1. Subject to the modifications contained in this Order the whole of the Act of 1928 shall apply to Carbide of Calcium in like manner as it applies to Petroleum Spirit, except so much of the Act of 1928 as relates to the conveyance of petroleum spirit by road, to the testing of petroleum spirit, to the keeping and use of petroleum spirit for the purpose of motor vehicles, motor boats, aircraft and engines, and to byelaws as to petroleum filling stations.

(iii) Where the Carbide is kept by a General Lighthouse Authority, as defined by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, 57-8 V. c. 60, such quantity may be so kept as may be required for the purposes of such Authority, provided that:—

(a) The Carbide is kept only in a metal vessel or vessels hermetically-closed at all times when the Carbide is not actually being withdrawn from such vessel or vessels.

(b) The vessels containing Carbide are kept in a dry and well-ventilated building exclusively appropriated to the keeping of Carbide, and detached from a dwelling-house or separated therefrom by a substantial partition with no opening in it.

(c) Due precautions are taken to prevent unauthorised persons from having access to the Carbide.

(d) No artificial light capable of igniting inflammable vapour is allowed to be taken into the building in which the Carbide is kept.

4. The Interpretation Act, 1889, 52-3 V. c. 63, shall apply to this Order in like manner as it applies to an Act of Parliament.

5. All previous Orders in Council relating to the keeping of Carbide of Calcium, viz., Orders dated 26th February 1897, S.R. & O., 1897, No. 171, 7th July, 1897, S.R. & O., 1897, No. 544, 24th October, 1904, S.R. & O., 1904, No. 1659, 8th August, 1911, S.R. & O., 1911, No. 794, 14th July, 1922, S.R. & O., 1922, No. 816, and 27th June, 1927, S.R. & O., 1927, No. 596, are hereby revoked.
