NOTICE

To the CREDITORS of ALEXANDER CUMING, Merchant in Balcraig.

THAT John Hawthorn, writer in Wigton, a creditor of the said Alexander Cuming, to the extent required by law, having applied to the Lord Ordinary officiating on the bills, and produced such evidence of the bankruptcy of the said Alexander Cuming, as is directed by the statute, his Lordship did, this day, sequestrate the whole estate of the said Alexander Cuming, and appointed his creditors to meet within the house of James Ross, in Port William, upon Tuesday the 28th day of October current, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of chusing an interim factor; and, at the same place and hour, upon Friday the 14th day of November next, to chuse a trustee upon the said sequestrated estate; of all which intimation is hereby given in terms of the statute.

15th OCTOBER 1806.

NOTICE

To the CREDITORS of DAVID THOMAS Merchant in Glasgow.

DAVID HAY, accountant in Glasgow, Trustee on Mr Thomas's Estate, hereby intimates to his creditors, that the Arbiters in a Submission, of which they have already been informed, having now given their award, whereby the full benefit of Mr Thomas's funds realized by the trustee, or which may yet be realized, is found to belong to them, a dividend will be paid in the trustee's Office, Post Office Court, Trongate, on Tuesday the fourth day of November next. Creditors who have not lodged with him affidavits and grounds of debt, are requested to do so before the first day of said month, otherwise they will not be included in the scheme of ranking he is preparing.

An account of his intromissions as Trustee has been audited by the Commissioners, which with states of the bankrupt's affairs lie in his hands for inspection by the creditors, who are requested to bring their bills along with them when they call to receive their dividends.
