

Edinburgh Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FROM FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26. TO TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30. 1806.

At the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 24th of September 1806,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

It is this day ordered by his Majesty in Council, that the Parliament which stands prorogued to Thursday the ninth day of October next, be further prorogued to Wednesday the twenty-ninth day of October next.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Charles Grey, commonly called Lord Viscount Howick, to be one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, he was this day, by his Majesty's command, sworn one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.

DOWNING-STREET, SEPT. 25.

The King has been pleased to cause it to be signified by the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Howick, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to the Ministers of Friendly and Neutral Powers resident at this Court, that his Majesty having been pleased, on the 16th of May last, to direct that the necessary measures should be taken for the blockade of the coast, rivers, and ports from the river Elbe to the port of Brest, both inclusive; his Majesty is now pleased to declare, that so much of such blockade as extended from the river Elbe to the river Ems, both inclusive, is for the present discontinued; and that from the date hereof, the navigation of the coast, rivers, and ports from the river Elbe to the river Ems, both inclusive, is as free as if such blockade had not taken place.
