LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND)
ACTS.

COUNTY COUNCIL ELECTORAL DIVISIONS OF WEST LOTHIAN.

Whereas the contents and boundaries of the Electoral Divisions of Linlithgow East and Linlithgow West, in the County of West Lothian, were determined by an Order under the hands and common seal of the Boundary Commissioners for Scotland dated the 3rd July 1891;

And whereas the County Council of the County of West Lothian have represented to me that it is desirable to alter the contents and boundaries of the Electoral Divisions of Linlithgow East and Linlithgow West;

And whereas I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the representation of the County Council;

Now therefore I, the undersigned, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, in virtue of the powers conferred on me by Section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, do hereby order as follows:—

The Linlithgow East and Linlithgow West Electoral Divisions as defined by the said Order of the Boundary Commissioners for Scotland, dated the 3rd July 1891, shall from and after this date have the following description and contents:—

Name of Division.	Contents of Division.
Linlithgow East.	That part of the Parish of Linlithgow which lies to the east of a line drawn in a northerly direction along the centre of the road leading North from West Binny over Mains Burn past Ochiltree Mill and Wester Ochiltree to a point at the intersection of that road with the Haugh Burn, thence in a straight line drawn in a northerly direction to a point at the junction of the Edinburgh and Linlithgow Road with the road leading to Philpstoun Station, thence along the road leading past Kingsfield to Groughfoot, from the point at which the first mentioned road enters the Parish to the point at which last mentioned road leaves it.
Linlithgow West.	The remainder of the Parish of Linlithgow exclusive of the portion included within the limits of the Burgh of Linlithgow.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall, this 21st day of April 1925.

JOHN GILMOUR,
His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland.

Whitehall, April 1, 1925.

MERCHANT SHIPPING.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

THE MERCHANT SHIPPING (WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY) RULES (AMENDMENT RULES), 1925, DATED APRIL 21, 1925, MADE BY THE BOARD OF TRADE UNDER THE MERCHANT SHIPPING (WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY) ACT, 1919 (9 & 10 GEO. 5, c. 38).

The Board of Trade in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by sub-section (2) of Section 1 of the Merchant Shipping (Wireless Telegraphy) Act, 1919, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf after consultation with the Postmaster-General hereby make the following rules:—

1. These rules may be cited as the Merchant Shipping (Wireless Telegraphy) Rules (Amendment Rules), 1925, and shall come into force on the first day of July 1925.

2. In paragraphs (ii) and (iii) of Article 10 (2) of the Merchant Shipping (Wireless Telegraphy) Statutory Rules dated the 10th July 1920 (S.R. & O. 1920, No. 976) the words "six months experience" shall be substituted for the words "one year's experience."

Dated this 21st day of April 1925.

H. A. PAYNE,
A Secretary to the Board of Trade.

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE.

BANKING INDUSTRY SPECIAL SCHEME (AMENDMENT) ORDER, 1925.

THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE (BANKING INDUSTRY SPECIAL SCHEME) (AMENDMENT) ORDER, 1925, DATED APRIL 1, 1925, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF LABOUR UNDER THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE ACT, 1920 (10 & 11 GEO. 5, c. 30).

Whereas by the Unemployment Insurance (Banking Industry Special Scheme) Order, 1924, the Special Scheme for the Banking Industry (hereinafter referred to as "the Scheme") was approved by the Minister of Labour (hereinafter referred to as "the Minister"); and the Joint Board of Management (Unemployment Insurance) for the Banking Industry is the body charged with the administration of the Scheme.

And whereas it is provided by sub-section (2) of section eight of the Unemployment Insurance (No. 2) Act, 1924, that for the purpose of securing in the case of a special scheme that like rates of benefit shall be payable to the persons to whom the Scheme applies as are payable under that Act, and that the benefits under the Scheme shall otherwise be not less favourable than those provided by the general provisions of the Unemployment Insurance Acts, 1920 to 1924 (but for no other purpose), the Minister may after consultation with the body charged with the administration of the Scheme, notwithstanding anything in section eighteen of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920, by order vary or amend the provisions of the Scheme, and that any such order may provide for consequential amendments as to the rates of contribution and otherwise.

And whereas it is provided by sub-section (4) of the said section eight, that the power of the Minister under sub-section (9) of section eighteen of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920, to vary or amend the provisions of a scheme made under that section may, except in the case of provisions relating to rates of contribution, rates or duration of benefit, or the constitution of the body charged with the administration of the Scheme, be exercised by order instead of by special order.

