FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1926.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November 1926.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 31st day of August 1926 (G.H. 26136), in the words following, viz.:—

“Whereas by section 20 of the Greenwich Hospital Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that the Admiralty shall from time to time continue or appoint such officers, clerks and servants for the purposes of the Hospital and Schools as seem fit, and may (subject to the approval of Your Majesty in Council) fix the salaries of such officers and clerks:

“And whereas by section 8 of the Greenwich Hospital Act, 1872, it is enacted that the provisions of section 20 of the Greenwich Hospital Act, 1865, so far as the same relate to salaries, shall extend to pensions and pecuniary benefits of any kind:

“And whereas Mr. W. T. Franklin, a former Assistant Master in the Royal Hospital School, Greenwich, is eligible for the award of superannuation allowances from the funds of Greenwich Hospital in respect of that portion of his service at Greenwich prior to the 31st March 1895:

“And whereas by Your Majesty's Order in Council dated the 17th May 1920, the scale of salary of the Chief Officer of the Royal Hospital

School, Greenwich, was fixed at £200 to £300 a year rising by annual increments of £10, with quarters:

“And whereas Mr. A. A. Rutter, Clerk in Charge of the Greenwich Hospital Department of the Admiralty retired from the service of Greenwich Hospital on the 16th August 1926, on account of age:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the following payments from the Funds of Greenwich Hospital, viz.:—

“(1) A pension to Mr. W. T. Franklin at the rate of Five pounds, nineteen shillings and two pence (£5 19s. 2d.) per annum as from the 26th March 1926, and a gratuity of Fifteen pounds, seventeen shillings and tenpence (£15 17s. 10d.).

“(2) The scale of salary of the Chief Officer of the Royal Hospital School, Greenwich, being increased from £200 to £250 per annum to £250 to £350 per annum, rising by £10 annually, with quarters, as from the 30th April 1926.

“(3) A pension to Mr. A. A. Rutter as from the date of his retirement at the rate of Four hundred pounds (£400) per annum, a supplementary pension of Ninety-seven pounds, fifteen shillings and sixpence (£97 15s. 6d.) per annum, re-assessed quarterly in accordance with the variation in the Civil Service Bonus cost of living figure and subject to an overriding maximum of One hundred and eleven pounds fourteen shillings and sixpence (£111 14s. 6d.)

per annum; and a gratuity of One thousand four hundred and seven pounds, seven shillings and fourpence (£1407 7s. 4d.).”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November 1926.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 11th day of August 1926 (N.P. (2) 2165/26), in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by the Naval Agency and Distribution Act, 1864, it is enacted, inter alia, that the several shares of any money distributable among the Officers and Crew of any of Your Majesty's Ships of War in the several cases enumerated in the said Act shall be paid to the persons entitled thereto in such manner, and subject and according to such restrictions, conditions and provisions, as may from time to time be directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas it is by the said Act also enacted that Your Majesty in Council may, from time to time, make such Orders as may seem meet for the better execution of the said Act:

“And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, certain Regulations as to the manner and incidence of payment of such shares as aforesaid were made by Order in Council, dated the 6th February 1917:

“And whereas we consider it no longer necessary to keep Prize Money accounts open so long as forty years from the date of distribution as provided by Clause 9 of the aforesaid Order in Council:

“We beg humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the reduction of the period to ten years from the date of distribution, awards still open at this date, which will have been over 10 years in distribution on 31st December 1926, being finally closed as from that date.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November 1926.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 4th day of September 1926 (C.W. 7451/25), in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased, by Your Orders in Council bearing dates the 8th day of August 1911, the 11th day of October 1912, and the 11th day of March 1920, to approve of Royal Marine Officers of certain ranks being accorded special Order in Council bearing date the 25th day of July 1924, to provide that certain allowances payable to Royal Marine Officers, the rates of which vary according to rank, shall be regulated according to their relative rank afloat, and not necessarily by their actual relative rank, subject to certain specified exceptions:

“And whereas Your Majesty was further graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 6th day of February 1925 to sanction revised regulations governing the relative rank of Naval, Military and Air Force Officers, which provide, inter alia, that Royal Marine Officers shall in future rank at all times in accordance with their rank in the Royal Marines ashore:

“And whereas we consider that the allowances of Royal Marine Officers should not be adversely affected by Your Majesty's Order in Council last mentioned:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to direct that the allowances payable to Officers of Your Majesty's Royal Marines prior to the 6th day of February 1925, shall remain unaffected by the changes in their relative rank made by Your Order in Council of that date.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November 1926.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 9th day of September 1926 (C.W. 1297/26), in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas owing to the reduction of certain posts a number of Quartermasters, Commissioned Sergeants-Major, Sergeants-Major, and Superintending Clerks, on the Active List of Your Majesty's Marine Force became surplus to requirements and have been retired :

“And whereas we consider it desirable that special provision should be made for the retiring allowances of the Officers whose careers have been thus curtailed :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to signify Your approval of the retirement of such Officers under the regulations contained in the annexed Schedule, which have been framed for that purpose.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence therein.

