"And whereas the aforesaid condition is not fulfilled in Surveying Ships, but we are nevertheless of opinion that in view of the inevitable discomfort of service in such ships abroad Hard Lying Money should be paid to such of the Officers of those vessels as are not in receipt of Surveying Pay:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to empower us, at our discretion, and with effect from the 1st day of April 1928, to grant Hard Lying Money at the rates authorised for service in Torpedo Boat Destroyers to such of the Officers serving in Surveying Ships abroad as are not in receipt of Surveying pay, provided that

- (2) the vessels are mainly employed on sea service, and
- (3) the living and sleeping conditions are not superior to those in Torpedo Boat Destroyers.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.
