A MOST ELIGIBLE ESTATE IN ABERDEEN-SHIRE FOR SALE. (BY ADJOURNMENT.)

To be Sold, by Public Sale, under the authority of the Court of Session, within the new Session-House, Edinburgh, upon Wednesday, the 18th day of November next, betwixt the hours of 5 and 6 o'clock afternoon.

THE LANDS and ESTATE of WOODHILL, with the Teinds, lying in the parish of Inverury, and county of Aberdeen, consisting of about 456 Scots acres, 147 whereof are under wood, all inclosed, and in a very thriving condition. About 57 acres of these plantations consist wholly of Firs, which might now be cut, and disposed of to advantage, as there is a great demand for such timber at present in that neighbourhood, and at Aberdeen, to which it can be easily conveyed.

The situation of this estate is particularly beautiful, extending about two miles along the north banks of the river Don, in which it has a right of salmon-fishing, and there are good stations for net and rod-fishing upon the premises.

The farm of the Mains, which was in the natural possession of the proprietor, consists of about 126 acres of arable land, of which 12 are inclosed and subdivided, and are at present in grass of various ages. The Mansion-House and Offices are sufficient to accommodate a large family, and there is a good Garden and Pigeon-House on the estate. There are about 40 acres of haugh or flat ground along the banks of the river, which would afford a fine situation for an extensive manufactory, and upon which there are several stations for erecting machinery; and there is abundance of fine granite stone upon the premises; so that a property, with so many local and valuable advantages, is very rarely to be met with.

The estate is distant from the city of Aberdeen about sixteen miles, and only about three miles from Inverury, to which there is now an excellent turnpike-road from Aberdeen.

The free proven rental of the estate is 246l. 15s. 8d 2-12ths, and the wood and ground on which it stands are valued at 3,520l.

The whole premises will be exposed in one lot, at the upset price of 10,923l. 10s. 5d.

The lands hold of the Crown, for payment of a trifling feu-duty, and stand rated in the cess-books at 200l Scots.

The titles, conditions of sale, and judicial rental, are to be seen in the hands of Mr George Bruce, Depute Clerk of Session. For farther information, application may be made to Messrs Inglis & Robertson, 49, Queen Street, and Mr Alexander Shand, advocate, Aberdeen.

Price Sixpence.
