

"2. Officers who are placed on the Retired List on account of non-service under the age of 40 years to be granted retired pay at the rate of £75 a year with an addition of £7, 10s. a year for each of the first six complete years of service, and an addition of £12, 10s. a year for each complete year of service subsequent thereto, in the ranks or corresponding ranks of Lieutenant and Lieutenant-Commander, the time of such Officers while on unemployed pay or half pay to count as one-third of full service for this purpose.

"3. Any such Officer previously retired for non-service under the age of 40 years who served during the recent war in any service capacity and who has not been relegated to the Retired List for misconduct to be eligible to have his retired pay reassessed on the above scale if such reassessment should be to his advantage.

"4. The above rates to be subject to review on or after the 1st July 1924."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of March 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Summer Time Act, 1916, as amended by the War Emergency Laws (Continuance) Act, 1920, it is provided that during the prescribed period in each year in which the first-named Act is in force the time for general purposes is to be one hour in advance of Greenwich Mean Time; and it is further provided that His Majesty may, in any year subsequent to the year 1916, by Order in Council made during the continuance of the late War and a period of twelve months after the termination thereof, declare the said Act to be in force during that year, and in such case the prescribed period for that year shall be such period as may be fixed by Order in Council:

And whereas, in pursuance of the Termination of the Present War (Definition) Act, 1918, His Majesty did, by Order in Council dated the 10th day of August 1921, declare that the 31st day of August 1921 should be treated as the date of the termination of the late War:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the Summer Time Act, 1916, as so amended as aforesaid, shall be in force during the year 1922, and the prescribed period in that year shall be from two o'clock in the morning, Greenwich Mean Time, on Sunday the 26th day of March, until two o'clock in the morning, Greenwich Mean Time, on Sunday the 8th day of October.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of March 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 11 of the Revenue Act, 1909, it is enacted that His Majesty, by Order in Council, may fix the fees payable in respect of licences for the importation of explosives granted by the Secretary of State under or in pursuance of the Explosives Act, 1875, and may revoke, alter or add to any such Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and declare, and be it ordered and declared, as follows:—

In respect of every importation licence granted by the Secretary of State in pursuance of the provisions of Section 40, sub-section (9), of the Explosives Act, 1875, there shall be paid a fee of Two Pounds (£2) for each Two Thousand Pounds or part of Two Thousand Pounds allowed to be imported under the said Licence. Provided that in the case of a consignment of explosive imported for transhipment only and not for distribution in the United Kingdom only one-half of the foregoing fee shall be charged.

The Order in Council of the 9th day of October 1919 is hereby revoked.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of March 1922.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Part II. of the Administration of Justice Act, 1920, provision has been made for the reciprocal enforcement of judgments in the United Kingdom and in other parts of His Majesty's Dominions:

And whereas by the said Act it is amongst other things provided that where His Majesty is satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made by the Legislature of any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom for the enforcement within that part of His Dominions of judgments obtained in the High Court in England, the Court of Session in Scotland, and the High Court in Ireland, His Majesty may by Order in Council, declare that the said part of that Act shall extend to that part of His Dominions and that on any such Order being made the said part of that Act shall extend accordingly:

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that the Legislatures of the parts of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom hereinafter mentioned have made reciprocal provisions for the enforcement within those parts of judgments obtained in the High Court in England, the Court of Session in Scotland, and the High Court in Ireland:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the above recited Act in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Part II. of the Administration of Justice