“ SCHEDULE.

“Temporary Special Retirement Scheme (1926) for Quartermasters, Sergeants-Major, and Superintending Clerks, Royal Marines, retired between the 3rd March 1926 and the 3rd September 1926, for the purpose of reducing the lists.

“1. Quartermasters over the age of 50 and Warrant Officers over the age of 45 on the 3rd June 1926, retired under these regulations to be granted the rates of retired pay for which they would have been eligible under the regulations ordinarily applicable to them on attaining the age of 55 or 50 respectively, had they continued to serve until reaching that age, but in assessing such rates no promotions other than automatic promotions to be taken into account. For this purpose, promotion from Warrant Officer to Commissioned Officer from Warrant rank to be regarded as automatic on the attainment of ten years' seniority as Warrant Officer, provided the Officer's record is satisfactory.

“These Officers to be granted in addition to these rates of retired pay a gratuity on retirement at the rate of £37 10s. 0d. for each complete three months intervening between the day preceding the commencement of retired pay and the day on which they would attain the age of 55 and 50 respectively subject to a maximum gratuity of £500 in each case.

“2. Officers of these ranks or classes who had not reached the age of 50 or 45 respectively on the 3rd June 1926, to be granted the rates of retired pay for which they would have been eligible by rank and service had they continued to serve on full pay until the 3rd June 1928, subject, in each case, to the maximum rate of retired pay laid down for the rank held on the 3rd March 1926, a gratuity of £500 to be granted in each case in addition.

“3. All rates of retired pay granted under the provisions of this Schedule to be subject to revision on the 1st July 1927, and subsequently.

“4. Nothing in these regulations shall confer upon any Officer retired during the currency of the scheme under any other regulations which may have been applicable to his case, a right to retired pay or gratuity under these regulations.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November 1926.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 21st day of September 1926 (C.W. 8373/26), in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 2nd day of August 1918, to sanction the grant, at our discretion, of Temporary Commissions as Acting Chaplains to Ministers of Religious Bodies, not in conformity with the Church of England, who rendered full time service in the Royal Navy during the period of the late war :

“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 13th day of October 1922, to sanction the continuance of the grant of temporary commissions to such Ministers under the same conditions in time of peace, subject to their being designated 'Temporary Chaplains' and not 'Acting Chaplains':

"And whereas the Reverend Percy Halling, M.C., was granted a Temporary Commission as Acting Wesleyan Chaplain (now styled 'Temporary Wesleyan Chaplain') with seniority of the 4th April 1915, and served in Your Majesty's Naval Service until the 30th August 1926, on which date he was found to be physically unfit for further active service:

"And whereas we consider that such service should render this Officer eligible for retired pay:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council, to sanction the following proposals:—

"(1) Retired pay based on a standard rate of £225 a year to be granted to this Officer, and to be awarded at the current rate of £212 10s. a year as from the date of his retirement:

"(2) The standard rate of £225 a year to be regarded as comparable with rates authorised in Schedule V., Section IX., of Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 22nd January 1920, and his retired pay to be subject to revision at the same dates and in the same manner as retired pay authorised by that Order.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November 1926.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 27th day of September 1926 (N.P. (1) 3311/1926), in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Orders in Council bearing dates the 25th day of November 1816, and the 30th day of June 1860, we are empowered to make advances on account of pay in certain cases to the Officers of Your Majesty's Fleet on taking up an appointment:

"And whereas we are of opinion that we should be further empowered to make advances on account of pay to Officers on their discharge from Your Majesty's ships on foreign stations for passage home:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorise us to grant advances of pay to Officers accordingly, subject to the following conditions:—

"(a) That no advance be granted to an Officer not entitled to full pay during passage home.

"(b) That the amount of the advance shall in no case exceed the pay which would in the ordinary course be due to the Officer on the date of his arrival in England.

