

and to Registrars and other principal officers of the High Court in like manner as it applies to public officers."

3. Pending the constitution of other Courts in substitution for Magistrates' Courts and Native Commissioners' Courts constituted under Articles 32, 33, 34 and 35 of the Principal Order hereby repealed all Courts constituted thereby and thereunder shall continue to exercise the jurisdiction prescribed by any law for the time being in force in the Territory.

4. Article 36 of the Principal Order is hereby repealed and the following provision substituted therefor:—

"36. In civil cases between Natives every Court shall

(a) be guided by native law so far as it is applicable and is not repugnant to natural justice or morality or inconsistent with any Order in Council, Ordinance or Proclamation or any Regulation or Rule made under any Order in Council, Ordinance or Proclamation, and shall

(b) decide all such cases according to substantial justice without undue regard to technicalities of procedure and without delay. In all other respects the Court shall follow as far as possible the procedure observed in similar cases in England."

5. His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Council may from time to time revoke add to or amend this Order.

6. This Order shall come into operation forthwith and shall be published in the Northern Rhodesia Gazette and thereafter the Governor shall give directions for the further publication of this Order at such places and in such manner or for such time or times as he thinks proper for giving due publicity thereto.

And the Right Honourable Leopold Stennett Amery, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 18 of "The Extradition Act, 1870," it is among other things enacted, that if by any law made after the passing of the said Act by the legislature of any British possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in, or suspected of being in, such British possession His Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any foreign state, or by any subsequent Order, either suspend the operation within any such British possession of the said Act, or of any part thereof so far as it relates to such foreign state, and so long as such law continues in force there and no longer;

or direct that such law or ordinance or any part thereof shall have effect in such British possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the Act:

And whereas by an ordinance enacted by the legislature of the Colony of Kenya, the short title of which is "The Extradition Ordinance, 1928," it is provided that all powers vested in and acts authorised or required to be done by a Police Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals in the United Kingdom under the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, are thereby vested in and may in the Colony be exercised and done by any Magistrate holding a Subordinate Court of the first class in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals under the said Acts:

And whereas it is further provided by the said ordinance that the said ordinance shall not come into operation until His Majesty shall by Order in Council direct that the said ordinance shall have effect within the Colony as if it were part of the Extradition Act, 1870, but that the said ordinance shall thereafter come into operation as soon as such Order in Council shall have been publicly made known in the Colony:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of "The Extradition Act, 1870," and in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said Act contained, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect in the Colony of Kenya without modification or alteration, as if it were part of the Extradition Act, 1870.

And the Right Honourable Leopold Charles Maurice Stennett Amery, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 20 of the Finance Act, 1894, as modified by Article 14 of the Government of Ireland (Adaptation of the Taxing Acts) Order, 1922, and by Article 2 of the Irish Free State (Consequential Adaptation of Enactments) Order, 1923, it is enacted that His Majesty the King may, by Order in Council, apply that Section to any British Possession where His Majesty is satisfied that by the Law of such Possession, either no duty is leviable in respect of property situate in Great Britain when passing on death or that the Law of such Possession as respects any duty so leviable is to the like effect as the foregoing provisions of that Section:

And whereas by Section 45 of the Finance Act, 1922, it is enacted that the said Section 20 of the Finance Act, 1894, shall have effect as if the Unfederated Malay States of Johore, Kedah, Perlis, Kelantan, Trengganu and Brunei were British Possessions within the meaning of that Section:

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that by the Law of the Unfederated Malay States of
