JUDICIAL SALE

OF SUBJECTS IN THE VILLAGE OF GORBALS, AND REGALTY OF GLASGOW. To be Sold by public roup, in presence of the Lord Ordinary officiating on the bills, within the Parliament or New Session House of Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 19th day of November next, betwixt the hours of four and six afternoon.

THE FOLLOWING SUBJECTS which belonged to the deceased WALTER SMITH, merchant in Gorbals of Glasgow, and now to PEDEN SMITH, weaver there:

Lot I.—Being a TENEMENT of HOUSES on the east side of the High Street of Gorbals, consisting of seven small dwelling-houses occupied by different tenants, at a cumulo rent of L. 12 Sterling, and to be exposed at the upset price of L. 180 Sterling.

Lot II.—Being a MALT KILN and PART of a YARD on the west side of the village of Gorbals, valued at L. 4 Sterling yearly, and to be exposed at the upset price of L. 60 Sterling.

Lot III.—A Waste STEADING of GROUND, consisting of about 150 square yards, lying on the north side of the High Street of Gorbals, the houses on which were formerly consumed by fire, and have not been rebuilt, but the steading will be exposed at 8s. per square yard, or L. 60 Sterling.

The proof of the rental, and value of these subjects was taken about six years ago, when property in the village of Gorbals was very low rented, and not near the value it has since risen to. The Subjects under sale being situated in the principal streets, are well worth the attention of builders, or others desirous of holding property in that flourishing village.

The feu-duty of Lot I. is only one pound Scots, and if does not appear that the other Subjects pay any feu-duty at all, and no ministers stipend or schoolmasters salary are exigible from any part of the Subjects.

The title-deeds and articles of roup will be seen in the office of Mr James Rose, depute clerk of Session; and further particulars will be learned by applying to Wm. Johnstone, folicitor, 14, Elder Street, Edinburgh.