And whereas application has been made to the Minister for the variation and amendment of the provisions of the Scheme.

Now therefore the Minister, after consultation with the Joint Board of Management (Unemployment Insurance) for the Banking Industry, by virtue of the powers conferred on him by the sections aforesaid and all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. The variations and amendments of the provisions of the Scheme contained in the Schedule hereto shall have effect and shall be deemed to have had effect as from the first day of August 1924, save where some other date is expressly mentioned as the date from which any provision is to have effect.

2. This Order may be cited as the Unemployment Insurance (Banking Industry Special Scheme) (Amendment) Order, 1925, and this Order and the Unemployment In-insurance (Banking Industry Special Scheme) Order, 1924, may be cited together as the Unemployment Insurance (Banking Industry Special Scheme) Orders, 1924 and 1925, and shall be construed as one.

Signed by Order of the Minister of Labour this first day of April 1925.

H. J. WILSON,
Secretary of the Ministry of Labour.

SCHEDULE.

1. Clause (1) of Part II. of the Scheme shall have effect as though for the words "The Joint Board of Management (Unemployment Insurance) for the Banking Industry" there were substituted the words "The Banking Unemployment Insurance Board."

2. Clause (1) of Part IV. of the Scheme shall have effect as though after the figure (1) there were inserted the figure (i) and as though the following sub-clauses were added at the end.

(ii) Subject as hereinafter provided no person shall be entitled to receive unemployment benefit if the number of the contributions paid in respect of him, whether such contributions were paid under the general provisions of the Act or under this or any other special scheme since the beginning of the insurance year next before the beginning of the benefit year in which the application for unemployment benefit is made, is less than 20.

For the purpose of calculating under this sub-clause the number of contributions paid under this or any other special scheme a contribution shall be deemed to have been paid in respect of each week or part of a week of employment notwithstanding that contributions were payable at quarterly or some other intervals.

(iii) If an applicant for unemployment benefit in whose case the requirements of sub-clause (i) of this clause are fulfilled is not entitled thereto under the provisions of the last preceding sub-clause or Clauses (2) or (3) of the Second Schedule to this Scheme by reason either that the number of contributions paid in respect of him within the period mentioned in sub-clause (ii) hereof is less than 20, or that sufficient contributions are not standing to his credit or that he has already received benefit for periods amounting in the aggregate to 26 weeks in the benefit year in which the application is made he shall nevertheless be entitled to receive unemployment benefit if in addition to satisfying the requirements aforesaid he also proves—

(a) that he is normally employed in insurable employment and will normally seek to obtain his livelihood by means of insurable employment;

(b) that in normal times insurable employment suited to his capacities would be likely to be available for him;

(c) that he has, during the two years immediately preceding the date of the application for benefit, been employed in an insurable employment to such an extent as was reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case and in particular to the opportunities for obtaining insurable employment during that period;

(d) that he is making every reasonable effort to obtain employment suited to his capacities and is willing to accept such employment.

For the purposes of paragraph (c) of this provision:

(i) In the case of a seaman, marine, soldier or airman in respect of whom a payment is to be made or has been made under Section forty-one of the Act, service as seaman, marine, soldier or airman; and

(ii) in the case of any person formerly engaged in war service, the undergoing of training for an insurable occupation, where the cost of the training is defrayed out of funds provided by the Minister or by the Minister of Pensions; shall be treated as employment in insurable employment.

(iv) If a question arises whether a person satisfies the additional conditions required to be satisfied by a person applying for benefit under sub-clause (iii) hereof, that question shall be decided by the Board whose decision shall be final, provided that in any case (a) the Board may refer such question to a committee constituted in accordance with rules made under this Scheme for their report and recommendation, or (b) the Board may refer such question to the Minister, or the Minister may require such question to be referred to him whether such question has been decided by the Board or not, and in either case the decision of the Minister shall be final.

3. Clause (2) of Part IV. of the Scheme shall have effect as though—

(a) the following sub-clauses were substituted respectively for sub-clauses (1) (iii) and (iv)

(i) That he proves—

(a) that at least 30 contributions have been paid in respect of him whether such contributions were paid under the general provisions of the Acts or of this or any other special scheme since the beginning of the first of the two insurance years next before the beginning of the benefit year in which the application for unemployment benefit is made; and

(b) that he was employed in the Banking Industry on the 14th July 1924, or entered such employment subsequently, and has been employed at any time for 12 weeks or more in the Banking Industry.

For the purpose of this sub-clause in the case of contributions paid under this or any other special scheme a contribution shall be deemed to have been paid in respect of each week or part of a week of employment notwithstanding that contributions were payable at quarterly or some other intervals.

