NOTICE

TO THE CREDITORS

On the Sequestrated estate of WILLIAM M'KAY, late Merchant in Glasgow.

IN consequence of the loss of the vessel called the Garland, in which the said William M'Kay sailed for Buenos Ayres, and upon whose safe arrival there, insurance to a considerable extent was effected before his departure from this country, funds are likely to be recovered, nearly equal to the amount of the debts claimed on the sequestrated estate. And at a meeting of the Commissioners, held upon the 4th day of November last, the Trustee having reported to them the state of the claim upon the underwriters, and the likelihood of the recovery of a fund nearly equal to William M'Kay's debts, the Commissioners were of opinion, that in the particular circumstances in which that fund had arisen, a certain proportion of it should be set aside, to be employed in the purchase of an annuity to Mr M'Kay's widow; and this they recommended in the strongest manner to the Creditors. And in order that this measure might be fully deliberated upon and discussed, they enjoined the Trustee to call a general meeting of the Creditors in the last week of December, for the purpose of receiving their advice and instruction, whether any, and what, proportion of the sums so to be recovered from the underwriters should be set aside, in order to be invested in an annuity for Mrs M'Kay.

Robert Tod, Trustee upon the sequestrated estate, therefore hereby requests a general meeting of the Creditors, in his office, Tontine Buildings, Glasgow, on Thursday, the 31st day of December current, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of taking the said matters into consideration.

Glasgow, December 3, 1807.
