FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 1936.

*Scottish Office,
Whitehall,
2nd April 1936.*

At Buckingham Palace, on the 2nd instant, The KING received on the Throne Deputations with Addresses from the Corporation of the City of Edinburgh and the Universities of Edinburgh, St. Andrews, Glasgow, and Aberdeen, as follows:—

City of Edinburgh—

To THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.
May it Please Your Majesty:

We, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City and Royal Burgh of Edinburgh, humbly offer to Your Majesty our congratulations on your accession to the Throne of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, and we trust that Your Majesty will be long spared to reign over your loyal subjects in these realms.

We respectfully assure Your Majesty of our loyalty and devotion to Your Majesty's Person, Throne, and Government.

The high conception of public duty which Your Majesty displayed as Prince of Wales, and the intimate knowledge which Your Majesty acquired of the affairs of this vast Empire, are an assurance to us that Your Majesty will worthily maintain and uphold the great traditions which have gathered round the British Throne during the reign of your illustrious and beloved Father, the late King George.

We assure Your Majesty of the unswerving loyalty and fidelity of the Citizens of your City of Edinburgh, the Capital of Scotland.

Given, in name and by authority of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council, and the Seal of the City affixed hereto, at Edinburgh, the twenty-third day of January 1936.

LOUIS L. GUMLEY, Lord Provost.
DAVID ROBERTSON, Town Clerk.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address, and for the assurances which it contains of the continued devotion of the citizens of Edinburgh.

I appreciate your references to the regard and affection in which my beloved Father was held, and during my reign I shall ever keep his example before me.

In receiving you to-day, in the renewal of your ancient privilege as the representatives of my Scottish Capital, I am assured that in time to come the City of Edinburgh will nobly maintain its honoured place in the history of Scotland and the Empire.

University of Edinburgh—

To THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it Please Your Majesty :

We, Your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, University Court and Senatus of the University of Edinburgh, beg leave to tender to Your Majesty, to Queen Mary, and the other members of the Royal Family our most sincere sympathy in the bereavement which Your Royal House has suffered in the death of His Late Majesty King George.

With pride and thanksgiving we look back upon the twenty-five years of his reign, and upon the work which he accomplished in binding more closely together the peoples of the British Commonwealth all over the globe; and we are devoutly grateful that the universal accord with which his Silver Jubilee was acclaimed throughout his Empire must have been to him an ample assurance of success achieved.

And now in a spirit of dutiful loyalty we beg to offer to Your Majesty our congratulations on your accession to this historic and illustrious Throne, and to assure Your Majesty of our unswerving fidelity and devotion.

It is our humble and earnest prayer that Your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a prosperous and united people.

J. M. BARRIE, Chancellor.

ALLENBY, Rector.

THOMAS H. HOLLAND,

Principal and Vice-Chancellor.

Edinburgh, 14th March 1936.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you for your loyal Address; I particularly appreciate its references both to my beloved Father and to the strengthening of the links between the peoples of the British Empire which took place during his reign.

The ancient University of Edinburgh has long-standing and intimate associations with the Throne. It has consistently enhanced those associations by the great services which it has rendered to the common good both in Peace and in War.

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you here to-day in accordance with the honourable privilege of your University, and I assure you that I fully realise the value of the work which you are doing in the cause of Learning.

University of St. Andrews—

To THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it Please Your Majesty :

We, the University of St. Andrews, desire respectfully to present to Your Majesty an expression of our heartfelt loyalty and congratulation on Your Majesty's accession to the Throne. The Association of our ancient University with the Throne of Great Britain has been continuous, and a matter of profound satisfaction to the University. With the whole Realm over which Your Majesty now reigns we have mourned the passing of your Beloved and Revered Father, His late Majesty King George V.; and with the same loyalty that we have ever borne to the Throne, we wish and pray for you a long and prosperous reign.

In September 1922 this ancient University had the honour of conferring upon Your Majesty, then Prince of Wales, the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws. We would reiterate words used on that occasion, when Your Majesty's manifold services in every part of the Empire had awakened in us a deep admiration. "The quality of the part you played in each, the faculty of quickening ceremony with sympathy, of diversifying duty with sport, and thus enhancing both, of interest in the interests of others, and of untiring friendliness, reaches to the heart of what is finest and most native in our history, and rests securely there, an image and an ideal at once radiant and reflective, of the whole Empire's youth."

This most ancient of the Universities of Scotland, still set to guard and train the ideals and hopes of youth, welcomes especially Your Majesty's interest in the young people of the Empire, and rests assured that this interest, which Your Majesty has so long and so graciously evinced, will be maintained amid Your Majesty's onerous duties of rule and governance.

We know Your Majesty's vital interest in the manifold problems that confront the world to-day, and we hope and trust that lives trained within our University may help towards a wise solution of these. We believe that Your Majesty's own understanding of these problems, and the heritage of devotion to duty which Your Majesty holds of your illustrious and beloved Father, will endear Your Majesty to the people of your wide Dominions, will secure the stability of your Throne, and assure for all time for Your Majesty an exalted place amongst earthly sovereigns.

