

2. In the application of the Motor Car (International Circulation) (Amendment) Order, 1921, to Northern Ireland, Article 3 thereof shall cease to have effect.

3. This Order may be cited as the Motor Car (International Circulation) (Amendment) Order (Northern Ireland), 1927.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of November 1927.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section one of the Chartered Associations (Protection of Names and Uniforms) Act, 1926, it is provided that His Majesty may by Order in Council on the application of any association incorporated by Royal Charter, not being an association representative of any profession or business, protect (among other things) badges to be worn without uniform used by the association and described in the Order:

And whereas it is further provided by the said section that an Order in Council thereunder shall not be made unless notice of the application for an Order has been given in such manner and accompanied by such particulars as the Secretary of State may direct, and that the Secretary of State shall consider any objections to an Order which are made by or on behalf of any persons or societies affected or likely to be affected by the Order:

And whereas the Venerable Order of the Hospital of Saint John of Jerusalem, being an association incorporated by Royal Charter and not being an association representative of any profession or business, has in pursuance of the said Act applied for an Order in Council thereunder to protect certain badges to be worn without uniform used by the said Venerable Order:

And whereas notice of the said application has been duly given as required by the said Act and no objections have been made to the making of an Order in Council in pursuance of the application aforesaid:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. (i) The badges to be worn without uniform used by the Venerable Order of the Hospital of Saint John of Jerusalem are hereby protected under the said Act.

(ii) The badges to which this Order applies are badges of the following description, that is to say, badges made of any material whatsoever bearing, or consisting of, the device of a white eight-pointed cross, embellished in the four principal angles alternately with a lion passant guardant and a unicorn passant, whether or not the device is surrounded or accompanied by concentric circles or other decoration or by lettering.

2. (i) This Order may be cited as "The Chartered Associations (Venerable Order of Saint John of Jerusalem) Protection Order, 1927."

(ii) This Order shall apply only to England.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of November 1927.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section one of the Chartered Associations (Protection of Names and Uniforms) Act, 1926, it is provided that His Majesty may by Order in Council on the application of any association incorporated by Royal Charter, not being an association representative of any profession or business, protect—

(a) the name of the association; and

(b) any special name or designation specified in the Order and used by the association for the members thereof, or for the members of any organisation constituted by the association in pursuance of their charter; and

(c) any uniform with distinctive markings or badges used by the association and described in the Order; and

(d) any badge to be worn without uniform used by the association and described in the Order:

And whereas it is further provided by the said section that an Order in Council thereunder shall not be made unless notice of the application for an Order has been given in such manner and accompanied by such particulars as the Secretary of State may direct, and that the Secretary of State shall consider any objections to an Order which are made by or on behalf of any persons or societies affected or likely to be affected by the Order:

And whereas the Boy Scouts Association, being an association incorporated by Royal Charter and not being an association representative of any profession or business, has in pursuance of the said Act made the application which is set out in the Schedule to this Order:

And whereas notice of the said application has been duly given as required by the said Act and the Secretary of State has considered all the objections to the making of an Order in Council in pursuance of the application aforesaid:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The name "The Boy Scouts Association" and the special names and designations and the badges to be worn with uniform and the badges to be worn without uniform specified respectively in paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of the said application are hereby protected under the said Act.

2. This Order may be cited as "The Chartered Associations (Boy Scouts Association) Protection Order, 1927."

M. P. A. HANKEY.

SCHEDULE.

Application for Order in Council under the Chartered Associations (Protection of Names and Uniforms) Act, 1926.
