ADMIRALTY OFFICE, February 7. 1807.

Copy of a Letter from Captain JOHN AYSCOUGH, of his Majesty's ship Success, to Vice-Admiral DACRES.

His Majesty's ship Success, Lucca, 6th December 1806.

SIR—I beg leave to inform you, that, on the morning of the 20th of last month, standing in for the land to the eastward of Cumberland harbour, I observed a small felucca running into Hidden Port. Mr W. Duke, the First Lieutenant, volunteered his services, with Lieut. Charles Spence, and acting Lieut. Dowell O'Reilly. The barge and yawl were armed, and instantly dispatched. On their approach, they found her crew had landed (about fifty in number), with their small arms, and the only long gun; had lashed the vessel to the trees; posted themselves on a hill close to the beach, and fired down on our boats with grape and musketry in the most determined manner. (I am very sorry to say Lieutenant Duke was killed the first volley.) Lieutenant Spence, who took the command, informs me it was impossible to stand the continual fire kept up from our boats for one hour and twenty minutes, (several of the enemy having fallen during that time.) From the barge being shot through in many places, seven wounded men in the boats, Lieutenant Spence very properly judged it would be only sacrificing the lives of the brave party to attempt the hill, he therefore ordered the vessel to be towed out, which was done from under a very heavy fire of grape. By her journal she appears to be the Vengeur French privateer, and sailed from the city of St Domingo the 1st of October, which, from being leaky, owing to shot-holes, &c. sunk astern of the ship.

Lieutenant Spence speaks in the highest terms of the acting Lieutenant O'Reilly, (who has been in that situation with me above eight months,) the petty officers, seamen, and marines under his orders.

I cannot omit recommending to your notice, Mr William Rand Hughes, Master's-Mate, who passed for a lieutenant, and conducted himself in a very spirited manner.

Price Sixpence.

With concern I inclose you a list of the killed, wounded, and missing; and have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) JOHN AYSCOUGH.

To Vice-Admiral DACRES, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c. Jamaica.