We present to Your Majesty our heartfelt allegiance. We pray that God may grant Your Majesty a long and happy reign, and enable you to exercise a gracious influence for goodwill and peace throughout the world.

STANLEY BALDWIN, Chancellor.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

It gives me great satisfaction to receive at your hands this loyal Address from the University of St. Andrews, and I thank you for the assurances of your allegiance which it contains.

That the University of St. Andrews—albeit the oldest of the Scottish Universities—remains ever young in spirit and in outlook is evident from the terms of your Address.

I am confident that, so long as your University displays the same sympathy with the hopes and ideals of youth, so long will it continue to send forth men and women who will worthily uphold its high traditions and be of service in their day and generation to the Empire and to their fellows.

University of Glasgow—

To THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty :

Sire,

On behalf of the University of Glasgow we, Your Majesty's loyal subjects, humbly beg leave to tender to Your Majesty, in our high privilege of direct access, our homage and faithful devotion on Your Majesty's auspicious accession to the throne of your Royal Fathers.

Founded in 1451 on the goodwill of Your Majesty's Royal ancestor James II., King of Scots, of chivalrous memory, and indebted to him for privileges which are confirmed by his Royal Successors, our University has also in more recent days enjoyed in a memorable degree the favour of your Royal House. The illustrious names of His Majesty King Edward VII. and of their beloved Majesties King George V. and Queen Mary are by gracious permission inscribed for all time in our roll of honoured graduates.

To Your Majesty's Royal Self we join with all the West of Scotland in universal appreciation of Your Majesty's personal interest, so graciously displayed lately, in the great ship which bears Queen Mary's name. We respectfully recognise in the honour of Your Majesty's presence there, as well as in Your Majesty's countless other acts of kindness to those who are now your people, Your Majesty's sure and sympathetic understanding, derived from Your Majesty's unexampled experience, in peace and war, at home and abroad, of the ways of men.

In what touches ourselves it will be our ceaseless endeavour to advance our ancient tradition of true learning. By doing so in such a manner as to promote the general welfare it is our earnest hope to win Your Majesty's Royal Favour.

We pray to Almighty God that He may grant to Your Majesty many happy and prosperous years to rule over us, and that under His grace and guidance Your Majesty's reign may add new and signal lustre to the annals both of this Island Kingdom and of Your Majesty's wide dominions overseas.

Signed and Sealed on behalf of the University of Glasgow, and presented to His Majesty the King on this second day of April nineteen hundred and thirty-six.

DANIEL M. STEVENSON, Chancellor.

D. BAIRD SMITH, Member of University Court.

JOHN R. CURRIE, Clerk of Senate.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I am gratified to receive the Address which you have presented to me and appreciate deeply the loyal assurances embodied in it.

My beloved Father, as you remind me, was personally associated with the University of Glasgow as an Honorary Graduate; his continued interest in its welfare was quickened by his knowledge of the great contributions which the University has made to the development of marine engineering, a science so vitally important to the protection and prosperity of the British Empire.

That interest, you may be sure, will always be maintained by myself; it is my earnest hope that your University may continue to inspire in the coming generation a love of true learning, and a desire to promote the well-being of the community.

University of Aberdeen—

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it Please Your Majesty:

The University of Aberdeen presents its humble duty to Your Majesty.

We submit our sincere condolence with Your Majesty on the lamented decease of His Late Majesty, your beloved and honoured Father.

We respectfully congratulate Your Majesty on your recent accession to the Throne, and tender our loyal homage on this happy occasion. We pray that your reign may be long and auspicious, fraught with abundant blessing both to Your Majesty and to your devoted subjects.

In this northern region we are ever mindful of the ties that bind us to your House and your Person. King Edward VII. and Queen Alexandra opened our new buildings in 1906. Her Gracious Majesty Queen Mary is our most eminent honorary graduate. Your Majesty makes the presentation to a number of our Chairs, and the Balmoral Bursaries in our University are under your patronage. Your Majesty's Highland residence, also, is within the area which we serve.

We shall strive, as in the past, to carry on the torch of true learning in our distant part of Your Majesty's kingdom; and we pray Your Majesty to continue the benevolent regard in which Your Royal House has always held our University and its labours.

Signed on behalf of the University of Aberdeen.

MESTON, Chancellor.

ALEXANDER SOUTER,

Vice-Chancellor and Senior Professor.

WALTER E. ELLIOT, Rector.

H. J. BUTCHART, Secretary.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you for this loyal Address from the University of Aberdeen, and for its expression of sympathy in the loss which my Family and the whole Empire has sustained in the death of my beloved Father.

I greatly appreciate your references to the associations between my Family and your University, for I have a constant regard for all that pertains to the welfare both of Deeside and the northern counties from which your students are largely drawn.

I earnestly trust that the great tradition of learning in this, the most northern University in the United Kingdom, may ever be maintained, and continue to make its contribution to the welfare of my People throughout the British Empire.