(iii) That he is capable of and available for work;

(iv) That he is genuinely seeking work but unable to obtain suitable employment;

(b) after the words "capable of and available for work" in the second proviso to the said clause there were inserted the words "and is genuinely seeking work"; and

(c) there were inserted at the end of the said clause the following words:—

Until the first day of October 1925 a person shall be entitled to receive unemployment benefit, notwithstanding that the condition in sub-clause (1) (a) hereof may not have been fulfilled in his case if the Board thinks fit so to direct, or if the Minister requires the Board so to direct.

4. Clause (3) of Part IV. of the Scheme shall have effect as though

(a) after the words "the remuneration" wherever they occur in sub-clause (a) there were inserted the words "or profit" and after the words "is payable" there were inserted the words "or is earned";

(b) for the words "less than three" in sub-clause (b) there were substituted the words "not more than six";

(c) the following sub-clause were inserted at the end thereof:—

(c) Notwithstanding that the employment of an insured person has terminated, he shall not be deemed to be unemployed during a period in respect of which he continues to receive wages or receives any payment by way of compensation for the loss of and substantially equivalent to the remuneration which he would have received if the employment had not terminated.

5. Clause (4) of Part IV. of the Scheme shall have effect as though

(a) there were inserted at the end of sub-clause (a) the following words "provided nevertheless that this provision shall not apply in any case in which the insured person proves that he is not participating in or financing or directly interested in the trade dispute which caused the stoppage of work, and that he does not belong to a grade or class of workers members of which are participating in or financing or directly interested in the trade dispute, or that the stoppage is due to an employer acting in a manner so as to contravene the terms or provisions of any agreement existing between a group of employers where the stoppage takes place, or of a national agreement to either of which the employers and employees are contracting parties."

(b) the words "not being less than one week" in sub-clause (b) were omitted;

(c) the words from the beginning of sub-clause (d) to "this Scheme, and" were omitted;

(d) for the words "National Health Insurance Acts, 1911 to 1922" there were substituted the words "National Health Insurance Act, 1924."

6. Clause (6) (b) of Part IV. of the Scheme shall have effect as though for the expression "Clauses 2 and 3" where that expression first occurs, there were substituted the expression "Clauses (2), (3) and (4)," and the words "and calling attention to the provisions of clauses 2 and 3 of this part of this Scheme" were omitted.

7. Clause (9) of Part IV. of the Scheme shall be omitted.

8. Clause I of Part V. of the Scheme shall have effect as if the words "Except as provided in sub-clause (iv.) of clause (1), of Part IV. of this Scheme" were inserted at the beginning.

9. Clause (1) (f) of Part VIII. of the Scheme shall have effect as though after the words "within the meaning of this Scheme or not" there were inserted the words "or as to who is or was the employer of an employed person" and as though in each place where the word "Board" occurs in that sub-clause the word "Minister" were substituted therefor, and as though for the words "the provisions of this scheme" there were substituted the words "the provisions of the Acts and this Scheme."

10. The following Clause shall be added to Part IX. of the Scheme:—

(7) Where, by any order or special order varying or amending the provisions of this Scheme, any clauses, sub-clauses, paragraphs, or words are directed to be added to, or omitted from this Scheme, or to be substituted for any other clauses, sub-clauses, paragraphs or words therein then copies of this Scheme printed under the Authority of His Majesty's Stationery Office, after such directions take effect, shall be printed with the clauses, sub-clauses, paragraphs or words so added, omitted or substituted and clauses, sub-clauses and paragraphs thereof numbered in accordance with such direction, and this Scheme shall be construed as if it had at the time at which such direction takes effect or at such other time as may be directed by the order or special order, been made with such addition, omission or substitution.

11. Clause (1) of the Second Schedule to the Scheme shall have effect and shall be deemed to have had effect from the 14th August 1924, as though

(a) the following paragraph were substituted for the second paragraph of such clause
Where a person entitled to unemployment benefit

(1) is a married man whose wife is living with him or is being maintained wholly or mainly by him; or

(2) is a widower, widow, or unmarried person who has residing with him or her any female person for the purpose of having the care of his or her dependent children, and is maintaining that person; or

(3) is a widower or unmarried man and has and has had living with him as his wife any female person; or

(4) is a married woman who has a husband dependent on her; or

(5) is an unmarried person (not being a person entitled to an increase under this Clause otherwise than in respect of his or her dependent children) who has living with him or her and is wholly or mainly maintaining his or her widowed mother.

the weekly rate of unemployment benefit hereinbefore authorised shall be increased by a sum of five shillings, and where the person so entitled has dependent children the weekly rate of unemployment benefit shall be increased by two shillings in respect of each such child. Provided that the additional sum of five shillings shall not be payable in respect of a wife or female person who is in receipt of unemployment benefit under the Acts or under this or any other special scheme, or who is in regular wage-earning employment otherwise than as having the care of the dependent children of the person entitled to unemployment benefit or is engaged in any occupation ordinarily carried on for profit.

