TURNER & BALMAIN, Vintners in Linlithgow, and of George Turner and Ann Balmain, the Individual Partners of that Company.

GEORGE KINCAID of Bellsdyke, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said company, and individual partners, hereby intimates, that at the meeting of Creditors, held at Linlithgow on the 20th of October current, (being the day after the second examination of the bankrupts), the said George Turner offered, for himself and his partner Ann Balmain, to find security to the satisfaction of the Creditors, to pay the whole Creditors of the company, and the Creditors of the individual partners, a composition of 5s. in the pound upon the whole debts due by them at the date of the sequestration, and that at four and eight months from the date of the offer. This offer the Creditors then present unanimously resolved was just and reasonable, being of opinion that it was more than could be drawn from the sequestrated estates; and therefore they appointed the Trustee to advertise another meeting of the Creditors, in terms of the Statute, to decide upon that offer.

The Trustee, as so directed, hereby intimates, that another general meeting of the Creditors is to be held on Friday, the 13th day of November next, at 1 o'clock afternoon, within the house of James M'Farlane, vintner in Linlithgow, for the purpose of deciding upon the above offer of composition, in terms of the Statute.
