BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, did, on the 13th day of October 1897, issue Her Royal Proclamation establishing a Branch of Our Royal Mint at Perth in Western Australia:

And whereas by the Melbourne Mint Proclamation, 1900, and the Sydney Mint Proclamation, 1900, similar provision was made for establishing Branch Mints at Melbourne in Victoria and at Sydney in New South Wales:

And whereas by the Australian Branch Mints Proclamation, 1916, the Deputy Masters of the Branch Mints established under the above-recited Proclamations were authorised, during the continuance of the then war and of a period of one year thereafter, to make payment for gold bullion brought to the Branch Mints, in manner provided by regulations made under proviso (d) of subsection (i) of Article 5 of each of the said Proclamations:

And whereas by the Australian Branch Mints (Amendment) Proclamation, 1922, the said authority was continued until the 31st day of August 1924:

And whereas it is expedient that the said authority should be further continued until the 31st day of August 1925:

Now, therefore, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, in pursuance of the Coinage Acts, 1870 and 1891, and all other powers enabling Us in that behalf, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby direct and ordain as follows:—

1. The Australian Branch Mints Proclamation, 1916, as amended by the Australian Branch Mints (Amendment) Proclamation, 1922, shall have effect as though the words "during the period ending on the thirty-first day of August one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five" were substituted for the words "during the period ending on the thirty-first day of August one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four."

2. This Proclamation may be cited as the Australian Branch Mints (Amendment) Proclamation, 1924.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this Twenty-fifth day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, and in the Fifteenth year of Our Reign.

“And whereas it is provided by His late Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 28th day of March 1903 that the Naval Medical Officer holding the appointment of Director General of the Medical Department of the Navy may be granted, at our discretion, the relative rank of Vice Admiral if he should be an Inspector General of Hospitals and Fleets, now styled Surgeon Rear Admiral, and that of Rear Admiral if he should be of the rank of Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals and Fleets, now styled Surgeon Captain, and also that, after relinquishing the post of Director General, a Naval Medical Officer may be allowed, at our discretion, to assume on retirement from the Active List the relative Naval rank accorded to him by virtue of his service as Director General if not otherwise entitled to such rank:

“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 8th day of November 1918 to approve, inter alia, that the Medical Director General should have the rank and style of Surgeon Vice Admiral or Surgeon Rear Admiral according to whether he holds the relative rank of Vice Admiral or Rear Admiral under the Regulations then in force:

“And whereas we consider that the Medical Director General should be retired on vacating the appointment and should be allowed to retain on retirement any higher rank accorded to him in respect of the appointment and also receive retired pay appropriate to that rank:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by

Your Order in Council to provide that any Naval Medical Officer who may now or hereafter hold the post of Medical Director General shall:—

(1) be compulsorily retired on ceasing to hold the appointment;

(2) retain on retirement any higher rank which he may have been granted while holding the appointment;

(3) receive on retirement retired pay on the scale applicable to the rank held by him on the termination of his tenure of the appointment. The rule as regards retired pay to have retrospective effect as from the 1st April 1919, from which date the revised scales of pay for Officers of the Royal Navy were introduced.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

COLIN SMITH.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of July 1924.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 9th day of July 1924 (C.W. 1152/24), in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 15th day of August 1918 to approve the formation of a Special Reserve of Officers, Royal Marines:

“And whereas by paragraph 13 of the Schedule to the aforesaid Order in Council it is provided that Officers of the Special Reserve may be granted a Retaining Fee of £20 for each completed year of service in which training is performed:

“And whereas we are of opinion that Retaining Fees should not be payable to Officers in receipt of retired pay:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to direct that Officers of the Special Reserve of Officers, Royal Marines, of the undermentioned categories shall cease to be eligible to receive the annual Retaining Fee of £20, and further to authorise us to give the option to such Officers serving in the said Reserve, at the date of this Order, either of continuing to serve therein under the amended conditions prescribed by this Order, or of withdrawing therefrom:

(i) Warrant Officers and Non-Commissioned Officers granted Temporary Commissions during War.

(ii) Warrant Officers recommended by their Commanding Officers on discharge to pension as suitable to hold Commissions in case of emergency."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

COLIN SMITH.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of July 1924.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 14th day of July 1924 (C.W. 8311/23), in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council bearing date the 22nd day of January 1920 to sanction, inter alia, certain Regulations designed to bring the emoluments of Officers of the Royal Marines into conformity with those of Officers of the Royal Navy:—

"And whereas these Regulations provide that Officers of the Royal Marines shall be granted pay and retired pay at the rates applicable to Naval Officers on the basis of the relative rank held by the former when afloat, with certain modifications, but make no corresponding provisions for certain allowances payable to these Officers, the rates of which vary according to rank:

"And whereas we consider that, in accordance with the principle of assimilating the emoluments of Officers of the Royal Navy and the Royal Marines, such allowances payable to Officers of the Royal Marines should also be determinable in general by their relative rank when afloat, and not necessarily by their actual relative rank, and that the authority for the issue of allowances on this basis should be explicitly defined:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction such allowances of Officers; Royal Marines, being regulated according to their relative rank afloat, with the following exceptions, viz. :—

(a) Lieutenants, Royal Marines ex-Warrant Officers of under five years' seniority (other than Officers commissioned under Clause (1) of Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 11th day of February 1913), to be on the same scale as for Lieutenants, Royal Navy;

(b) Paymasters and Barrackmasters, Royal Marines, on promotion to the substantive rank of Lieutenant-Colonel after 12 years' service as Major, under Schedule V., Section I., Clause I. (IV.) of Order in Council of the 22nd January 1920, to remain on the scale for Majors.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

COLIN SMITH.
