

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of December 1924.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Scottish Board of Health has, under the provisions of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, as amended by the Scottish Board of Health Act, 1919, made a Representation that they have received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff of Aberdeen, Kincardine and Banff, dated the 2nd May 1924, finding that the old Churchyard of Fettercairn, adjoining the Parish Church of Fettercairn, in the Parish of Fettercairn and in the County of Kincardine, is dangerous to health, offensive and contrary to decency, and a nuisance within the meaning of the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, particularly Section 16 and Sub-section 11 thereof:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that burials be forthwith discontinued in the said old Churchyard of Fettercairn in terms of the first-named Act, with the exceptions hereinafter specified:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 9th day of October 1924, Notice of such Representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 20th day of November 1924, and that the said Order or Notice thereof should be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of the said Order, or Notice thereof, should be fixed on some conspicuous places within the Parish or Parishes affected one month before the said 20th November 1924:

And whereas Notice of the said Representation, and of the time when it pleased His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed in the manner required by the said Order in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows, viz. :—

That burials be forthwith discontinued in the old Churchyard of Fettercairn, adjoining the Parish Church of Fettercairn, in the Parish of Fettercairn and in the County of Kincardine in terms of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, except

- (1) in cases in which permission to inter in said churchyard persons whose pre-deceasing spouses have already been buried therein may be obtained from the Local Authority or from someone authorised by them;
- (2) the interments of the following persons, namely, Jessie Willocks and Alexander Thomas Willocks, both residing in Fettercairn, Lavinia and Mary Strachan, both residing in Fettercairn, Annie Wilson Findlay, residing at Townhead, Fettercairn, Elizabeth Helen Croll, Townhead, Fettercairn, Margaret Barron, Ramsay Buildings, Fettercairn, Helen Hughes, residing in Fettercairn, John Robbie, Cairnton of Balbegno, Fettercairn, Thomas Hayton Gibson, Farmer, Balmain,

Fettercairn, and Mary Ann Milne or Main, 79 Barclay Street, Stonehaven, but under declaration that if any of said persons being at present unmarried shall marry he or she shall forfeit the right of interment in said Churchyard reserved to him or her.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of December 1924.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the powers conferred on His Majesty by the Treaty of Peace Act, 1919, the Treaties of Peace (Austria and Bulgaria) Act, 1920, and the Treaty of Peace (Hungary) Act, 1921, respectively, His Majesty in Council has been pleased to make the Treaty of Peace Order, 1919, the Treaty of Peace (Austria) Order, 1920, the Treaty of Peace (Bulgaria) Order, 1920, and the Treaty of Peace (Hungary) Order, 1921, and various Orders amending the aforesaid Orders:

And whereas it is expedient that the aforesaid Orders as amended should be further amended in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The Treaty of Peace Order, 1919, as amended shall have effect, and be deemed always to have had effect, as if for the proviso to Article 1 (xvi) of that Order the following proviso were substituted:

“ Provided that any particular property, right or interest may at any time be released by the Custodian, acting under the general direction of the Board of Trade, from the charge so created; and where the property, right or interest belonged to a person who has died since the charge attached, the Custodian acting as aforesaid may release it or any part thereof or any interest therein so as to make the release operate in favour of the persons who would have been entitled as beneficiaries under the will or on the intestacy of the deceased person, as the case may be, if the property, right, or interest had not been subject to the charge, or in favour of any of those persons to the exclusion of any one or more of them, on such terms (if any) as he may think proper with respect to the payment of debts and funeral and testamentary expenses and the discharge of any other obligations.”

2. The Treaty of Peace (Austria) Order, 1920, as amended, the Treaty of Peace (Bulgaria) Order, 1920, as amended, and the Treaty of Peace (Hungary) Order, 1921, as amended, shall respectively have effect, and be deemed always to have had effect, as if for the first proviso to Article 1 (ix) of the Treaty of Peace (Austria) Order, 1920, as amended, for the first proviso to Article 1 (i) of the Treaty of Peace (Bulgaria) Order, 1920, as amended, and for the first proviso to Article 1 (ix) of the Treaty of Peace (Hungary) Order, 1921, as amended, the following proviso were substituted:

“ Provided that any particular property, right or interest belonged to a person who has