(b) the words "or any husband, mother or child" were substituted for the words "or any husband or any child" in the third paragraph of such clause.

12. Clause (4) of the Second Schedule to the Scheme shall have effect as though after the word "disqualified" there were inserted the words "otherwise than by reason of being in receipt of sickness or disablement benefit or disablement allowance under the National Health Insurance Act, 1924," and as though the word "continuous" were inserted before the word "periods."

ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF
AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 17TH APRIL 1925.)

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in him under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1922, and of every other power enabling him in this behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

Authorisation of Landing of Animals for Exceptional Purposes.

1. The landing of the Animals described in the First Schedule hereto, which are intended for exceptional purposes, is hereby allowed, subject to the provisions of Part II. (Quarantine) of the Third Schedule to the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, and of the Foreign Animals (Quarantine) Order of 1896, and of this Order.

Definition of Quarantine Station.

2. The premises described in the Second Schedule hereto are hereby defined as a Foreign Animals Quarantine Station for the purpose of the detention of the animals described in the First Schedule hereto.

The Order of the Minister (No. 3936), dated the twelfth day of March nineteen hundred and twenty-five, defining the said premises as a Foreign Animals Quarantine Station for the purpose of the landing and detention of one Axis deer shall not apply to the movement into the said premises of the animals described in the First Schedule hereto.

Examination before Landing.

3. No such animals as aforesaid shall be landed except with a licence granted by an Inspector of the Ministry, which licence shall not be granted unless and until the animals have been examined by a Veterinary Inspector of the Ministry, and certified by him to be free from symptoms of contagious disease.

Regulation Applicable to the Animals on Landing.

4. The animals on being landed shall forthwith be moved under the supervision of an Inspector of the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries from the quay to the premises described in the Second Schedule hereto, and shall be there detained for a period of twenty-eight days. During the said period the animals shall be kept separate from all other animals, and no other animals shall be moved into such premises.

In witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries is hereunto affixed this seventeenth day of April nineteen hundred and twenty-five.

J. JACKSON,

ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF
AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 20TH APRIL 1925.)

FIFESHIRE (CONTROL OF DOGS)
ORDER OF 1925.

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in him under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1922, and of every other power enabling him in this behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

Power to make Regulations.

1.—(1) The Local Authorities of the Districts specified in the Schedule to this Order may, in accordance with the provisions of this Order, make Regulations, with a view to the prevention of worrying of cattle (including sheep), for requiring that dogs or any class of dogs shall, during all or any of the hours between sunset and sunrise, be kept by the owners thereof under control in manner prescribed by the Regulations.

(2) The Regulations may apply to the whole or any part of the Districts, and may exempt any class of dogs either generally or under prescribed conditions.

Confirmation of Regulations.

2.—(1) Regulations made under this Order shall not take effect unless and until they have been submitted to and confirmed by the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries.

(2) A copy of any Regulations made by a Local Authority under this Order, signed and certified by the Clerk of that Local Authority to be a true copy and to have been duly confirmed shall be evidence, until the contrary is proved, in all legal proceedings, of the due making, confirmation and existence of the Regulations, without further or other proof.

Seizure of Dogs where Regulations are Contravened.

3. Any dog in respect of which an offence is being committed against a Regulation made under this Order may be seized and treated as a stray dog under the powers conferred by Section three of the Dogs Act, 1906.

Extension of Definition in Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

4. Dogs shall be animals for the purposes of the following sections of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894 (namely):—

Section forty-three (powers of police);
Section forty-four (powers of inspectors);

and also for the purposes of all other sections of the said Act containing provisions relative to or consequent on the provisions of those sections and this Order, including such sections as relate to offences and legal proceedings.

Local Authority to Enforce Order.

5. The provisions of this Order shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority.

Short Title.

6. This Order may be cited as the FIFESHIRE (CONTROL OF DOGS) ORDER OF 1925.

In witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries is hereunto affixed this twentieth day of April nineteen hundred and twenty-five.
