TREASURY MINUTE DATED 18TH
AUGUST 1932.

My Lords read the Import Duties (Exemptions) (No. 2) Order, 1932, dated July 12th, 1932, which provides for the exemption from customs duties chargeable under Section 1 of the Import Duties Act, 1932, of certain goods, including the following, that is to say:—

The Chancellor of the Exchequer reminds the Board that the Import Duties Advisory Committee in their Report dated the 29th June 1932 suggested that an appropriate Body to advise Their Lordships in regard to the approval of a particular gallery, museum or other non-scientific institution, might be the Standing Commission on Museums and Galleries, and that in the case of scientific institutions the Council of the Royal Society, might be invited to undertake the duty; and that in accordance with this suggestion of the Advisory Committee Their Lordships on the 14th July 1932 caused letters to be addressed to the Standing Commission on Museums and Galleries and to the Council of the Royal Society inviting those Bodies to afford Their Lordships the benefit of their advice in regard to the particular Institutions which should be approved by the Treasury for the purposes of the above-mentioned Order.
