At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of June 1926.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Steward.

Secretary Sir W. Joynson-Hicks.

Colonel G. Lane-Fox.

WHEREAS by the 88th Section of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, it is enacted as follows:—“Where in accordance with the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, Her Majesty exercises jurisdiction within any port, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council to declare that port a Port of Registry and by the same or any subsequent Order in Council, to declare the description of persons who are to be Registrars of British ships at that Port of Registry and to make regulations with respect to the registry of British ships thereat”:

And whereas by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance and other lawful means His Majesty the King has jurisdiction in and over the Protectorate of Zanzibar, and within all the ports thereof in accordance with the said Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890:

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that it is expedient to declare the port of Zanzibar in the said Protectorate a Port of Registry, and to declare the description of persons who shall be Registrars of British ships thereat, and to make regulations with respect to the registry of British ships thereat:

And whereas the provisions of Section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him in this behalf by the hereinbefore recited Acts or some or one of them and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to declare and order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as “The Zanzibar Maritime Order in Council, 1926.”

2. The Port of Zanzibar in the Protectorate of Zanzibar shall be a Port of Registry for British Ships.

3. The Registrar of British Ships at the said port shall be such officer in the Public Service of the Protectorate as the British Resident may from time to time appoint by writing signed by him and in default of such appointment shall be the Port Officer at the said Port.

4. The British Resident at Zanzibar may from time to time in case of the absence or intended absence from Zanzibar or in case of illness of the Registrar appoint by writing under his hand a fit person to be the deputy of the Registrar for the time therein mentioned and every such appointment shall be revocable at pleasure by the British Resident by writing under his hand.

The person so appointed shall during the continuance of his appointment have all the power and authority of the Registrar.

5. The Registrar shall have and use a seal bearing such style and device as the British Resident shall from time to time direct.

6. Every signature or seal affixed to any instrument purporting to be the signature or seal as the case may be of the Registrar shall
