable information, and secondly, on the 4th August 1920, near Jerbuiyah, on which occasion he had to be called back owing to the danger of his being cut off by the enemy.

Awarded the Military Cross.

Lt. Charles Edgar Littledale, Lab. Corps.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during the attempt to relieve the garrison of Rowanduz, August 28th to 30th, 1920. Lt. Littledale, with one British subordinate, two Levy officers, and 20 Sowars, started from Erbil for Rowanduz on the 28th August. On the 30th August he was joined by another party of 15 Sowars and 62 infantry. With this party he gallantly attacked Batas, but met with great opposition. The greater part of his men were forced to retire, but one Arab officer and four men stood by Lt. Littledale, and with these he kept off the insurgents and covered the extrication of his force. Subsequently, although attacked from all sides by a force estimated at 400 rifles, he brought the majority of his party safely back to Erbil.

Awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal.

7817437 Pte. A. G. Fry, 5th Armd. Mot. Bty., M.G.C. (Bath).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in action east of Saidgi, N.W. Frontier, India, on the 13th June 1921. Pte. Fry was a reserve driver of an armoured car which had broken down about three miles east of Saidgi. The enemy had rushed the car and climbed on top of it, and attempted to kill the crew. The driver of the car was killed. The crew succeeded in driving off the enemy, who retired and took up a position under cover and continued to shoot at the car. Communication to Saidgi was impossible. The serjeant in charge of the car asked for a volunteer to get out of the car and proceed to Saidgi to report the situation. Pte. Fry volunteered for this duty, and under heavy fire left the car and proceeded to Saidgi, where he arrived in a very exhausted state. The information which he brought in did much to clear up the situation.