"The Lord Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 20th day of October 1926 (N. 3667/26), in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we have had under consideration the provision of suitable gunnery personnel to man the armament of new types of battleships and cruisers in Your Majesty's Fleet:

"And whereas we consider that the requirements will best be met by the establishment of a new non-substantive rating for Seamen and Royal Marines, to be called Captain of Gun:

"And whereas we consider that the present title of the non-substantive ratings of Turret Director Layer and Light Director Layer will not be appropriate to their duties in the said new types of ships, and that a more suitable title would be Director Layer:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by

Your Order in Council, to sanction the following proposals:—

“(1) The non-substantive ratings of Captain of Gun, 1st Class, and Captain of Gun, 2nd Class, to be established, with the following rates of pay:—

Captain of Gun, 1st Class, 1s. a day.
 Captain of Gun, 2nd Class, 6d. a day.

“(2) The titles of Turret Director Layer, and Light Director Layer, to be altered to Director Layer, 1st Class, and Director Layer, 2nd Class, respectively.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 28th day of October 1926 (C. (2) 7841/26), in the words following, viz.:—

" Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being, or having been, an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are, from time to time, directed by Order in Council:

" And whereas by Section 2, Sub-Section (1), of the Ministry of Pensions Act, 1916, it was enacted, inter alia, that the powers and duties of the Admiralty with respect to pensions and grants to persons who have served as men, other than service pensions, so far as such pensions and grants are payable out of moneys provided by Parliament, and not provided exclusively for the purpose of Greenwich Hospital, should be transferred to the Minister of Pensions:

" And whereas under Section 1 of the War Pensions Act, 1920, it is enacted that the powers and duties transferred from the Admiralty to the Minister of Pensions by the Ministry of Pensions Act, 1916, shall, except in so far as those powers and duties relate to pensions or grants to which the War Pensions Acts, as amended by the War Pensions Act,

1920, apply, or to pensions or grants awarded in respect of wounds, disabilities or other matters suffered, incurred, or happening in any war which occurred before the 4th day of August 1914, be re-transferred to the Admiralty as from the thirtieth day after the date fixed under the Termination of the Present War (Definition) Act, 1918, as the date of the termination of the present war:

" And whereas Your Majesty by Your Order in Council dated the 10th day of August 1921, has fixed the 31st day of August 1921, at midnight, as the date of the termination of the present war:

" And whereas Your Majesty by Your Order in Council dated the 6th day of February 1922, authorised us to award, at our discretion, pensions and gratuities to men invalided out of the Service on or after the 1st day of October 1921, under conditions and at improved rates as specified in the Schedule annexed to the Order in Council:

" And whereas we are of opinion that these improved scales should apply to pre-war disability pensioners who were invalided during the Great War and whose Great War pension, if any, has ceased, and to those persons who having continued to serve were invalided during the Great War with a disability attributable to pre-war service and whose Great War pension, if any, has ceased:

" We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to authorise us to award at our discretion, to such persons invalided during the War as aforesaid, pensions and grants under the scales and subject to the other conditions (except the condition as to the date of invaliding) established by Your Majesty's Order in Council dated the 6th February 1922, provided the commencing date of such grants shall not be earlier than 1st April 1919.

" The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Lord Chamberlain.
Lord Clinton.
Mr. Bridgeman.
Hon. J. G. Coates.
Lord Justice Lawrence.
Sir George Clerk.
Sir Lancelot Sanderson.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, in exercise of the powers in that behalf conferred on Him by the Medical Act, 1886, and the Medical Act (1886) Amendment Act,

1905, by Order in Council dated the 14th day of October 1913, to order and declare that the Province of New Brunswick in the Dominion of Canada should be deemed, from the date of the said Order, a separate British Possession, and that the Second Part of the Medical Act, 1886, should be deemed, as from the date of the said Order, to apply to the said Province of New Brunswick:

And whereas the Province of New Brunswick no longer affords to the Registered Medical Practitioners of the United Kingdom such privileges of practising in the said Province as to His Majesty seem just:

Now, therefore, His Majesty doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, order that the said Order in Council of the 14th day of October 1913, be, and the same is hereby revoked, without prejudice nevertheless to the right of any persons whose names have been already entered on the Register.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November 1926.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 445 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, it is enacted that where the Board of Trade certify that the laws and regulations for the time being in force in any foreign country and relating to overloading and improper loading are equally effective with the provisions of that Act relating thereto, His Majesty in Council may direct that on proof of a ship of that country having complied with those laws and regulations, she shall not, when in a port of the United Kingdom, be liable to detention for non-compliance with the said provisions of that Act, nor shall there arise any liability to any fine or penalty which would otherwise arise for non-compliance with those provisions:

And whereas by Section 1 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, provision, as is more particularly therein mentioned, is made for applying to foreign ships when in ports in the United Kingdom certain sections of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, which relate to loadline, without prejudice to any direction of His Majesty in Council given under the said Section 445 of the last-mentioned Act:

And whereas the Board of Trade have certified that certain statutory regulations which have been approved by the Belgian Government relating to overloading, so far as regards the assignment of loadlines to Belgian ships are equally effective with the corresponding regulations in force in this country respecting the assignment of loadlines to British Merchant ships:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council doth direct that on proof that Belgian ships have complied with the aforesaid Belgian regulations, such ships shall not, when in ports of the United Kingdom, be liable to detention for non-compliance with the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Acts relating to overloading, nor shall there arise any liability to any fine or penalty which would otherwise arise for non-compliance with those provisions.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Scottish Board of Health has, under the provisions of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, as amended by the Scottish Board of Health Act, 1919, made a Representation that they have received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff of the Lothians and Peebles at Haddington, dated the 10th May 1926, finding that each of the Churchyards situated in Dirleton and Gullane respectively and situated in the Parish of Dirleton in the County of Haddington are so crowded as to be offensive:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that burials be forthwith discontinued in the said two Churchyards in terms of Section 5 of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, subject to a reservation affecting existing lair-holders to make future interments subject to the consent of the Local Authority, provided always as regards all future interments that the exercise of the right of burial be not injurious to the public health, that no graves be less than 5 feet deep, and that no graves be buried in unless they can be opened to that depth without exposure of coffins, and that all future interments be at the sight of the Sanitary Inspector for the County of East Lothian:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, is pleased to give notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration on the 17th day of December next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order or Notice thereof be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of this Order or Notice thereof be fixed as required by the first named Act on some conspicuous places within the parish or parishes affected one month before such Representation is considered as aforesaid.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Scottish Board of Health has, under the provisions of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, as amended by the Scottish Board of Health Act, 1919, made a Representation that they have received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff of the Lothians and Peebles at Edinburgh, dated the 19th May 1926, finding that the Churchyard or old Burial Ground of the Parish of Newbattle in the County of Midlothian is from overcrowding in such a state generally as to be offensive, injurious to health and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that burials be forthwith discontinued in the said Churchyard or old Burial Ground in terms of Section 5 of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, except for the burial of any person whose father or mother, husband or wife, or other near relative and the representatives of those to whom ground was allocated by the Heritors may be buried in the said old Burial Ground including the following, viz.:—Charles Craig, the Watson family and the representatives of Robert Craig, David Erskine, Mrs. Agnes Stone, John Hare, Thomas Falconer, William Hogg, John Witcomb, Johnson Armitstead, James Taylor, Andrew Naismyth, James Thomson, David M'Neill, William Bonsor, John Cowan, John Ramsay, George Allan, John Moffat and Miss Julianna Walker Dawson, 32 Lygon Road, Edinburgh. Provided always as regards future interments that the exercise of the right of burial be not injurious to the public health, that no graves be less than five feet deep and that no grave be buried in unless it can be opened to that depth without exposure of coffins and that all future interments be at the sight of the Sanitary Inspector for the County of Midlothian.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council, is pleased to give notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration on the 17th day of December next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order or Notice thereof be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of this Order or Notice thereof be fixed as required by the first named Act on some conspicuous places within the parish or parishes affected one month before such Representation is considered.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November 1926.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS MAJESTY in Council was this day pleased, on a Representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education in Scotland, to appoint George Menary, Esquire, M.C., M.A., of Glasgow University, to be one of His Majesty's Inspectors of Schools, as from the 1st day of October 1926.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

DIRLETON BURIAL GROUNDS.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November 1926.

