The KING has been pleased to issue a Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual to the following effect:—

GEORGE R.I.

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, To all to whom these Presents shall come:

Greeting!

Whereas by Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual bearing date the twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, We were pleased to appoint Commissioners to enquire into such questions of public amenity or of artistic importance as may be referred to them from time to time by any of Our Departments of State, and to report thereon to such Department; and furthermore, to give advice on similar questions when so requested by public or quasi-public bodies, where it appears to the said Commission that their assistance would be advantageous:

And whereas We have deemed it expedient that the terms of reference to Our said Commission should be extended so that it shall also be open to the said Commission, if they so desire, to call the attention of any of Our Departments of State, or of the appropriate public or quasi-public bodies, to any project or development which in the opinion of the said Commission may appear to affect amenities of a national or public character:

Now therefore We do Will and Ordain that the terms of reference to Our said Commission shall be extended as aforesaid.

Given at Our Court at Sandringham the twelfth day of August 1933, in the Twenty-fourth year of Our Reign.
