LORD CHANCELLOR.
PRIME MINISTER.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Commission dated the 4th day of December 1928, to nominate and appoint Her Majesty The Queen, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, K.G., K.T., K.P., G.C.S.I., G.C.M.G., G.C.I.E., G.C.V.O., G.B.E., His Royal Highness The Duke of York, K.G., K.T., G.C.V.O., the Most Reverend Father in God Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of Canterbury, the Right Honourable Douglas M'Garel, Baron Hailsham, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and the Right Honourable Stanley Baldwin, Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury, or any Three of them, during His Majesty's illness, to summon and hold on His Majesty's behalf His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His Majesty's approval of any matter or thing to which His Majesty's approval in Council is required:

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 29th day of November 1928 (N.P. (2) 2532/28), in the words following, viz.:-

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas the Signalling Staff of the Admiralty Signal Station at Windmill Hill, Gibraltar, in addition to their ordinary Naval duties, perform certain services in connection with maritime commercial signalling for Lloyd's in consideration of which services Lloyd's has hitherto made to the Admiralty payments amounting to £130 per annum of which sum £85 per annum is for distribution amongst the signalling staff by way of reward for the extra work performed:

"And whereas a revised arrangement has now been adopted whereby such payments will cease and Lloyd's agree, as from the 1st April 1928, to pay to the Admiralty for the services of the Signalling Staff in question a sum of £300 per annum:

"And whereas we consider that this revised arrangement does not affect the claim of the Signalling Staff at Windmill Hill Signal Station to additional remuneration for the services performed by them for Lloyd's:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the allocation of an annual sum, in the form of extra pay from Navy Votes, of £85 as from the 1st April 1928, to be distributed amongst the Signalling Staff in proportions to be decided at our discretion.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty The Queen, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, His Royal Highness The Duke of York, His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and the Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury, being authorised thereto by His Majesty's said Commission have taken the said Memorial into consideration, and do hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on His Majesty's behalf approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
