

references in Part XI of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, to the Mercantile Marine Fund shall be construed as references to the General Lighthouse Fund by the now reciting Act constituted:

And whereas by Orders in Council made on the 14th day of December 1922, the 16th day of December 1925, and the 22nd day of March 1928, respectively, in pursuance of the above recited powers, the clerical and engineering establishments which might be maintained by the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strand (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") being one of the General Lighthouse Authorities referred to in the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and the amount of the salaries to be paid to the officers of the said establishments were duly fixed:—

And whereas it is expedient that the engineering establishment of the Corporation should be varied in manner hereinafter appearing:

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the Board of Trade have consented to such variation:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Him by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and of any other powers Him thereunto enabling, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Trinity House (Variation of Establishment) (No. 2) Order, 1928.

2. In addition to the posts specified in the before-mentioned Orders in Council there shall, as from the 1st day of November 1928, be included in the engineering establishment of the Corporation a post of Marine Engineer Inspector with a salary commencing at £300 per annum, and rising by annual increments of £10 to a maximum of £350 per annum.

3. The salary payable under the provisions of this Order shall be paid out of the General Lighthouse Fund.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of November 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Marquess of Londonderry, K.G.

Lord Chamberlain.

Viscount Peel.

Secretary Sir W. Joynson-Hicks.

WHEREAS His Majesty the King has power and jurisdiction in the territories of South Africa known as Northern Rhodesia:

And whereas by an Order of His Majesty in Council bearing date the 16th day of July 1914, and entitled "The Northern Rhodesia Naturalisation Order in Council, 1914," (hereinafter referred to as the Principal Order) provision was made for the grant of letters of naturalisation to aliens in Northern Rhodesia:

And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Order by the addition of the provisions hereinafter contained:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

I. This Order may be cited as "The Northern Rhodesia Naturalisation Order in Council, 1928," and shall be read and construed as one with the Principal Order.

II. A person to whom letters of naturalisation have been granted in Northern Rhodesia under the Principal Order and who, when in any foreign state and not under disability, by obtaining a certificate of naturalisation or by any other voluntary and formal act, becomes naturalised therein, shall thenceforth be deemed to have ceased to possess the local status of British subject in Northern Rhodesia, and the wife and every minor child of that person shall thereupon also cease to possess that status.

III.—(1) Where the Governor is satisfied that letters of naturalisation granted under the Principal Order have been obtained by false representation or fraud, or by concealment of material circumstances, or that the person to whom such letters are granted has shown himself by act or speech to be disaffected or disloyal to His Majesty, the Governor shall, by order, revoke such letters.

(2) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions the Governor shall by order revoke letters of naturalisation in any case in which he is satisfied that the person to whom such letters were granted either:—

(a) has during any war in which His Majesty is engaged unlawfully traded or communicated with the enemy or with the subject of an enemy state, or been engaged in or associated with any business which is to his knowledge carried on in such manner as to assist the enemy in such war; or

(b) has within five years of the date of the grant of such letters been sentenced by any court in His Majesty's dominions or in a British Protectorate to imprisonment for a term of not less than twelve months, or to a term of penal servitude, or to a fine of not less than one hundred pounds; or

(c) was not of good character at the date of the grant of such letters; or

(d) has since the date of the grant of such letters been for a period of not less than seven years ordinarily resident out of Northern Rhodesia otherwise than as a representative of a British subject, firm, or company carrying on business, or an institution established, in Northern Rhodesia or in His Majesty's dominions, or in the service of the Crown, and has not maintained substantial connection with Northern Rhodesia; or

(e) remains according to the law of a state at war with His Majesty a subject of that state:

and that (in any case) the continuance of such letters is not conducive to the public good.

(3) The Governor may, if he thinks fit, before making an order under this article refer the case for such inquiry as is hereafter specified.

(4) An inquiry under this article shall be held by a committee constituted for the purpose by the Governor presided over by a person appointed by the Governor and shall be conducted in such manner as the Governor may direct.