Present,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Scottish Board of Health has, under the provisions of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, as amended by the Scottish Board of Health Act, 1919, made a representation that they have received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff of the Lothians and Peebles at Haddington, dated the 10th May 1926, finding that each of the Churchyards situated in Dirleton and Gullane respectively and situated in the Parish of Dirleton in the County of Haddington are so crowded as to be offensive:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that burials be forthwith discontinued in the said two Churchyards in terms of Section 5 of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, subject to a reservation affecting existing lair-holders to make future interments subject to the consent of the Local Authority, provided always as regards all future interments that the exercise of the right of burial be not injurious to the public health, that no graves be less than 5 feet deep, and that no graves be buried in unless they can be opened to that depth without exposure of coffins, and that all future interments be at the sight of the Sanitary Inspector for the County of East Lothian.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased to give notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration on the 17th day of December next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order or Notice thereof be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of this Order or Notice thereof be fixed as required by the first named Act on some conspicuous places within the parish or parishes affected one month before such Representation is considered as aforesaid.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

Intimation is hereby given of the Order above quoted.

A. D. WALLACE, Solicitor, North Berwick, Agent for Dirleton Parish Council.

North Berwick, 11th November 1926.

INTIMATION is hereby given that at their Meeting, held on 10th September 1926, the Linlithgow District Committee of the County Council of the County of West Lothian resolved to extend the KIRKLISTON DRAINAGE DISTRICT to include an area to the north of the present district, bounded by a line commencing at the north east corner of the present district to the east of Loanhead House, and running north westwards for a distance of 137 yards or thereby; thence by a line running parallel to the present boundary of the district for a distance of 120 yards or thereby; thence south eastwards to meet the present boundary of the district for a distance of 127 yards or thereby and an area of ground bounded as follows, viz.:—By a line commencing on the Distillery Road at the north east corner of the Distillery and running along the said road in a south westerly direction 70 yards or thereby; thence along the said road in a north westerly direction for a distance of 47 yards or thereby; and thence in a northerly direction to the south west corner of the present district immediately to the south of the Linlithgow and Kirkliston road, a distance of 373 yards or thereby.

It is hereby further intimated that the County Council of West Lothian approved of the extension of the said Special Drainage District at their Meeting held on 15th October 1926.

J. G. B. HENDERSON, District Clerk.

Linlithgow, 10th November 1926.

INTIMATION is hereby given, that at their Meeting, held on 28th June 1926, the Linlithgow District Committee of the County Council of the County of West Lothian resolved to form Muirhouses Special Drainage District, including the Village of Little Carriden, into a Special Scavenging District to be called THE MUIRHOUSES SPECIAL SCAVENGING DISTRICT, and to adopt Sections 107, 109, 110, 112, 113, 114, 115, 118, 119, and 255 of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, as applicable to said Scavenging District.

It is hereby further intimated that the County Council of West Lothian approved of the formation of the said Special Scavenging District at their Meeting held on 15th October 1926.

J. G. B. HENDERSON, District Clerk.

Linlithgow, 10th November 1926.

COUNTY COUNCIL OF DUNBARTON.

EASTERN DISTRICT COMMITTEE.

NOTIFICATION is hereby given, in terms of Section 14 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1908, that the Eastern District Committee of the County Council of the County of Dunbarton, being the Local Authority within said District, under and in terms of the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, at a Meeting held at Glasgow, and within the District Committee Office, 24 George Square there, upon Wednesday the 5th day of May 1926, after due notice in terms of the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, having considered the propriety thereof, resolved to combine the boundaries of Bearsden Special Drainage District and Westerton Special Drainage District, and further resolved to enlarge the boundaries of the said combined districts so as to include certain areas adjoining same, the District to be known in future as "BEARSDEN SPECIAL DRAINAGE DISTRICT."

The full terms of the above Resolution and a Plan showing the boundaries of the said Special District as combined and enlarged may be inspected at the Office of the Subscriber.

DAVID COCKBURN, District Clerk.

24 George Square, Glasgow,
10th November 1926.

Advertisement of Cancelling.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Assistant Registrar of Friendly Societies for Scotland has, pursuant to Section 77 of the Friendly Societies Act, 1896, by writing under his hand, dated the ninth day of November 1926, Cancelled the Registry of the GOLDEN WILLOW LODGE OF FREE GARDENERS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY (Register No. 50, Stirling), held at Bothkennar, Carron, in the County of Stirling, on the ground that the Society has wilfully and after notice from me violated the provisions of the said Act in having failed to submit the Annual Return of the said Society for the year 1925.

The Society (subject to the right of appeal given by the said Act) ceases to enjoy the privileges of a Registered Society, but without prejudice to any liability incurred by the Society, which may be enforced against it as if such cancelling had not taken place.
